

How to access HealthPathways guidance through Heidi

After you've created your Heidi account, you can set up HealthPathways as an evidence source. Here are the steps to get started.

1. Log in to Heidi.
2. Select Evidence from the left-hand menu.

3. Open the Sources panel below the chat box.

4. Select Partner Sources then click Set up HealthPathways.

5. Enter your postcode, select Community, and click Connect.

The image shows a 'HealthPathways' setup dialog box. At the top, it says 'HealthPathways provides locally agreed care pathways.' with a 'Learn more' link. Below this is a section 'Postcode you practice in' with a text input field containing 'Enter your Canada postcode'. A yellow arrow points to this field. Underneath is 'Your practice setting' with two radio buttons: 'Community — For primary care clinicians' (which is selected) and 'Hospital — For hospital clinicians'. At the bottom are 'Cancel' and 'Connect' buttons.

6. Follow the prompts to complete set-up.

When you are correctly set up, HealthPathways is ticked in Partner sources:

The panel lists four categories: 'Clinical web' (with a toggle switch), 'Literature and guidelines' (with a toggle switch), 'My library' (with a right arrow), and 'Partner sources' (with a right arrow). The 'Partner sources' section is expanded, showing a list of sources: 'HealthPathways' (with a checked checkbox and a yellow arrow pointing to it), 'BMJ Best Practice' (with an unchecked checkbox), and 'Microsoft SharePoint' (with a 'Set up' link).
