About: This flyer was created to promote a joint community event hosted by T.R.U.E. Collective and MassDevelopment's TDI program at The Loft in Taunton, MA. The event served a dual purpose: unveiling plans for a CCRH and collecting food donations to support local families. Designed with bold visuals and inclusive language, the flyer highlights how community engagement can happen through creative, people-centered events.

Usage Description: Use this flyer as inspiration when designing promotional materials for:

- Food drives tied to CCRH or youth programs
- Community design or visioning sessions
- Collaborative events hosted with local partners or funders
- Events that mix storytelling, direct service, and public participation
