

Gardening Gloves PG601

Product Code: PG601

The PG601 Gardening Gloves are a reliable choice for anyone who works with their hands in the garden. Whether you're planting, pruning, weeding, or maintaining lawns and flower beds — these gloves are designed to support you through a wide range of gardening tasks, big or small. Featuring a comfortable Polyester liner for an excellent fit and breathability, they keep your hands protected without sacrificing dexterity. The grinkled latex grip provides a firm hold even in wet or muddy conditions and covers most of the hand for added protection against thorns, dirt, and wear. Thanks to their 10-gauge construction, these gloves are tough and durable, yet flexible enough to allow for precision work. From digging and planting to handling garden tools or arranging decorative stones — the PG601 Gardening Gloves are built to make every gardening task safer and more efficient.
