Any dispute between Company and Client related to this Agreement that is not resolved through informal discussion shall be submitted to a mutually acceptable mediation service or provider. The Parties to the mediation shall bear the mediation costs equally. This paragraph does not preclude a party from seeking equitable relief from a court of competent jurisdiction. If a Party initiates a lawsuit without first resorting to mediation as required hereunder or fails to participate in a mediation requested by the other Party as required under this Agreement, then that breaching party shall not be entitled to recover its costs incurred in the lawsuit (even if it is determined to be the prevailing party).

In the event of any dispute or controversy arising under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party costs and expenses, including attorney's fees incurred by the prevailing party related solely to the dispute or controversy.

14. Severability

If any provision or clause of this Agreement or portion thereof shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void, or unenforceable in such jurisdiction, the remainder of such provisions shall not thereby be affected and shall be given full effect, without regard to the invalid portion.

subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Superior Court for the State of California, County of Los Angeles.

16. Remedies

Client acknowledges and agrees that compliance with the terms of this Agreement is necessary to protect the business and goodwill of the Company, and that a breach of this Agreement will irreparably and continually damage the Company, for which money damages may not be adequate. Client agrees that, in the event that Client breaches or threatens to breach any of the provisions of this Agreement, Company shall be entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction in order to prevent the continuation of such harm, in addition to any and all other remedies available at law or in equity. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit the Company from pursuing any and all remedies available at law or in equity, and the Parties agree that all remedies shall be cumulative.
