SOCIAL PROGRAMMES

Students enjoy a full social calendar running alongside their academic timetable. Evening events such as karaoke nights, themed parties, and group socials are conducted in English, making every gathering a natural opportunity to practise the language. Afternoon activities include rugby, football, dance, tennis, and golf, keeping campus life active, fun, and socially rewarding throughout.

ACCOMMODATION & DINING

Students live on Wellington College's campus in single or twin study bedrooms with shared bathroom facilities. Three meals are served daily across breakfast, packed lunch, and dinner, with all dietary requirements catered for. A tuck shop is also available on campus, giving students easy access to snacks and refreshments between meals and activities throughout their stay.

STUDENT WELFARE

Worldschooling's dedicated welfare team is available around the clock for the full duration of the programme. Students are supported by trained welfare managers, safeguarding-certified leaders, and first aiders, all working within strong supervision ratios. The team maintains close contact with local doctors and hospitals, so students and families can feel confident that safety and care remain the constant priority.

Integrated English Learning

Following a placement assessment, students are streamed by proficiency and spend roughly half their academic timetable on reading, writing, listening, and speaking in structured small classes, ensuring steady, measurable progress throughout the programme.

Academic Enrichment

The remaining timetable is dedicated to subject study delivered entirely in English. Students choose from Mathematics, History, Business, Art, Entry Level Engineering, or IB courses, following UK independent school methodology that builds analytical thinking and independent research skills.

Sports Development

Around six hours each week are devoted to structured sports including football, volleyball, swimming, golf, and dance. Sessions build discipline, teamwork, and leadership while keeping students physically active and energised throughout the programme.
