

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: September 26, 2025

Version 1.1

This Cookie Policy explains how Axo Longevity, Inc. ("Axo Longevity," "we," "us," or "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our website and apps. It also describes your choices regarding these technologies.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help us recognize your device, remember preferences, improve site performance, and provide personalized content and ads.

Cookies can be:

- Session Cookies: Temporary; deleted once you close your browser.
- Persistent Cookies: Remain until they expire or are deleted manually.
- First-Party Cookies: Placed directly by Axo Longevity.
- Third-Party Cookies: Set by trusted partners (e.g., Google, Meta, Twitter).

How Do We Use Cookies?

We use cookies to:

- Keep your login session active
- Remember language, region, and time zone settings
- Analyze site traffic and performance
- Run referral and viral campaign features
- Deliver interest-based advertising
- Allow integration with social media

Legal Basis for Using Cookies

Under the UK and EU GDPR, our use of cookies is based on the following legal grounds:

- Essential cookies: processed under our legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) GDPR) to operate the website and provide secure access.
- All other cookies (analytical, functional, social media, advertising): used only with your consent (Article 6(1)(a) GDPR), which you can give or withdraw at any time through the Cookie Settings link.

Essential Cookies

These are required to operate the website, enable navigation, and provide secure areas of the platform. They cannot be switched off.

Analytical Cookies

We use Google Analytics and Google Tag Manager to understand visitor interactions, measure performance, and improve functionality.

Functional Cookies

- Customer.io – used for personalized communications (emails, in-app messages).
- Viral Loops – powers our referral programs and tracks invite activity.

Social Media Cookies

- Meta Pixel and Twitter Pixel – track interactions with our ads and allow you to share content easily.

Targeting or Advertising Cookies

- Google Ads Pixel – used for remarketing and conversion tracking across Google Ads.
- Meta Pixel – used for interest-based ads on Facebook/Instagram.
- Twitter Pixel – used for tailored ads on Twitter/X.

Third-Party Cookies and Data Sharing

Some cookies are placed by third-party providers who may use the information for their own purposes in line with their privacy policies.

We recommend reviewing their policies:

Interest-Based Ads

We and our partners use cookies to build a profile of your interests and serve relevant ads. You may still see general ads if you opt out, but they will not be personalized.

How to Block Cookies

When you first visit our website, you will see a cookie consent banner allowing you to:

- Accept all cookies
- Reject all non-essential cookies
- Manage your preferences by category

Non-essential cookies are not placed on your device until you have given consent through our cookie banner. You can change or withdraw your consent at any time via our Cookie Settings link in the website footer. You can also control cookies in your browser settings. Note that disabling cookies may affect website functionality.
