

Smartbox 1208

The foldable dry bulk container

This heavy-duty Folding Large Container (FLC), made from food-grade virgin HDPE, is ideal for dry bulk goods - both food and non-food. Its euro-size foldable design saves space during storage and return transport, lowering costs and reducing your carbon footprint. Durable skids provide reliable strength and stability across the supply chain.

Sustainable

They can be reused for years, get recycled at the end of their service life and are then remanufactured into new containers.

Easy Handling

Easy folding and handling as well as light-weight and stable.

Foldable

To save space in return logistics
