New Poll Has Blakeman Neck & Neck with Hochul

New York Post: Poll Has Blakeman Within 4 Points of Hochul

“This latest poll confirms what we have consistently seen over the last two months in various polls, both statewide and in congressional districts, that have me neck and neck with Kathy Hochul. We are poised for a great victory which will cut taxes, reduce electric bills, and make for safer communities, which people are craving but not getting from the current governor,” Nassau County Executive and candidate for Governor of New York Bruce Blakeman said in response to a poll publicly released today in the New York Post.
