Blakeman on Siena Poll: This Race is Neck & Neck

“All of the polls we have seen in the last two months have us virtually tied with Kathy Hochul. This poll is always off and continues to be off. We know and she knows this race is neck and neck. Kathy Hochul is desperate for people to believe that she is way ahead when she knows that her high taxes, soaring electric bills, and increased crime have made her the worst governor in America,” Nassau County Executive and candidate for Governor of New York Bruce Blakeman said in response to the Siena poll released today.
