KATHY HOCHUL'S BUDGET IS A TRIPLE THREAT

"Kathy Hochul's budget is a triple threat to your wallet: more taxes, record spending, and a utility bill crisis with no end in sight. In fact, it should be labeled hazardous for your bank account. When I'm Governor, I'll put an end to Hochul's war on the middle class by cutting income taxes, slashing your utility bill in half, and stopping the state from taking another dime of your hard-earned money," Nassau County Executive and candidate for Governor of New York Bruce Blakeman said in response to Kathy Hochul's $268 Billion budget announcement.
