01 INTRO

Every pleasure trip begins with a vision.

With a desire for discovery, a wish to open new horizons, a disposition to experience new points of view. Someone looking for the freedom of the road, someone else for the beauty of the landscape, someone else for the intensity of relationships. Someone seeking the authenticity of their way of being, wherever they are. At that moment, even before the wheels start turning, an idea is born. And that's where we come in.

Sguinzi accompanies RV and caravan manufacturers through this invisible but crucial phase: the one where the journey is imagined, designed, and shaped, before it even starts.
