Message from Chairman and Managing Director

Dear Stakeholders,

The year marked continued progress in strengthening our vaccines business, expanding our international pharmaceutical presence and advancing an innovation pipeline focussed on some of the world's important healthcare needs. Guided by our purpose of delivering affordable and innovative healthcare solutions, we continue to combine scientific capability with global reach to create sustainable value for patients, partners and shareholders.

In our continuous pursuit of a healthier tomorrow, we are steadfast in our mission to nourish lives through ground-breaking innovations. As a pioneer in vaccines and advanced therapeutics, we leverage innovative research and development to address global healthcare challenges.

Financial Year 2025–26 unfolded against a dynamic global healthcare environment, shaped by evolving public-health priorities, geopolitical uncertainties and an increasing emphasis on resilient healthcare supply chains. Against this backdrop, we remained focussed on strengthening our core businesses while investing in capabilities and innovation that can support Panacea Biotec's next phase of growth.

Financial & Operational Performance: During 2025–26, we demonstrated continued progress across its businesses. Consolidated revenues stood at ₹6,397.74 million, with vaccines contributing ~64.6%, and the balance from pharmaceuticals, nutrition, and allied businesses. The revenues from our vaccines business were ₹4,102.56 million. The revenue from export of vaccines has increased to ₹2,771.75 million. Our pharmaceutical and nutrition business continued to strengthen its performance, supported by international expansion, domestic operations and contract manufacturing.

Exports remained a significant growth driver, our vaccines reached over 37 countries across Africa, Asia and Latin America, while pharmaceuticals products were shipped to over 40 markets, including the US, Canada, Europe, and emerging regions.

Vaccines:

Growth Drivers & Major Achievements

- Strengthening Our Vaccine Franchise: We continued to strengthen our paediatric immunization with our flagship brands like EasySix®, EasyFourPol®, Easyfive-TT® and Bi-OPV®. EasySix® continues to maintain a strong presence in the Indian market, while we are progressively expanding its international footprint across multiple geographies through registrations and partnerships.
- Environmental & Cost Sustainability: Our combination vaccines, led by EasySix® and EasyFourPol®, support more efficient and sustainable immunization delivery. Based on the Company's assessment, for every 30 million doses, EasySix® can reduce associated CO₂ emissions by approximately 60% compared with a separate vaccination schedule (6.77 million kg vs. 16.93 million kg CO₂) apart from reducing the use of packaging materials such as paper and glass and lowering biomedical waste.
- Global Polio Eradication: As a pivotal partner in global polio eradication, we remain a primary supplier of oral polio vaccines to UNICEF, the Government of India, and developing nations. Over the past two decades, we have delivered more than 10.5 billion polio vaccine doses.
- Awards for supply: During the year under review, your Company has received awards from UNICEF, CMSS and PAHO for the supply of Bi-OPV[®] vaccine and Easyfive-TT[®] vaccines in the upcoming calendar years.

- Global Recognition & Alliances: We listed one of our adjuvants, EmulsiPan in the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations (CEPI) Library of adjuvants to support the scientific community in advancing vaccine and biotherapeutic development.

Innovation Pipeline & Strategic R&D: Our innovation pipeline continued to advance during the year.

- DengiAll[®]: Phase III clinical trials of DengiAll[®], India's first tetravalent dengue vaccine, in collaboration with Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) is ongoing. The vaccine is expected to be launched by 2027-28 post completion of the clinical trial and subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals.
- Launch of the DENSTAR Project: In June 2026, collaborative research project 'DENSTAR' was launched in Africa which will inter-alia, work to advance the licensure of the dengue vaccine, DengiAll[®], in sub-Saharan Africa (sSA) and to facilitate its broader global use.
- NuCoVac[®]-11: The Phase III clinical trial of NuCoVac[®]-11, the Company's 11-valent pneumococcal conjugate vaccine candidate, has been completed in India. NuCoVac[®]-11 is positioned to target ~₹1,000 million annual pneumococcal vaccine market in India, subject to receipt of necessary regulatory approvals.
- TedShot[®] & Next-Gen Pipeline: We are preparing to launch the TedShot[®] (Tetanus and Diphtheria reduced) vaccine in India after obtaining marketing authorisation. Jointly with BRIC-THSTI, we are developing VaxiPox[™] (a multi-epitope recombinant mpox vaccine candidate), designed against highly conserved antigens across mpox, and a recombinant, nanoparticle broadly protective Beta-coronavirus candidate vaccine.

Global Expansion: As part of our strategy to expand into the international private vaccine market, we have already registered our vaccines in 17 countries. This includes registration with African Medicines Regulatory Harmonization (AMRH), which will pave the way for launches across roughly ~32 African regions that have ratified the African Medicines Agency (AMA) Treaty. Additionally, the product registration in another 17 countries is in progress. Besides supplying Easyfive-TT[®], EasySix[®] and Bi-OPV[®], we will also be seeking WHO pre-qualification of our pipeline products for supply to UN agencies and other national Governments.

Pharmaceuticals:

Expanding Our Global Footprint: Our wholly owned material subsidiary, Panacea Biotec Pharma Limited (PBPL) continued to strengthen its international presence during the year, with pharmaceutical products reaching approximately 40 countries across regulated and emerging markets. We are further expanding our footprints with entry into new markets including Algeria, Egypt, Libya, Oman, Qatar and South Africa, while building a strong regulatory pipeline to support future growth. PBPL currently has 386 active registrations across ROW markets, with 36 dossiers under review and a further 68 dossiers planned for filing in FY2026–27. Consolidated revenues from the pharmaceuticals and nutrition businesses stood at ₹2,295 million, including ₹1,791 million from pharmaceutical exports, reflecting the growing importance of our international business.

Nutrition & Baby Care Business:

Building on our heritage in paediatric healthcare, we continued to expand our consumer healthcare portfolio through NikoMom[®], Staart[®] Prime and ChilRun[®], spanning baby care and nutrition. We are strengthening consumer access through an integrated physical and digital distribution model, including 7NShop.com and leading e-commerce platforms. Supported by 1,800+ distributors, our products are now available across more than 30,000 retail outlets, providing a strong foundation for further growth of our consumer healthcare business.

Innovations with a Human Touch: Our innovations go beyond science - they simplify healthcare delivery, reduce costs, and improve sustainability. For instance, combination vaccines have helped reduce carbon emissions and biological waste by over 50%, while easing immunization schedules for families and governments alike.

Quality & Regulatory Excellence: Quality remains fundamental to our science and operations. During the year, our facilities successfully underwent multiple regulatory audits, reinforcing our continued focus on compliance, product quality and patient safety.

Human Engagement – Our Strongest Pillar: At Panacea Biotec, our people are our greatest competitive advantage. With over 2,300 employees, including ~75 R&D scientists, we continue to invest in capability building, leadership development and an inclusive workplace through initiatives such as Pravesh and Unnati.

We are proud of fostering a workplace built on empathy, inclusivity and diversity. Women now represent ~11.3% of our workforce, up from 9.2% last year, with focussed initiatives to support women across functions. We are also fostering a culture of ownership, collaboration and accountability, supported by employee-led autonomous teams and self-nominated CAPTAINS, with quality and patient safety remaining at the heart of everything we do.

Digital Initiatives: Digital Transformation: We continued to digitise key processes across the organisation, including implementation of ValGenesis for digital validation lifecycle management, enhancement of our internally developed NIKHAAR sales analytics platform, and continued use of Darwinbox for human-resource management.

The Road Ahead – Panacea Biotec 2.0

As we look ahead, Panacea Biotec 2.0 represents our ambition to build a stronger, innovation-led and globally relevant healthcare organisation. Our priorities are clear: expanding our global vaccine leadership through DengiAll[®] and NuCoVac-11[®]; growing our pharmaceutical presence across regulated and emerging markets; scaling our consumer healthcare portfolio; and embedding sustainability across research, manufacturing and supply.

Our strengths in R&D, regulatory capabilities, manufacturing, supply chain and trusted partnerships provide a strong foundation for this next phase of growth. We remain committed to delivering affordable and innovative healthcare solutions while contributing meaningfully to global public health.

As we move forward, I extend my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, Board of Directors, employees, customers, partners, suppliers, governments and global health institutions for their continued trust and support. Together, we remain committed to building an organisation where science serves with purpose, innovation improves lives and growth respects the planet.

I look forward to welcoming you to the forthcoming Annual General Meeting of the Company scheduled to be held on September 29, 2026, through video conferencing and to sharing our progress and future priorities with you.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS REPORT

GLOBAL VACCINE MARKET

Vaccines Market Overview

The global vaccine industry continued to evolve during financial year 2025–26, supported by the expansion of routine immunization programmes, increased focus on life-course vaccination, growing investments in regional manufacturing, and continued development of vaccines against endemic, epidemic, and pandemic-prone diseases. The World Health Organization (WHO) Immunization Agenda 2030 and Gavi's 2026–2030 strategy continue to provide the principal global frameworks for improving equitable access to vaccines, strengthening immunization systems, and supporting sustainable vaccine markets.

Vaccination remains one of the most effective public-health interventions. During the period of ~50 years since the launch of the Expanded Programme on Immunization, vaccines have contributed to saving more than 150 million lives and accounted for ~40% of the global reduction in infant mortality.

According to the latest WHO–UNICEF Estimates of National Immunization Coverage (WUENIC), 90% of infants globally, or nearly 116 million, received at least one dose of a diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis (DTP) vaccine in 2025, while 85%, or nearly 110 million, completed the full three-dose series. However, an estimated 13.5 million “zero-dose” children did not receive a single vaccine in their first year during 2025¹.

The global vaccine market continues to be shaped by the need to protect unvaccinated and under-vaccinated populations, introduce vaccines against additional diseases, strengthen supply security and expand immunization beyond infancy. Gavi's 2026–2030 strategy is expected to support the vaccination of more than 500 million additional children and adolescents while expanding access to vaccines against more than 20 diseases, including several climate-sensitive diseases such as dengue².

Demand growth is expected across paediatric combination vaccines, HPV vaccines, pneumococcal conjugate vaccines, dengue vaccines, malaria vaccines and vaccines used for outbreak preparedness and response. Adult, adolescent and maternal immunization are also becoming increasingly relevant components of national vaccination strategies.

Vaccines Market Dynamics

The global vaccine market remains concentrated, with a limited number of manufacturers accounting for a substantial share of vaccine volumes and financial value. Vaccine production capacity also remains geographically uneven, with several countries in the African and Eastern Mediterranean regions continuing to depend substantially on vaccines manufactured outside their respective regions. Consequently, regional manufacturing, technology transfer, regulatory capacity development and predictable procurement have become important components of global vaccine-security strategies. The African Vaccine Manufacturing Accelerator (AVMA) was launched in June 2024 as a ten-year financing mechanism to support commercially sustainable vaccine manufacturing in Africa. AVMA was established as a US$ 1 billion pull-financing instrument, providing milestone and accelerator payments to eligible manufacturers³.

AVMA aims to support the procurement of at least 800 million vaccine doses manufactured in Africa by 2035, across at least four manufacturers using three different technology platforms. Its long-term impact will depend upon African manufacturers successfully achieving regulatory approvals, WHO prequalification where applicable, competitive manufacturing economics and access to predictable procurement opportunities.

Beyond Africa, countries and regions are strengthening domestic and regional vaccine-manufacturing capabilities to improve supply resilience, diversify sourcing and reduce dependence on imported products. These initiatives may create opportunities for manufacturing partnerships, technology collaborations, contract development and manufacturing arrangements and regional product registrations.

South-East Asia continues to account for the largest share of global vaccine volumes, while North America remains the highest-value market owing to premium-priced vaccines.

¹WHO–UNICEF Estimates of National Immunization Coverage (WUENIC), 2025 revision, July 2026

²Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance, Gavi 6.0 Strategy (2026–2030)

³Gavi, African Vaccine Manufacturing Accelerator (AVMA); WHO Global Vaccine Market Report 2024

Middle-income countries represent the largest demand segment by volume and continue to drive long-term growth through expanding national immunization programmes.

Future growth in the vaccine market is expected to be supported by efforts to improve routine immunization coverage, reach zero-dose and under-vaccinated populations, introduce vaccines against additional diseases and extend vaccination to adolescents, adults, pregnant women and other priority populations. The WHO Immunization Agenda 2030 provides the overarching global framework for maximizing the benefits of vaccines, while Gavi's 2026-2030 strategy focuses on introducing and scaling up vaccines, strengthening health systems, improving programme sustainability and supporting healthy vaccine markets.

Under Gavi 6.0, priority areas include reaching zero-dose children and missing communities, strengthening regional vaccine supply security, increasing domestic ownership of immunization programmes, and supporting vaccines against endemic, epidemic, and pandemic-prone diseases. Gavi's 2024 Vaccine Investment Strategy includes future programmes or learning agendas for tuberculosis, Group B streptococcus, dengue, mpox, and Hepatitis E⁴.

Restraints

Low purchasing power in developing countries: The traditional six vaccines under the Expanded Programme on Immunization (EPI), viz. measles, diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus, oral polio, and Bacille Calmette-Guérin (BCG – vaccine for tuberculosis disease), are mature products and offered as combination vaccines. High fixed costs and a steep learning curve make new vaccines relatively expensive, as the investments in R&D and production facilities need to be recovered and production techniques need to be optimized and perfected to bring down variable production costs.

Non-market activities undertaken by international organisations without competitive process may discourage private investments in development of vaccines as it creates unreal pricing pressures for manufacturers trying to enter the market without such extramural funding (like grants, etc.), creating barriers to entry, and uncertainty regarding commercial viability. These market and non-market factors together continue to threaten the business case of developing novel vaccines that are or could potentially be included in the priority pathogen list.

Opportunities

- Growing Global Demand: Increased awareness of the importance of vaccination can expand market opportunities.
- Technological Advancements: Innovations like mRNA technology can lead to development of more effective vaccines.
- Combination vaccines: Potential value of a combination vaccine versus co-administration of separate antigens.
- Partnership and Collaborations: Collaborating with governments, NGOs and other pharma companies to enhance reach and resources.

- Public Health Initiatives: Leveraging global health campaigns to promote vaccination programs.

Value of Combination Vaccines

Panacea Biotec has focused on development of fully-liquid combination vaccines like Pentavalent (DTwP-HepB-Hib) & (DTwP-HepB-IPV) and Hexavalent (DTwP-HepB-Hib-IPV). In this endeavour, the Company had the opportunity to change the global paediatric immunization program twice with the launch of Easyfive-TT® in 2005 and EasySix® in 2017.

Market generation activities undertaken by international organisations continue to increase the number of vaccines being covered by the National Immunization Programs and more countries are rolling out the WHO's recommended schedule for vaccination either through self-funded or donor-funded programs. Vaccines targeting priority pathogens continue to provide large-scale opportunities for expansion as each such vaccine chosen can immediately reach more than 100 million babies born every year.

International immunization agencies continue to support the introduction of vaccines that can improve coverage, simplify delivery and strengthen programme efficiency. Gavi's 2026-2030 strategy includes a specific objective to introduce and scale up vaccines while maintaining healthy, sustainable markets and improving regional supply security. The transition from separate pentavalent and IPV administration to hexavalent vaccination represents an important potential evolution in paediatric immunization programmes. The timing and scale of this transition will depend upon country decisions, product availability, affordability, financing, regulatory approvals and readiness of national immunization systems.

The latest Gavi's 73 Supported Countries demand scenarios indicate that hexavalent demand may increase from ~18 million doses in 2026 to 74 - 125 million doses in 2030, depending upon the pace of transition. By 2035, demand under the two scenarios is forecast at 92 - 167 million doses.

Indian Vaccine Market

India has one of the world's largest immunization programmes and a substantial domestic vaccine-manufacturing base. The Universal Immunization Programme provides vaccination against multiple vaccine-preventable diseases through a nationwide network of government health facilities and outreach services.

India maintained national full-immunization coverage above 90% during each of the four financial years from 2022-23 to 2025-26. Full-immunization coverage was reported at 97.9% for 2025-26, demonstrating the scale and reach of the Universal Immunization Programme⁵.

The Government of India launched a nationwide HPV vaccination campaign on February 28, 2026, for ~1.2 crore eligible girls aged 14 years across all States and Union Territories. The vaccine is being provided free of cost through designated government health facilities and is recorded through the U-WIN platform.

India's research, manufacturing and regulatory ecosystem also supports the development and supply of vaccines for domestic and international markets. Continued investment in biotechnology, clinical research, manufacturing infrastructure, cold-chain systems and disease surveillance is expected to strengthen India's role in global vaccine development and supply.

A key driver in the Indian vaccine market is the growing focus on preventive healthcare and government of India's push on Project Indradhanush. With increasing awareness about disease outbreaks and the long-term benefits of immunization, both government and private stakeholders are prioritizing vaccination as a cost-effective public health tool. The expansion of awareness campaigns, school-based programs, and healthcare worker outreach in rural areas is bolstering the Indian vaccine market growth. Additionally, the rise in lifestyle and infectious diseases has shifted consumer preference towards preventive measures. This change, together with strong government support and improved healthcare infrastructure, is significantly accelerating vaccine demand across various age groups and socio-economic segments in India.

With one of the world's largest paediatric populations, routine childhood immunizations remain a cornerstone of healthcare priorities. Simultaneously, an aging demographic is increasingly vulnerable to diseases like influenza, pneumococcal infections, and shingles, prompting rising adult and geriatric vaccination needs. Government and private healthcare providers are introducing targeted immunization schedules to address these segments, backed by improved healthcare access and urbanization. This demographic-driven demand ensures consistent consumption across age groups, creating long-term market stability and encouraging new product development tailored to age-specific immunity requirements.

Opportunities in Indian Vaccine Market:

- The Government of India is the single largest buyer of vaccines with procurement being undertaken for more than 25 million babies annually.
- Higher local content requirements in Indian tenders continue to offer opportunities for Indian manufacturers to develop and commercialise EPI vaccines for the Indian high-volume but low-value Indian market.

- Gavi's 2026-2030 strategy and its 2024 Vaccine Investment Strategy provide market signals for vaccines against additional diseases, including tuberculosis, dengue, Group B streptococcus, mpox and hepatitis E. These developments may create opportunities for Indian manufacturers with relevant development platforms, scalable manufacturing capabilities and experience in supplying affordable vaccines⁶.
- Expansion of digital immunization systems, preventive healthcare programmes and vaccination across additional age groups may support long-term growth in India's public and private vaccine markets.

Challenges:

- Vaccine misinformation: Misconception about vaccines often arises when there are information gaps or unsettled science, as human nature seeks to reason, better understand, and fill in the gaps. Vaccine misconceptions and misinformation are a major concern among governments, funding agencies, vaccine manufacturers and suppliers, and other stakeholders alike. Low acceptance rates due to vaccine misinformation result in the lower market penetration of effective and safe vaccines, which could adversely affect the market.
- Regulatory Hurdles: Stringent and varying regulations across countries can delay market entry.
- Competition: Increasing competition from other pharmaceutical companies developing similar vaccines.
- Supply Chain Disruptions: Natural disasters, pandemics, or geopolitical issues can disrupt the supply chain.
- Adverse Events and Safety Concerns: Reports of adverse events can lead to loss of trust and legal liabilities.

Stockouts of existing Vaccines

Vaccine stockouts continue to present a risk to immunization programmes, particularly where procurement, financing, manufacturing or quality-related issues affect supply continuity. The latest WHO Global Vaccine Market Report records 68 countries reporting at least one national-level vaccine stockout during 2023⁷.

Journey marked by Polio eradication leading to bigger impact across infectious diseases

The Company has pioneered in the development of vaccines ranging from recombinant, polysaccharide conjugate, and viral vaccines. The Company has a strong pipeline of vaccines under development to boost its future growth, including DengiAll®, a single-dose live-attenuated tetravalent vaccine against Dengue fever, NuCoVac®-11, a pneumococcal polysaccharide conjugate vaccine (11-valent), a multi-epitope nanoparticle-based broadly protective Beta coronavirus candidate vaccine, and several other vaccines at various stages of development.

Our paediatric vaccine franchise focuses on providing newborns protection against deadly diseases like diphtheria, tetanus toxoid, B. pertussis, hepatitis B, haemophilus influenza Type b (Hib), and polio. We have a strong legacy as a global vaccine player with a track record to bring first-to-market innovative products like:

- World's first fully liquid wP-IPV based hexavalent vaccine, EasySix® (DTwP-HepB-Hib-IPV)
- World's first fully liquid wP-IPV based pentavalent vaccine, EasyFourPol® (DTwP-Hib-IPV)

- World's first fully liquid wP based pentavalent vaccine, Easyfive-TT® (DTwP-HepB-Hib)
- World's first monovalent oral polio vaccines (mOPVs) and bivalent oral polio vaccine (bOPV with poliovirus type 1 and type 3), Bi-OPV®.

During the financial year 2025-26, total revenues from vaccines business was ₹4,102.56 million as against ₹3,098.43 million in the previous financial year. The revenue from export of vaccines has increased to ₹2,771.75 million (~67% of total vaccines revenue) as against ₹2,169.37 million during previous year.

The existing commercialized product portfolio of the Company includes key proprietary vaccines: hexavalent vaccine EasySix®, fully-liquid pentavalent vaccine EasyFourPol®, fully-liquid tetraivalent vaccine Easyfour®-TT, WHO prequalified fully-liquid pentavalent vaccine Easyfive-TT®, and bivalent poliomyelitis vaccine Bi-OPV®.

In India, the Company has a field force of around 150 persons spread across the country to regularly reach out to nearly 10,000 paediatricians across India. Over 400,000 children are vaccinated in the private market in India. EasySix® is the brand leader in India with the largest market share in its segment (IQVIA March 2024). The wP-IPV based hexavalent vaccines also compete with aP-IPV based vaccines in the private market in India.

About Easyfive-TT®

Easyfive-TT® is the world's first fully liquid wP-based Pentavalent vaccine that was launched in India in 2005. After receiving WHO pre-qualification in 2008, more than 210 million doses have been supplied to over 75 countries globally. It is a ready-to-use combination vaccine that does not require preparation by healthcare workers at the clinic, reduces the number of visits to vaccination centres, and reduces the overall cost of immunization for all stakeholders.

About EasySix® and EasyFourPol®

Panacea Biotec is the innovator and intellectual property holder of EasySix®, the world's first fully-liquid hexavalent vaccine. The WHO's Strategic Advisory Group of Experts on Immunization (SAGE) has supported the global rollout of wP-IPV based hexavalent vaccine in the global immunization schedule – creating an opportunity for more than 250 million doses of hexavalent vaccine annually. Panacea Biotec is in the process of expanding its manufacturing capacities in order to meet the growing demand of vaccines in future by public health agencies.

In 2024, Panacea Biotec also launched the world's first fully-liquid wP-IPV based pentavalent vaccine under brand name of EasyFourPol® which provides protection against diphtheria, tetanus toxoid, B. pertussis, Hib, and polio. It is the only vaccine in its segment of wP-IPV based vaccine that aids healthcare practitioners who prefer to give hepatitis B as a standalone vaccine or in mixed schedules due to high-risk births.

Environmental Sustainability: Our combination vaccines, led by EasySix®, EasyFourPol®, and EasyFive-TT®, also set the precedent of promoting environmental sustainability. Adoption of EasySix® in the immunization program leads to reduction of over 60% carbon emissions, helps make a single immunisation program (3 vs 1), over 50% reduction in supply chain costs and storage benefits, and also more than 50% reduction in biological waste.

Apart from lower number of injections and less pain for children, EasySix® provides additional benefits to parents and governments. As parents are able to get all the vaccinations completed in fewer visits, they are more likely to get their children vaccinated. With higher vaccination rates, governments have to spend less money to create healthcare infrastructure and doctors / nurses spend less time on treating avoidable diseases among children; families also get benefited as they truly spend their income to improve their quality of life. Hence, overall society benefits from critical combination vaccines like EasySix®.

Considering the benefits that hexavalent vaccine offers, WHO SAGE in October 2021 approved adoption of hexavalent vaccine in the global immunization program. This led to PAHO's adoption in May 2023 and Gavi's adoption in June 2023. The pace and scope of country transitions from separate pentavalent and IPV vaccination to hexavalent vaccination are expected to be the principal drivers of future hexavalent demand. The latest Gavi 7.3 demand scenarios are presented below:

Transition Scenario for adoption of Hexavalent vaccine	2026	2030	2035
Accelerated transition	18	125	167
Limited transition	18	74	92

Actual demand will, however, depend upon country introduction decisions, financing, product availability, programme readiness and procurement timelines.

Pipeline vaccines

The Company is in the process of launching TedShot® (Tetanus and Diphtheria reduced) vaccine in India after having received marketing authorisation in India. We expect it to compete in the annual ₹250 million private market in India and the public market procurement.

The Phase III clinical trial for India's first dengue vaccine, DengiAll®, is ongoing. The Company has collaborated with the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) for the Phase III clinical trial of DengiAll® vaccine.

The Phase II/III clinical trial of NuCoVac®-11, the Company's 11-valent pneumococcal conjugate vaccine candidate, has been completed in India. Subject to receipt of applicable regulatory approvals, NuCoVac®-11 is expected to compete in the approximately ₹1,000 million annual pneumococcal vaccine market in India.

The Company is also developing a multi-epitope recombinant mpox vaccine, VaxiPox™ designed against highly conserved antigens across mpox clades, jointly with BRIC-THSTI. A recombinant, nanoparticle broadly protective Beta coronavirus candidate vaccine is being developed in collaboration with BRIC-THSTI.

About DengiAll®

Panacea Biotech's tetravalent dengue vaccine candidate, DengiAll® has been developed to provide balanced protection across all four dengue virus serotypes while ensuring a superior safety profile compared to existing options. One of the major challenges in dengue vaccine development has been the risk of antibody-dependent enhancement (ADE), which can lead to more severe disease in individuals without prior dengue exposure. This has been a recurring safety concern with earlier and some current vaccines, where efficacy against certain serotypes was inconsistent.

In fact, long-term analyses of competing products (Daniels et al (Nat Med 31)) have shown that while protection was achieved for DENV1 and DENV2, there was little to no efficacy against DENV3 and DENV4 in seronegative individuals. Moreover, imbalances were observed in hospitalization rates for DENV3, with the vaccine arm showing more cases than placebo, and regulatory reviews have highlighted the risk of hospitalization and severe dengue - including dengue haemorrhagic fever - linked to DENV3 and DENV4 in dengue-naïve recipients.

DengiAll® has been designed to overcome these limitations by avoiding structural imbalances that contribute to serotype-specific risks. Its safety advantage is reinforced by both human challenge and non-human primate studies, where DengiAll's strains have demonstrated robust protection. In controlled human infection models, vaccinated volunteers resisted wild-type dengue challenge, showing prevention of both viremia and symptomatic illness across all four serotypes without evidence of breakthrough severe cases. Similarly, monkey challenge studies confirmed that vaccinated animals mounted strong neutralizing antibody responses, were protected from clinical illness, and did not experience ADE-associated complications.

Together, these findings position DengiAll® as a safer and more programmatically deployable dengue vaccine candidate, with the potential to eliminate the need for pre-vaccination screening. By combining a broad tetravalent response with early evidence of durable safety from challenge studies, DengiAll® stands out as a next-generation solution capable of addressing the global unmet need for a reliable dengue vaccine.

About Mpox candidate vaccine VaxiPox™

Mpox, caused by the Monkeypox virus (MPXV), has re-emerged as a significant global health concern with multiple clades in circulation. Clade I (Central African, further divided into Ia and Ib) is associated with more severe disease and higher fatality rates, while Clade II (West African, with subclades IIa and IIb) has been responsible for the widespread outbreaks since 2022. The ongoing circulation of both severe and milder clades highlights the unpredictable nature of the disease and the potential for further international spread. A major clinical challenge lies in the waning immunity resulting from the cessation of smallpox vaccination programs after eradication in 1980. While older populations may retain partial cross-protection, younger generations are largely susceptible, leaving a growing global immunological gap. This has been compounded by new epidemiological patterns of transmission, including household spread, nosocomial infections, and sexual networks, which have accelerated the disease's reach across continents.

Against this backdrop, Panacea Biotec, in collaboration with BRIC-THSTI, is developing VaxiPox™, a novel multi-epitope subunit vaccine designed to target conserved antigens across circulating clades. Unlike live-virus vaccines, VaxiPox™ offers a safer profile suitable for wider populations, including immune compromised individuals and children, while eliciting both strong T-cell and neutralizing antibody responses. With global Mpox cases surpassing 142,000 confirmed infections across more than 130 countries since 2022, the demand for effective, broadly protective vaccines have never been more pressing. The global mpox vaccine market, valued at ~US$ 114.06 million in 2025-26, is projected to reach nearly US$ 372.85 million by 2035, growing at a CAGR of over 13.3%. VaxiPox™ is well-positioned to address this unmet need, combining scientific innovation with scalable production to ensure accessibility in both developed and resource-limited regions.

About Broadly protective Beta coronavirus candidate vaccine

A recombinant, nanoparticle candidate vaccine collaboratively developed with BRIC-THSTI, has potential to offer protection against SARS-CoV-1, SARS-CoV-2 and MERS to drive broad neutralization. It has been formulated with Panacea Biotec's EmulsiPan adjuvant. The program is co-funded by The Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations (CEPI) (US$12.5 million) and is advancing towards Phase I human safety studies.

Beta coronaviruses have emerged repeatedly in recent decades, underlining the urgent need for broadly protective vaccines. The SARS-CoV-1 outbreak in 2001 (commonly referred to as the 2002–2003 SARS pandemic) demonstrated how a novel coronavirus could spread rapidly across continents, resulting in over 8,000 cases with nearly 10% fatality. This was followed by the SARS-CoV-2 pandemic in 2019, which escalated into the most disruptive global health crisis in recent history, infecting hundreds of millions, causing millions of deaths, and leaving long-lasting socio-economic impacts worldwide. Parallel to these, Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS) - first identified in 2012 - has continued to pose a persistent threat, especially in Saudi Arabia. By May 2025, there have been 2,626 confirmed cases globally, of which more than 2,217 were reported in Saudi Arabia alone, with a fatality rate close to 39%. These repeated incursions underscore the unpredictability and high lethality of beta coronaviruses.

India, like several other countries, faces a heightened vulnerability due to animal reservoirs and environmental interfaces. Dromedary camels are recognized carriers of MERS-CoV, and multiple coronavirus strains have also been identified in Indian bat populations. The close human–animal proximity that characterizes large parts of India - driven by livestock dependence, expanding urban encroachment, and ecological disruption - further elevates the risk of zoonotic spillovers. In conflict-prone or resource-constrained regions, surveillance and containment are even more difficult, compounding the risk of localized outbreaks escalating into wider epidemics.

Together, these initiatives highlight how India's scientific partnerships are producing globally relevant vaccine solutions. With rising risks from coronaviruses, poxviruses, and other zoonoses, platforms that combine antigenic breadth, rapid manufacturability, and affordability are poised to become cornerstones of global pandemic security.

Global Institutional business for Vaccines

Panacea Biotec has been one of the largest suppliers of vaccines to multilateral agencies such as UNICEF and PAHO and has been supplying vaccines to institutional customers and national governments for over two decades. During the year under review, the Company's vaccines were exported to ~37 countries across Africa, Asia, and Latin America. In addition to supplying Easyfive-TT®, EasySix® and Bi-OPV®, the Company plans to seek WHO prequalification for its pipeline products and other licensed products such as Pneumococcal Conjugate vaccine, Dengue Tetravalent vaccine, EasyFourPol® and Td vaccine, enabling their supply to UN agencies and other national governments.

As part of its strategy to expand into the international private vaccine market, the Company has already registered its vaccines in 17 countries, including through the African Medicines Regulatory Harmonization (AMRH) initiative. This will, inter alia, facilitate the launch of its products across ~32 countries in the African region that have ratified the African Medicines Agency (AMA) Treaty.

Panacea Biotec remains committed to supporting the global cause of providing affordable vaccines to children across the world. The Company works closely with leading global health organizations, including WHO, Gavi, UNICEF, PAHO, CEPI, the Gates Foundation, and the Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI). The Company is also a member of the Developing Countries Vaccine Manufacturers Network (DCVMN), a public health-driven international alliance of vaccine manufacturers that shares a common vision and mission of combating infectious diseases and accelerating access to affordable, high-quality vaccines.

Our Role in Polio Eradication

The Company has delivered over 10.5 billion doses of polio vaccines across the world. We started this journey in India in 1990 and then subsequently touched more than 1 billion doses supplied in 2007 - the largest in the world at the time.

World's first monovalent oral polio vaccines (mOPVs) and bivalent oral polio vaccine (bOPV with Poliovirus Type 1 and Type 3), Bi-OPV: Anticipating stagnancy in the number of polio cases in 2005, Panacea Biotec launched monovalent OPV vaccines to help arrest the number of polio cases and finally, reach 0 cases in 2011 that we celebrate even today.

GLOBAL PHARMACEUTICAL MARKET

The global pharmaceutical industry continued to demonstrate resilient growth during 2025, supported by rising medicine utilisation, the increasing burden of chronic diseases, continued introduction of innovative therapies and expansion of healthcare access across several markets. According to IQVIA, the global prescription pharmaceutical market reached ~US$1.7 trillion at list prices in 2025, recording year-on-year growth of ~10%. Global medicine spending is projected to reach US$2.6 trillion by 2030, representing an estimated compound annual growth rate of 5% - 8%. This growth outlook remains subject to factors including pricing and reimbursement pressures, changes in healthcare and trade policies, geopolitical uncertainty and the increasing impact of loss of exclusivity for major pharmaceutical products.

Global pharmaceutical market size and growth, 2016 - 2030

Figure 1: The global pharmaceutical market reached ~$1.7 Tn in 2025 and is increasingly concentrated in the top therapy areas

The global demand for medicines is being shaped by demographic changes, ageing populations, increasing healthcare access and the continuing prevalence of non-communicable diseases. Cardiovascular diseases, cancer, chronic respiratory diseases and diabetes remain the principal non-communicable diseases globally. The World Health Organization estimates that these conditions account for a substantial majority of premature deaths from non-communicable diseases, with physical inactivity, unhealthy diets, tobacco use, harmful use of alcohol and air pollution being among the major contributing risk factors. The burden is particularly significant in low- and middle-income countries, creating a continuing need for accessible, affordable and effective therapies.

The geographical composition of the pharmaceutical market remains concentrated in developed markets. The United States continued to be the largest pharmaceutical market, accounting for approximately 53% of the global prescription medicine market by value in 2025, while Europe represented approximately 24%. Although the Asia-Pacific region accounted for a smaller share of global sales value, the region remains important from a long-term perspective due to its large patient population, increasing medicine utilisation and expanding healthcare infrastructure. China, the world's second-largest pharmaceutical market, is expected to remain an important contributor to global volume growth through 2030. Growth in the Middle East and Africa has also accelerated, supported by healthcare reforms, improved access and increasing demand for medicines.

Growth is becoming increasingly concentrated in high-value and specialty therapeutic areas. Oncology, immunology and diabetes together accounted for ~43% of global pharmaceutical market value in 2025. Obesity treatments have also emerged as a major contributor to market growth, reflecting increasing prevalence, improved diagnosis and the rapid adoption of new-generation therapies. Oncology remained the largest therapeutic area, with global sales of ~US$288 billion during 2025. Continued innovation in antibody-drug conjugates, immunotherapies, radio-pharmaceuticals, targeted therapies and other advanced modalities is expected to support growth, although increasing generic and biosimilar competition will moderate growth for certain established products.

The industry is continuing its transition from predominantly broad-based small-molecule therapies towards a more diversified portfolio of targeted and specialized treatments. Biologics, biosimilars, cell and gene therapies, precision medicines, companion diagnostics, RNA-based treatments and therapies for rare diseases are becoming increasingly important components of pharmaceutical research and commercial portfolios. At the same time, small-molecule medicines continue to play a critical role due to their established clinical utility, scalability, patient accessibility and suitability for generic competition.

Innovation remained active during 2025. The US Food and Drug Administration's Center for Drug Evaluation and Research approved 46 novel drugs during 2025, in addition to approvals for new indications and expanded patient populations for previously approved medicines. Globally, an estimated 73 novel active substances were launched during 2025, exceeding the average recorded over the preceding decade. These developments reflect sustained investment in research and development despite increasing scientific, regulatory and commercial complexity.

Digital technologies are increasingly being integrated throughout the pharmaceutical value chain. Artificial intelligence, machine learning, automation and advanced analytics are being applied in target identification, molecular design, clinical-trial planning, manufacturing, pharmacovigilance, regulatory processes and commercial decision-making. Their effective deployment has the potential to improve development productivity, shorten certain decision cycles and enable more efficient use of clinical and real-world data. However, adoption will require robust governance relating to data quality, validation, cybersecurity, patient privacy and regulatory compliance.

The industry also faces a significant cycle of patent expiries and loss of exclusivity through the remainder of the decade. Generic and biosimilar competition is expected to improve patient access and generate savings for healthcare systems, while placing pressure on the revenues of originator companies. Loss of exclusivity is expected to be one of the principal factors moderating global pharmaceutical market growth through 2030. Consequently, pharmaceutical companies continue to focus on pipeline replenishment through internal research, licensing arrangements, strategic collaborations and acquisitions of differentiated products and technology platforms.

Pricing and market-access pressures remain important considerations, particularly in major developed markets. Governments and healthcare payers continue to seek a balance between encouraging pharmaceutical innovation, ensuring the sustainability of healthcare expenditure and improving patient access. In parallel, evolving trade policies, supply-chain localisation initiatives and geopolitical developments are encouraging companies to reassess manufacturing networks, sourcing strategies and supply-chain resilience.

Overall, the global pharmaceutical industry is expected to remain on a positive long-term growth trajectory, supported by unmet medical needs, demographic trends, scientific advancement and broader access to healthcare. Success will increasingly depend upon the ability of companies to maintain high standards of quality and regulatory compliance, develop differentiated and cost-effective products, manage complex global supply chains, leverage digital technologies responsibly and establish collaborative partnerships across the healthcare ecosystem.

Indian Pharmaceutical Market

The pharmaceutical industry in India is a significant part of the nation's foreign trade and offers lucrative potential for investors. Millions of people around the world receive affordable and inexpensive generic medications from India, which also runs a sizable number of plants that adhere to Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) standards set by the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United States Food and Drug Administration (USFDA).

According to data from the Economic Survey 2025-26 and recent industry reports, the Indian pharmaceutical market stood at US$ 57.61 billion (~₹4,970 billion) in 2025 and is estimated to reach US$ 60.32 billion (~₹5,200 billion) in 2026. Backed by structural reforms and reliable export capacity, the market is projected to reach US$ 79.74 billion by 2031.

Widely recognized as the "Pharmacy of the World," India ranks 3rd globally in pharmaceutical production by volume and 11th by value. Driven by manufacturing expansions, total pharmaceutical exports grew by 9.4% to reach US$ 30.47 billion (~₹2,660 billion) in FY2024-25, spanning 191 countries and territories.

India has an established domestic pharmaceutical industry, with a strong network of ~3,000 pharmaceutical companies and ~10,500 manufacturing units. India supplies over 50% of Africa's requirement for generics, ~40% of generic demand in the US and ~25% of all medicine in the UK.

Reciprocal tariffs introduced by the United States have added uncertainty to the outlook. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has cautioned that these tariff developments may dampen exports and weaken domestic demand, prompting a downward revision of its growth forecast from 6.7% to 6.5%.

The US Government's reciprocal tariff policy is likely to significantly impact Indian pharmaceutical companies, particularly those exporting to the US market. USA is India's largest market for pharmaceutical exports, accounting for ~31% of India's total pharmaceutical exports in financial year 2024-25. To counter these challenges, India is intensifying efforts on diversifying its export markets, negotiating trade agreements, and boosting domestic manufacturing. The country is also poised to benefit from supply chain realignments and foreign direct investment diversification. However, the global slowdown driven by trade tensions remains a key risk. RBI maintains that calibrated policy support can enable India to navigate this volatility and strengthen its position within the emerging global economic landscape.

Indian Nutrition Market

The Indian baby food and infant formula market is experiencing robust growth in 2026, valued at over US$ 10 billion and projected to grow at a CAGR of 5% to 7%. The growth in this market is driven by increasing female workforce participation and increasing awareness among the parents for overall development of children through nutritional products. Consumers are increasingly using baby food products to give additional supplements to increase the immunity and health of infants and young children.

Government initiatives such as the Pradhan Mantri Matru Vandana Yojana (PMMVY) and Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) are crucial in promoting proper infant nutrition in the country. These programs aim to address malnutrition and improve maternal and child health by providing support and nutritional supplements. Additionally, advancements in research and technology have led to innovative product formulations, focusing on nutritional content and development benefits.

With a growing awareness of nutrition's importance in early childhood, increasing disposable incomes, and changing lifestyles, the market has become dynamic and competitive. The demand for organic and natural ingredients has also gained traction, resulting in a growing preference for healthier options among parents.

Healthcare professional recommendations are serving as a key driver for the expanding infant and toddler nutrition market in India. Parents increasingly rely on guidance from paediatricians and nutrition experts when making decisions about their children's diets. As healthcare professionals emphasize the crucial role of proper nutrition in early childhood development, their endorsements carry considerable weight, influencing parental choices. Paediatricians often recommend products that contain essential nutrients, vitamins, and minerals, aligning with a child's specific developmental needs. This endorsement provides a direct link between healthcare advice and consumer purchasing behaviour.

Indian Baby Care Products Market

The Indian baby care products market size in 2026 is valued between US$ 5.51 billion and US$ 5.57 billion. It is expected to reach US$ 9.52 billion to US$ 9.72 billion by 2031 at a CAGR of 11% to 12% annually.

Baby care products are designed to cater to the unique needs of babies and young children whose delicate skin requires special care and attention. These value-added products are formulated to be mild and gentle, with no parabens, phthalates, toxins, or mineral oil, with a focus on providing hydration and nourishment to the skin while keeping it clean and comfortable. The baby skincare products market in India has witnessed significant growth in recent years. The increasing awareness among parents regarding the importance of using safe and natural products for their babies' skin has led to a rise in demand for baby skincare products.

Moreover, the growth of the e-commerce industry has made it easier for parents to access a wider range of products and purchase them online. The increasing number of women joining the workforce in India has led to a rise in demand for baby care products, as working parents have less time to follow traditional methods of baby care.

Additionally, the use of innovative product packaging and the incorporation of organic ingredients with health benefits have further boosted the demand for baby care products in India. These trends are expected to continue driving the growth of the baby care products market in India in the coming years.

Nutrition and Baby Care Business

In the Indian market, PBPL continues to pursue a clear strategy of strengthening its existing brands while building new categories to address the evolving needs of families - children, newborns, and new mothers. Our focus has been on creating meaningful healthcare solutions that extend beyond clinical care into everyday preventive and lifestyle wellness, while expanding access through deeper retail penetration and digital platforms.

Since its launch in June 2023, our sustained efforts to build our brand ChilRun®, have been supported by innovative marketing initiatives such as Fizz Zone taste camps, Shakti Health camps and Observation Studies designed to assess the impact of products on children's growth in real-world scenarios. In addition, campaigns in schools and Resident Welfare Associations have successfully amplified awareness and trust among parents, reinforcing ChilRun's positioning as a trusted nutritional solution for growing children.

Also, ChilRun full® has demonstrated considerable success in enhancing childhood growth, especially among ones at risk of malnutrition, according to the results of a comprehensive 90-day nationwide post-marketing observational study in more than 4,000 kids, conducted by PBPL.

Field Force Training at Corporate Office at New Delhi

During the financial year 2025-26, PBPL launched the NikoMom® Baby Skin Care range to complement NikoMom® Baby Diapers and Wet Wipes. NikoMom® Baby Skin Care covers a wide spectrum of everyday essentials for newborn babies such as Massage Oil, Head-to-Toe Wash, Daily Lotion, and Diaper Rash Cream. Each product is hypoallergenic, toxin-free, and dermatologically tested, ensuring that delicate baby skin receives only the best. Infused with natural oils, plant-based extracts, and nourishing vitamins, the range provides holistic baby care without harmful chemicals like parabens, sulfates, silicones or artificial dyes.

During the financial year 2025-26, PBPL also launched 'Staart® Prime' Infant Formula in 2 variants. The Staart Prime Infant Formula for Stage 1 (0-6 Months) and for Stages 2-3-4 (6-24 months) is formulated to provide age-appropriate nutrition support for infants when breastfeeding is not possible. It contains a blend of proteins, prebiotics, DHA, ARA, vitamins, minerals and other nutrients which are recognized for their role in supporting age-appropriate overall growth and development of the baby. Staart Prime is free from palmolein oil, maltodextrin, fructose, high fructose corn syrup and table sugar.

Recognizing the importance of modern retail channels, PBPL has expanded access to its brands through e-commerce platforms. Its brands are now available on Amazon, Flipkart, Tata 1mg, etc. in addition to its own direct-to-consumer portal, www.7Nshop.com, which enables customers to access its offerings directly from PBPL. This multi-channel approach has positioned PBPL to engage with consumers across digital and physical ecosystems, ensuring its brands are accessible anytime, anywhere, and paving the way for future launches.

To further strengthen its retail presence, PBPL had set up a new dedicated trade expansion initiative under the LEAP SBU last year. This specialized team penetrated into untapped markets making its brands available at specialized chemist retail chains such as Frank Ross pharmacies, Zeelab pharmacies, Global Pharmacy Plus, Chemist Box, Noble Plus, Dr Morepen Pharmacies and standalone chemist outlets. While LEAP has played a key role in making its brands available at such outlets, it has been instrumental in enhancing and revamping distribution to make its brands available at general trade outlets. Today, PBPL's brands are available at more than 30,000 chemists which are catered through 1800+ distributors. To strengthen last-mile connectivity, PBPL is expanding its stockiest base, to create a structured go-to-market model for flagship consumer brands such as Staart® Prime, NikoMom® and ChilRun®, ensuring deeper retail penetration and stronger presence in modern and general trade channels. In parallel, Panacea Biotec is investing in and leveraging its proprietary platform www.7Nshop.com alongside e-commerce and quick commerce partners such as Amazon, Flipkart, and Tata 1mg. By integrating its CFA network into D2C deliveries, PBPL is creating a hybrid supply model that combines scale efficiency with consumer convenience, thereby supporting its ambition to become a leading household name in family healthcare.

Together, these initiatives reflect an India strategy built on three pillars: (i) sustaining and scaling existing brands through awareness campaigns and retail expansion; (ii) launching new, strategically aligned categories that extend our neonatal and paediatric expertise into broader family care; and (iii) leveraging new channels, digital platforms, and acquisitions to reach a wider consumer base. By integrating nutrition, hygiene, and lifestyle wellness under a unified approach, PBPL is positioning itself as a holistic partner in the growth and well-being of families in India.

MANUFACTURING FACILITIES

Vaccine Drug Substance facilities at Lalru

The Company operates state-of-the-art drug substance manufacturing facilities at Lalru, Punjab, which commenced operations in 2002. Lalru site houses multiple blocks dedicated to produce recombinant, bacterial, and viral vaccine drug substances.

Specialized Manufacturing Blocks for Vaccine Drug Substances: The facility is designed with dedicated, independently operable manufacturing blocks, each tailored to the specific process and biosafety requirements of different vaccine platforms. These blocks enable high-containment, contamination-controlled production of complex biologics with enhanced operational flexibility.

The manufacturing blocks are categorized as follows:

- Bacterial Vaccines Block: Supporting the cultivation, inactivation, and downstream processing of bacterial antigens.
- Viral Vaccines Block: Equipped for propagation of viral strains under controlled bio safety conditions.
- Recombinant Vaccines Block: Designed for microbial expression systems (E.coli, Pichia pastoris) used in recombinant protein production.

These specialized blocks enable the manufacture of critical vaccine drug substances, including:

- recombinant hepatitis B surface antigen (r-HBsAg) - produced via yeast expression systems and purified.
- Tetanus toxoid (TT) – purified tetanus toxoid, used as both an antigen and carrier protein.
- Haemophilus influenzae type b (Hib) Polysaccharide and Hib-TT Conjugate.
- Inactivated whole-cell pertussis (wP) and diphtheria toxoid (DT).
- Viral Drug Substance Line - currently supporting the manufacturing of dengue vaccine drug substance, with scope for other viral vaccines under development.

Each block is engineered to comply with international GMP guidelines and incorporates scalable bioprocessing technologies to support both clinical and commercial-stage manufacturing.

The Lalru facility is WHO prequalified for the production of Hepatitis B and Hib-TT conjugate antigens, which are key components in the manufacture of the Company's WHO-prequalified pentavalent vaccine Easyfive-TT® as well as the Company's hexavalent vaccine, EasySix®.

To meet the growing demand from UN agencies and national immunization programs globally for hexavalent vaccines, the Company is currently executing a major capacity expansion project at the Lalru site for scaling up of manufacturing capacities for whole-cell pertussis (wP) and diphtheria toxoid (DT) to 70 million doses per annum. The facility expansion has been successfully completed and technology transfer from existing block to new line has been completed successfully for like-to-like scale batches. The Company has already received approvals for whole-cell pertussis (wP) from the Indian National Regulatory Authority (NRA) while application has been made for diphtheria toxoid (DT) as well. The application for WHO pre-qualification is targeted to be submitted during current financial year.

In order to help finance the said capacity expansion project, the Company has been sanctioned long-term loan of upto US$ 20 million by the U.S. Government's development finance institution, the U.S. International Development Finance Corporation ("DFC"). DFC's financing will enable the Company to expedite completion of Scale-up batches, to support the supply of hexavalent vaccine to U.N. agencies for childhood immunization globally. The process was delayed due to change in the U.S. Government which has now cleared the proposal. The process of legal due diligence and finalization of financing documents for the said long-term loan is now in advanced stage.

One-Stream R&D Center at New Delhi

Panacea Biotec's OneStream Research and Development (R&D) Centre ("ORC") is a state-of-the-art facility to cater to all the modern aspects of vaccine development. This center has advanced genetic engineering, molecular biology, bacterial culture, animal cell culture, small scale and pilot scale fermentation, purification & analytical characterization and formulation development capabilities. It is equipped with all the necessary infrastructure and scientific manpower to carry out innovative research in the areas of antigen design, expression of antigen in a suitable host system and its purification. This is followed by formulation of antigen with suitable adjuvant and immunological evaluation in animal model.

The Company has done pioneering work in the development of viral, recombinant, sub-unit and polysaccharide conjugate vaccines, using both mammalian and microbial expression platforms. In last one year, ORC has made significant progress in the development of several vaccines including a multi epitope nanoparticle based broadly protective beta coronavirus vaccine candidate. These programs have now progressed to preclinical toxicology stage. Each of these programs will significantly address the healthcare burden posed by these diseases and address concerns related to new and emerging pathogens. The R&D center has established a high-cell density E.coli platform for the production of recombinant antigens and proteins. This will help in developing recombinant molecules as for use as in prevention, therapeutics and as carrier protein for conjugated vaccine.

The R&D center has a strong team to develop conjugation chemistries for many polysaccharide-based vaccines such as for typhoid, meningitis, and many more in near future. The ORC team is also engaged in carrying out research for development of several other vaccines such as Meningitis, Malaria, Mpox and vaccine against anti-microbial resistant bacteria. These candidates are part of our future product pipeline.

A multi-epitope nanoparticle based broadly protective beta coronavirus (BPBC) vaccine candidate to protect against MERS, SARS-CoV-1 and SARS-CoV-2 is also being developed in ORC. Pre-clinical proof of concept studies for this candidate are completed and steps for clinical development are in progress. This research activity is supported by CEPI and is in collaboration with the Translational Health Science and Technology Institute (THSTI), an autonomous institute of the Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science and Technology, Government of India. A stage gate review from progression of development of BPBC candidate from preclinical to clinical stage was conducted by CEPI, which was successful. Phase I clinical study for BPBC vaccine candidate is planned to be initiated in second half of current financial year.

The Company is also continuously exploring collaboration opportunities with various institutions for development of novel products, including plant-based protein as nutrition supplement. Collaborative research project 'DENSTAR' for clinical development of DengiAll® in Africa was recently launched. This project involves 9 leading organizations from USA, EU, Africa and Korea, in addition to Panacea Biotec. DENSTAR project has received €11.1 million funding support

Plantation by Dr. Venkatesh Sarvasiddhi, Director during visit at Lalru

- High dependence on institutional business in Vaccine Segment: A significant part of the revenue from vaccine business comes from tender driven institutional business. Panacea Biotec has decided to focus on expanding into private markets in India as well as in ROW countries through strategic tie-ups to have a diverse sales base and reduce its dependence on institutional business.
- Revenue concentration on few products: In vaccine segment, the revenue generation is mainly dependent on three products i.e. pentavalent, hexavalent vaccine and bivalent polio vaccine. Threats

- Dependence on few imported suppliers in drug substance. However, Panacea Biotec is focusing on reducing its dependence on foreign suppliers by developing in-house drug substances.

Panacea Biotec has been following the guidelines prescribed by WHO, USFDA and other regulatory agencies and save and except, recent observations / warning letter from USFDA and EU Authority which has been suitably responded / acted upon, Panacea Biotec has successfully passed several regulatory audits over the years.
- Pricing pressure amid intense competition in the pharmaceutical industry across the globe. The Company

However, the CIT (Appeals) sustained certain disallowances amounting to ₹60.20 million for AY 2010-11 and AY 2011-12, against which the Company filed appeals before the Hon'ble Income Tax Appellate Tribunal ("ITAT"). The Income Tax Department also cross-appealed before ITAT against the orders of the CIT (Appeals).

During the financial year 2025-26, the Hon'ble ITAT, vide its consolidated Order dated February 27, 2026, passed the following rulings:

- Dismissed all seven appeals filed by the Income Tax Department against the orders of the CIT (Appeals) for AY 2006-07 to AY 2012-13.
- Allowed both appeals filed by the Company against the CIT (Appeals) orders dated July 27, 2015, for AY 2010-11 and AY 2011-12.
- Quashed the underlying assessment orders passed by the Assessing Officer / DCIT for AY 2006-07 to AY 2012-13, thereby providing complete relief to the Company.

Consequently, there are no subsisting tax demands or adverse orders from this matter that impact the Company's operations or going concern status.

Statement by director responsible for the business responsibility report, highlighting ESG related challenges, targets and achievements	The Company aims to become one of the leading biotechnology Company. We recognize the importance of conducting business in a responsible and sustainable manner. We are implementing sustainability practices, accountability and transparency across our operations and value chain. As part of our efforts to integrate sustainability in our business we are developing a robust ESG framework, which is being built on the principles of operating responsibly and growing sustainably. At Panacea Biotec, we are committed to embedding sustainability across our operations as a driver of resilience and long-term value creation. To achieve our sustainable operations targets, we have conducted detailed operational assessments to identify emission hotspots and establish site-specific decarbonization pathways. Complementing this, we completed water-use assessments across all manufacturing facilities to minimize freshwater consumption - with plans for ongoing evaluations - and are actively enhancing our waste management practices to achieve Zero Waste to Landfill in India by the end of calendar year 2026. To sustain these efforts, we actively conduct ESG-focused employee training to eliminate waste, optimize processes, and accelerate our journey toward Net Zero. In alignment with these goals, we would like to initiate a precursor discussion regarding the UNICEF and DCVMN-supported project: "GHG emissions reduction and abatement selection blueprint, net zero roadmap, and Science-Based targets submission guidance for capacity building among vaccine manufacturers for increased environmental sustainability in the vaccine supply chain." Through this engagement, our primary objective is to establish robust sustainability benchmarking and define Science Based Targets initiative (SBTi) goals to enhance environmental sustainability across the vaccine supply chain. During financial year 2025-26, our sustainability initiatives delivered measurable impact: 165 tCO₂ emissions avoided 58.6 tonnes of plastic recycled and 97.3 tonnes of plastic eliminated 690 litres of oil recycled 58.84 million litres of water treated and reused 74.78 tonnes of waste effectively managed These achievements reflect our systematic approach: conducting detailed assessments of emission hotspots, developing decarbonisation pathways for individual sites, and auditing water usage across facilities to identify opportunities for reducing fresh water consumption.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

To the Members of Panacea Biotech Limited

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying standalone financial statements of Panacea Biotech Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the standalone balance sheet as at March 31, 2026, the standalone statement of profit and loss (including the statement of other comprehensive income), the standalone statement of changes in equity and the standalone statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the standalone financial statements, including material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the Standalone Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013, ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2026, its loss (including other comprehensive income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the standalone financial statements.

Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern

We draw attention to Note 48 of the standalone financial statements, which states that the Company has incurred losses (including other comprehensive income) amounting to ₹287.60 million for the year ended March 31, 2026, and the retained earnings are negative to the extent of ₹2,178.43 million as on March 31, 2026. These conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Management of the Company has prepared the standalone financial statements on a going concern basis based on their assessment of the future projections and confirmed orders in hand.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
A. Revenue recognition Refer note 1.3(j) and note 26 of notes to the standalone financial statements and other explanatory information of the Company for the year ended March 31, 2026. The Company recognises revenue from the sales of products when control over goods is transferred to a customer. The actual point in time when revenue is recognised varies depending on the specific terms and conditions of the sales contracts entered with customers. The Company has a large number of customers operating in various geographies and the sales contracts / arrangements with various customers have distinct commercial terms including Incoterms that determine the timing of transfer of control and it requires significant judgment in determining timing of revenue recognition as per Ind AS 115 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers. We have identified the recognition of revenue from sale of products as a key audit matter because revenue is a key performance indicator for the Company and there is risk of revenue being overstated due to the pressure to achieve targets or earning expectations.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: a) Obtained an understanding of the Company's process of revenue recognition and read customer contracts on sample basis; b) Evaluated the design, tested the operating effectiveness of the Company's internal controls over recognition and measurement of revenue in accordance with underlying customer contracts and accounting policies; c) Performed substantive testing (including year-end cut off testing) by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during and after the year and verified the underlying documents, which included sales invoices / contracts and dispatch / shipping documents; d) Obtained direct balance confirmations from customers on a sample basis as at the year-end or performed alternate audit procedures where such confirmations could not be obtained; and e) Assessed the appropriateness and adequacy of the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements of the Company in accordance with Ind AS 115.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
B. Assessment of impairment of Property, plant and equipment The Company considers its property, plant and equipment (PPE) as a single cash generating unit (CGU). As at March 31, 2026, the carrying value of Company's PPE aggregates to ₹4,158.66 million. These balances have been subject to a test of impairment by the management in accordance with Ind AS 36 "Impairment of Assets" (Ind AS 36) in the current year as the management have identified impairment indicators as explained in note 2.1(iv) to the accompanying standalone financial statements. Refer note 1.3(f) and 2.1(iv) to the accompanying standalone financial statements. The Company has engaged independent third-party valuer to arrive at the value in use of the CGU as per discounted cash flow method and to arrive at the fair value based on market approach method. Based on the report issued by such valuer, the recoverable value of the CGU being higher than its carrying value, the Company has concluded that no impairment provision needs to be recorded in the standalone financial statements as at March 31, 2026. In addition to significance of the amounts, management's assessment process is complex as it involves significant judgement in determining the assumptions to be used to estimate the recoverable amounts involved in forecasting cash flows for the CGU, principally relating to budgeted revenue, operating margins, short-term and long term growth rates and the discount rates used. Considering the materiality of the amounts involved, significant judgment and high estimation uncertainty in determining the recoverable value of such PPE and such estimates and judgements being inherently subjective, this matter is determined as a key audit matter for the current year audit.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: a) Obtained an understanding of the management's process for identification of impairment indicators for Property, plant and equipment and process for identification of CGU and impairment testing of such assets; b) Evaluated the Company's accounting policy in respect of impairment assessment, and the methods and models used to determine the recoverable amounts of property, plant and equipment in accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 36, c) Tested the design and operating effectiveness of internal controls over such identification and impairment measurement of identified assets; d) Evaluated management's identification of CGU and obtained the impairment assessment workings prepared by the management and its experts for such CGU; e) Involved auditor's experts to assess the appropriateness of the valuation methodologies used by the management and its expert to determine the recoverable values; f) Evaluated the objectivity, competence and independence of the experts engaged by the Company, wherever applicable, and examined the valuation reports issued by such experts; g) Reconciled the cash flows to the business plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Company which constitute identified CGU; h) Evaluated and challenged the reasonableness of key inputs and assumptions such as implied budgeted revenue, operating margins, growth rates and discount rates for their appropriateness based on our understanding of the business of the respective CGU, past results and external factors such as industry trends and forecasts. i) Obtained and evaluated sensitivity analysis performed by the management on the key assumptions and performed independent sensitivity analysis of the key assumptions to assess the effect of reasonably possible variations on the estimated recoverable amounts for the CGU to evaluate sufficiency of headroom between recoverable values and carrying amounts. j) Compared the carrying value of the net assets with the estimated recoverable value to calculate the impairment loss to be recognised, if any; and k) Evaluated the adequacy of disclosures given in the standalone financial statements with respect to Property, plant, and equipment, including disclosure of significant assumptions, judgements and sensitivity analysis performed, in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
C. Contingencies, including litigations Refer note 1.3(s) and note 37 to the standalone financial statements. The Company is involved in disputes, lawsuits, claims, Governmental and / or regulatory inspections, inquiries, investigations and proceedings, including patent and commercial matters that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business. The Company assesses the need to make provision or to disclose contingent liability on a case-to-case basis considering the underlying facts of each litigation. The eventual outcome of the litigations is uncertain and estimation at balance sheet date involves extensive judgement of management including input from legal counsel due to complexity of each litigation. Adverse outcomes could significantly impact on the Company's reported results and balance sheet position. Considering the significant judgement involved in determining the need to make a provision or disclose as contingent liability, the matter is considered as key audit matter.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: • We evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls in respect of the identification and evaluation of litigations, the recording / reassessment of the related liabilities, provisions and disclosures. • Obtained a list of litigations from the Company's in-house legal counsel; identified material litigations from the aforementioned list and performed inquiries with the said counsel; obtained and read the underlying documents to assess the assumptions used by management in arriving at the conclusions. • We also evaluated the Company's analysis of its assessment of the probability of outcome for each material contingency through inspection of responses to inquiry letters sent to external legal counsel, discussions with internal counsel, as well as external legal counsel, as deemed necessary, to confirm our understanding of the allegations and potential outcomes and obtaining written representations from executives of the Company. • Verified the disclosures related to provisions and contingent liabilities in the standalone financial statements to assess consistency with underlying documents.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

Information other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, which is expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of the other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard as other information as stated above is expected to be made available to us after the date of this Auditor's Report.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The accompanying standalone financial statements have been approved by the Company's Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, standalone statement of changes in equity and standalone statement of cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Ind AS specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention to our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Independent Auditor's Report on the internal financial controls with reference to the standalone financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub - section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to the standalone financial statements of Panacea Biotec Limited ('the Company') as on March 31, 2026, in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of the Company's business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Annexure to the Auditor's Report

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, and the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls systems with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements includes obtaining an understanding of such internal financial controls, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and Directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of standalone financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of standalone financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the standalone financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

The Company is one of India's leading research-based biotechnology companies engaged in the business of research, development, manufacture and marketing of vaccines in India and international markets. The Company's wholly owned subsidiary company viz. Panacea Biotec Pharma Ltd. is engaged in the business of research, development, manufacture and marketing of branded pharmaceutical formulations and nutritional products in India and international markets.

1.1 Basis of preparation

a. Statement of compliance

The standalone financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards ("Ind AS") as notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs pursuant to Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and under relevant provisions of the Act as amended from time to time.

These standalone financial statements have been prepared for the Company on the going concern basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in India and on the basis of relevant Ind AS that are effective on a reporting date i.e. March 31, 2026. These standalone financial statements were approved by the board of Directors of the Company on May 30, 2026.

b. Basis of measurement

The standalone financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

- Certain financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments); and
- Defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value.

1.2 Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the standalone financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the standalone financial statements.

Application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumptions in these standalone financial statements have been disclosed in note 1.4.

1.3 Material accounting policies

The material accounting policies that are used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarised below. These accounting policies are consistently used throughout the periods presented in the standalone financial statements.

a. Current versus non-current classification

The Company has considered an operating cycle of 12 months for determining current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities in the balance sheet. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively.

b. Inventories

Inventories are valued as follows:

Raw material, components, stores and spares: Raw materials (including packing materials), stores and spares are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Cost of raw materials, components and stores and spares is determined on a weighted average basis. Stores and spares having useful life of more than twelve months are capitalised as "Property, plant and equipment" and are depreciated prospectively over their remaining useful lives in accordance with Ind AS 16.

Work in progress and finished goods: Work in progress and finished goods are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value.

Cost includes raw material cost and a proportion of direct and indirect overheads up to estimated stage of completion. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis.

Traded goods: Traded goods are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost includes cost of purchase and other cost incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Provision for expired / slow-moving / non-moving inventories: The provision for inventories are created as follows:

Category	Description	Provision %
Expired Inventory	This includes all items of inventories where the shelf life thereof has expired as on the reporting date.	100%
Near Expiry Inventory	This includes all items of inventories which are nearing expiry within: 1 to 3 months from the reporting date 4 to 6 months from the reporting date	100% 50%
Inventory having no commercial value	This includes all items of inventories which have no commercial value, or which cannot be commercialized for any reason e.g. stability samples, control samples, development / exhibit batches, Reference listed drugs purchased for trials but remained unutilised etc.	100%
Slow moving / Non-moving inventory	This includes all items of inventories where the movement is slow or there is no movement, however inventory items can be used in case of any need e.g. spares kept for machines, production or lab consumables with long shelf life etc. as under: - Inventories lying in stock for more than 1 year but less than 2 years from the reporting date - Inventories lying in stock for more than 2 years but less than 3 years from the reporting date - Inventories lying in stock for more than 3 years	25% 50% 100%
Good inventory	All other items of inventory which do not fall in any of the above categories will be considered as Good inventory	0%

Following are the exceptions:

- Provision in respect of any inventory item that is the subject matter of any legal dispute shall be created based on the legal opinion from the legal department.
- All exceptions will have to be approved by the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.
- In case of inventory items on which provisions were made as per the policy however such items were subsequently consumed / utilised, then the provision made in respect of such an inventory shall be adjusted suitably.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

c. Property, plant and equipment

Recognition and initial measurement: All items of property, plant and equipment are initially measured at cost. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing cost if capitalisation criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discount and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits attributable to such subsequent cost associated with the item will flow to the Company. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss as incurred.

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The costs of repairs and maintenance are recognised in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each reporting date is disclosed as capital advances under non-current assets.

Capital work-in-progress included in property, plant and equipment are not depreciated as these assets are not yet available for use.

Subsequent measurement (depreciation and useful lives): Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is provided on the straight-line method arrived on the basis of the useful life prescribed under Schedule II of the Act. The following useful life of assets has been determined by the Company:

Particulars	Useful life
Building – Factory	30 years
Building – Non-factory	60 years
Plant and Equipment	15 years and 20 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Vehicles	8 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	3 years and 6 years

- i) Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and therefore is not depreciated.
- ii) Leasehold land is amortised over the period of lease.
- iii) Leasehold improvements are amortised over the initial period of lease or useful life, whichever is shorter.

The residual values, useful lives and method of depreciation are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Where, during any financial year, any addition has been made to any asset, or where any asset has been sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed, or significant components replaced; depreciation on such assets is calculated on a pro rata basis as individual assets with specific useful life from the month of such addition or, as the case may be, up to the month on which such asset has been sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed or replaced.

De-recognition: An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

d. Intangible assets

Recognition and initial measurement

Research and development costs : Expenditure on the research phase of projects is recognised as an expense as incurred. Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided the Company can demonstrate the following:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use.
- the management's intention is to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it
- its ability to use or sell the intangible asset
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset.
- its ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as and when incurred.

Directly attributable costs include employee costs incurred on development of prototypes along with an appropriate portion of relevant overheads and borrowing costs.

Other intangibles: Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding product development costs, are not capitalised and expenditure is reflected in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

Intangible assets under development are not amortized as these assets are not yet available for use. These assets are evaluated for potential impairment on an annual basis or when there are indications that the carrying value is not recoverable.

Subsequent measurement (Amortisation and useful lives): All finite-lived intangible assets, including internally developed intangible assets, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date and any change in the same is accounted for prospectively. The following useful lives are applied:

Particulars	Useful life
Patents, trademarks and designs	7 years
Product development	5 years
Technical know-how	5 years
Software	5 years
Websites	2 years

The amortization expense on intangible assets with finite life is recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head depreciation and amortization expense.

De-recognition: Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

e. Investment properties

Recognition and initial measurement: Investment properties are properties held to earn long term rentals or for capital appreciation, or both. Investment properties are measured initially at their cost of acquisition, including transaction costs. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the Company. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Properties held under leases are classified as investment properties when it is held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or for both, rather than for sale in the ordinary course of business or for use in production or administrative functions.

Subsequent measurement (depreciation and useful lives): Investment properties are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Depreciation on investment properties is provided on the straight-line method over the lease period of the right-of-use assets.

Though, the Company measures investment properties using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a valuation model acceptable internationally.

De-recognition: Investment properties are de-recognized either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds, if any, and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period of de-recognition.

f. Impairment of non-financial assets / Assets classified as held for sale

The carrying amounts of the Company's non-financial assets, other than inventories and deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. Goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite lives or that are not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually; their recoverable amount is estimated annually each year at the reporting date.

For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the 'cash-generating unit'). The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use or its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pretax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. The goodwill acquired in a business combination is, for the purpose of impairment testing, allocated to cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Intangibles with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment individually.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the units and then to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit on a pro-rata basis. Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Impairment losses recognised in prior periods are assessed at each reporting date for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

During the current financial year, the Company has considered it appropriate to undertake the impairment assessment based on certain indicators. With reference to the latest business plan, the decline in operating profits is considered temporary. Based on management's impairment assessment, recoverable amount is higher than the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment and hence, no impairment is recognized.

g. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing cost consists of interest, ancillary costs and other costs in connection with the borrowing and also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

h. Foreign and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is also the Company's functional and presentation currency.

Rounding of amount: All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded-off to the nearest ₹ million or decimal thereof as per the requirement of Schedule III, unless otherwise stated. Amount less than ₹50,000 is presented ₹0.00 million.

Foreign currencies transactions and balances

Initial recognition: Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Company at its functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition.

Subsequent measurement: Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date.

Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which they arise.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e. translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income ("OCI") or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

Exchange differences arising on other long-term foreign currency monetary items are accumulated in the "Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account" and amortised over the remaining life of the concerned monetary item.

All other exchange differences are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

i. Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

Company uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial results are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable

Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable
For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period or each case.

j. Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer and excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties, if any. The Company recognises revenue when it transfers control over a product or service to a customer.

The Company has concluded that it is the principal in all of its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in all the revenue arrangements as it has pricing latitude and is also exposed to inventory and credit risks.

The Company applies the revenue recognition criteria to each separately identifiable component of the Revenue transaction as set out below:

Sale of goods: Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when all the significant risks and rewards of ownership in the goods are transferred to the buyer as per the terms of the contract, there is neither continuing managerial involvement with the goods nor effective control over the goods sold, it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the Company, the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold is net of variable consideration on account of discounts. Revenue is disclosed exclusive of goods and services tax.

Revenue from these sales is recognised based on the price specified in the contract, net of the estimated volume discounts. Accumulated experience is used to estimate and provide for the discounts, using the expected value method, and revenue is only recognised to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal will not occur.

The Company enters into arrangements for the sale of its products in certain markets. Under such arrangements, the Company sells its products at an agreed price mentioned in the arrangement and is also entitled to a profit share which is over and above the agreed price. The profit share is dependent on the ultimate net sale proceeds or net profits, subject to any reductions or adjustments that are required by the terms of the arrangement. Revenue in an amount equal to the base supply price is recognised in these transactions upon delivery of products to the business partners. An additional amount representing the profit share component is recognised as revenue only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal will not occur.

Revenue from services rendered is recognised in the statement of profit and loss over the period the underlying services are performed.

Dividend income: Dividend income is recognised at the time when right to receive the payment is established, which is generally when the shareholders approve the dividend.

Interest income: Interest income is recorded on accrual basis using the effective interest rate ("EIR") method.

Royalty income: Royalty is recognized on an accrual basis based on actual sale of product by the licensee and in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreement.

Research and license fees income: Research and license fees income is recognized on an accrual basis based on actual sale of product by the licensee and in accordance with the term of the relevant agreement.

Export incentives: Export entitlements from government authorities are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the right to receive credit as per the terms of the scheme is established in respect of the exports made by the Company, and where there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds.

A provisions for expected sales returns is determined based on the historical percentage of sales return for the same types of goods for which the provision is currently being determined. The same percentage to the sales is applied for the current accounting period to derive the provision for sales return to be accrued. It is very unlikely that actual sales return will exactly match the historical percentage. These estimates are reviewed annually for any material changes in assumptions and likelihood of occurrence.

k. Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss which are measured initially at fair value. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Recognition and initial measurement: Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss which are measured initially at fair value.

Subsequent measurement

Financial assets

i. Financial assets carried at amortised cost – A financial instrument is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and

- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

- ii. Investments in equity instruments of subsidiaries and joint ventures - Investments in equity instruments of subsidiaries and joint ventures are accounted for at cost in accordance with Ind AS 27 Separate Financial Statements. .
- iii. Financial assets at fair value

Investments in equity instruments other than above – Investments in equity instruments which are held for trading are generally classified as at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"). For all other equity instruments, the Company makes irrevocable choice upon initial recognition, on an instrument to instrument basis, to classify the same either as at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") or fair value through profit or loss FVTPL.

If the Company decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit or loss, even on sale of investment. However, the Company transfers the cumulative gain or loss within equity. Dividends on such investments are recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment.

Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the profit or loss.

De-recognition of financial assets: A financial asset is primarily de-recognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired or the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset.

Financial liabilities

Subsequent to initial recognition, all non-derivative financial liabilities, other than derivative liabilities, are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

De-recognition of financial liabilities: A financial liability is de-recognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments: Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Impairment of financial assets: The Company assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables only, the Company applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

- l. Investment in subsidiaries and joint ventures

Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of these investments, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

- m. Post-employment and other employee benefits

Provident fund: Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Company recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expense, when an employee renders the related service. The Company has no obligation other than the contribution payable to the Provided Fund. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognised as an asset to the extent that the pre-payment will lead to, for example, a reduction in future payment or a cash refund.

Gratuity: A defined benefit plan is a post-employment benefit plan other than a defined contribution plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of the gratuity plan (administered through the Life Insurance Corporation of India), which is a defined benefit plan, is calculated by estimating the ultimate cost to the entity of the benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods. This requires an entity to determine how much benefit is attributable to the current and prior periods and to make estimates (actuarial assumptions) about demographic variables and financial variables that will affect the cost of the benefit. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains / losses resulting from re-measurements of the liability are included in other comprehensive income.

Compensated absences: Compensated absences, which are expected to be utilized within the next 12 months, is treated as short term employee benefit. The Company measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.

The Company treats compensated absences expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method at the year-end. Actuarial gains/losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred.

Other short-term benefits: Expense in respect of other short-term benefits is recognized on the basis of amount paid or payable for the period during which services are rendered by the employees.

n. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events including a bonus issue.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

o. Income taxes

Income tax expense recognized in statement of profit and loss comprises current tax and deferred tax except the ones recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is determined as the tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year and is computed in accordance with the applicable tax regulations. Current income tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). The Company offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and corresponding amount used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax assets on unrealised tax loss are recognized to the extent that it is probable that the underlying tax loss will be utilised against future taxable income. This is assessed based on the Company's forecast of future operating results, adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits on the use of any unused tax loss. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside statement of profit and loss is recognized outside statement of profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

p. Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the group will comply with all the conditions.

Government grants related to the income are deferred and recognised in statement of profit and loss over the period necessary to match them with the cost that are intended to compensate and presented within other income.

Government grants related to property plant and equipment are included in the non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the expected life of the related assets and presented within other income.

When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, it is initially recognised as deferred income at fair value and subsequently are recognised in standalone statement of profit and loss as other income on a systematic basis over the expected useful life of the related asset.

q. Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker.

Identification of segments: In accordance with Ind AS 108 – Operating Segment, the operating segments used to present segment information are identified on the basis of information reviewed by the Company's management to allocate resources to the segments and assess their performance. An operating segment is a component of the Company that engages in business activities from which it earns revenues and incurs expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Company's other components. Results of the operating segments are reviewed regularly by the Board of Director (Managing Director and Chief Financial officer) which has been identified as the chief operating decision maker (CODM), to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance and for which discrete financial information is available.

Allocation of common costs: Common allocable costs are allocated to each segment accordingly to the relative contribution of each segment to the total common costs.

Unallocated items: Unallocated items include general corporate income and expense items which are not allocated to any business segment.

Segment accounting policies: The Company prepares its segment information in conformity with the accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the financial statements of the Group as a whole. In accordance with Ind AS 108, Operating Segments, the management has disclosed the segment information in the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

r. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

s. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised when present obligations as a result of past events will probably lead to an outflow of economic resources from the Company and they can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain. A present obligation arises from the presence of a legal or constructive obligation that has resulted from past events.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the reporting date, based on the most reliable evidence, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resource as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, or the amount to be provided for cannot be measured reliably, no liability is recognised in the balance sheet.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. The Company does recognise a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

Any amount that the Company can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset up to the amount of the related provisions. All provisions are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements.

t. Exceptional Items

An item of income or expense which by its size, type or incidence requires disclosure in order to improve an understanding of the performance of the Company is treated as an exceptional item and the same is disclosed in standalone statement of profit and loss and in the notes forming part of the standalone financial statements.

1.4 Critical management judgments in applying accounting policies and estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the Company's financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the related disclosures.

Judgments

Research and developments costs: Management monitors progress of internal research and development projects by using a project management system. Significant judgment is required in distinguishing research from the development phase. Development costs are recognised as an asset when all the criteria are met, whereas research costs are expensed as incurred. Management also monitors whether the recognition requirements for development costs continue to be met. This is necessary due to inherent uncertainty in the economic success of any product development.

Recognition of deferred tax assets: The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilised.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets: The Company is the subject of legal proceedings and tax issues covering a range of matters, which are pending in various jurisdictions. In view of the uncertainty inherent in such matters, it is difficult to predict the final outcome of such matters. The cases and claims against the Company often raise difficult and complex factual and legal issues, which are subject to many uncertainties, including but not limited to the facts and circumstances of each particular case and claim, the jurisdiction and the differences in applicable law. In the normal course of business, management consults with legal counsel and certain other experts on matters related to litigation and taxes. The Company accrues a liability when it is determined that an adverse outcome is probable and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated.

Impairment of financial assets: At each balance sheet date, based on historical default rates observed over expected life, the management assesses the expected credit loss on outstanding financial assets.

Evaluation of indicators for impairment of assets: The evaluation of applicability of indicators of impairment of assets requires assessment of several external and internal factors which could result in deterioration of recoverable amount of the assets.

Estimates

Useful lives of depreciable / amortisable assets: Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable/amortisable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical and economic obsolescence that may change the utility of certain software, IT equipment and other plant and equipment.

Defined benefit obligation: Management's estimate of the Defined Benefit Obligations (DBO) is based on a number of critical underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses.

Fair value measurements

Management applies valuation techniques to determine the fair value of financial instruments (where active market quotes are not available). This involves developing estimates and assumptions consistent with how market participants would price the instrument.

1.5 New and amended standards

The Company has applied the following amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 April 2023:

Ind AS 8 – Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors: The amendments to Ind AS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates, changes in accounting policies and the correction of errors. They also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates. The amendments had no impact on the Company's standalone financial statements.

Ind AS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements: The amendments to Ind AS 1 provide guidance on applying materiality judgements to accounting policy disclosures. The amendments aim to help entities provide accounting policy disclosures that are more useful by replacing the requirement for entities to disclose their 'significant' accounting policies with a requirement to disclose their 'material' accounting policies and adding guidance on how entities apply the concept of materiality in making decisions about accounting policy disclosures.

The amendments have had an impact on the Company's disclosures of accounting policies, but not on the measurement, recognition or presentation of any items in the Company's financial statements.

Ind AS 12 – Income Taxes: The amendments to Ind AS 12 Income Tax narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception, so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences such as leases. The above amendments did not have any material impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

1.6 Recent accounting pronouncements:

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. MCA has issued following amendments:

Amendment to Ind AS 1 'Presentation of Financial Statements'- Classification of Liabilities as current or non-current and non-current liabilities with covenants. The amendment includes specific provisions that will take effect for reporting periods beginning on or after April 01, 2026, retrospectively, as outlined below:

- (i) Breach of material covenant for long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of reporting period with the effect that liability becomes payable on demand as on reporting date, then it shall be classified as current liability, if lender agreed after reporting period and before approval of standalone financial statements to not demand payment as a consequence of breach.
- (ii) Classify as non-current liability, if lender agreed by the end of reporting period to provide grace period ending at least 12 months after reporting period within which entity can rectify the breach provided lender does not demand immediate repayment.
- (iii) Disclose information about the timing of settlement to understand the impact of the liability on the standalone financial statements.

The Company does not expect this amendment to have an impact on its operations or standalone financial statements.

However, the Income Tax Department filed an appeal before Income Tax Appellate Tribunal ("ITAT") against the order of CIT (Appeals). During the financial year 2025-26 the same has been allowed in favour of the Company. Keeping in view that the stipulated period for filing of appeal by the Income Tax department against the said order of the Hon'ble ITAT is not yet over, the management has decided to continue to show the amount as a contingent liability.

The Company filed an appeal before CIT (Appeals) and rectification application before assessing officer against the order passed by the Income Tax Department. The refund of the advance so received (after adjusting the amount receivable against the vaccines already supplied) was demanded back by MOHFW along with interest on account of non-supply of balance quantities of vaccines. In view of above disputes, the Company obtained a stay order from the Hon'ble Delhi High Court against recovery of said amount, till the disputes are finally resolved through arbitration. The arbitration award was pronounced in favour of the Company on March 14, 2019, vide which MOHFW was directed to pay the applicable amount for vaccine supplied / offered for supply along with interest. MOHFW filed an appeal before Hon'ble Delhi High Court raising certain objections against the award, which was dismissed by the Hon'ble Court. 42. Employee benefits obligations

A. Defined benefit plan

Risks associated with plan provisions

Valuations are based on certain assumptions, which are dynamic in nature and vary over time. As such the Company is exposed to various risks as follows:

Salary increases risk:	Actual salary increases will increase the plan's liability. Increase in salary increase rate assumption in future valuations will also increase the liability.
Investment risk:	If plan is funded than assets liabilities mismatch and actual investment return on assets lower than the discount rate assumed at the last valuation date can impact the liability.
Discount rate risk:	Reduction in discount rate in subsequent valuations can increase the plan's liability.
Mortality and disability risk:	Death and disability cases proving lower or higher than assumed in the valuation can impact the liabilities.
Withdrawals risk:	Actual withdrawals proving higher or lower than assumed withdrawals and change of withdrawal rates at subsequent valuations can impact plan's liability.

Gratuity (funded)

The Company provides for gratuity for employees in India, as per the code on Social Security, 2020 (previously Payments of Gratuity Act, 1972) to employees who are in continuous service for a period of 5 years. The amount of gratuity payable on retirement / termination is the employees last drawn basic salary per month computed proportionately for 15 days salary multiplied for the number of years of service. For the funded plan, the Company makes contributions to recognised funds in India. The Company does not fully fund the liability and maintains a target level of funding to be maintained over a period of time based on estimations of expected gratuity payments.

 The sensitivity analysis has been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant and may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of another as some of the assumption may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the balance sheet date, which is the same method as applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation as recognised in the balance sheet. There was no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis from prior years.

The different levels of fair value have been defined below:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in an active market for financial instruments.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the assets or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The Company continuously monitors defaults of customers and other counter parties and incorporates this information into its credit risk controls.

A.1 Credit risk management

The Company assesses and manages credit risk based on internal credit rating system. Internal credit rating is performed for each class of financial instruments with different characteristics. The Company assigns the following credit ratings to each class of financial assets based on the assumptions, inputs and factors specific to the class of financial assets:

A: Low credit risk on financial reporting date

B: Moderate credit risk

C: High credit risk

The Company provides for expected credit loss based on the following:

High credit risk	Trade receivables and loans	Life time expected credit loss or fully provided for

*In respect of trade receivables, the Company recognises a provision for lifetime expected credit losses.

Based on business environment in which the Company operates, a default on a financial asset is considered when the counter party fails to make payments within the agreed time period as per contract. Loss rates reflecting defaults are based on actual credit loss experience and considering differences between current and historical economic conditions.

Assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor declaring bankruptcy or a litigation decided against the Company. The Company continues to engage with parties whose balances are written off and attempts to enforce repayment. Recoveries made are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

For the financial year ended March 31, 2026, the Company has incurred loss (including other comprehensive income) of ₹287.60 million (year ended March 31, 2025: loss of ₹151.74 million) and as on March 31, 2026, the retained earnings of the Company are negative to the extent of ₹2,178.43 million (March 31, 2025: ₹1,890.83 million). However, the retained earnings of the Group are positive to the extent of ₹7,760.55 million (March 31, 2025: ₹7,799.13 million). The surplus funds remaining with the Group out of the sales of pharmaceutical formulations brands in India and Nepal in March 2022 have helped in strengthening the working capital position, setting up new facilities for enhancement of capacities for manufacturing of vaccines drug substance, scaling up Group's nutrition and pharmaceutical formulations business and pursuing other business opportunities. The Company has already received higher long-term awards from United Nations International Children's Fund (UNICEF) and Pan American Health Organisation (PAHO) for supply of pentavalent vaccine and awards from UNICEF for supply of bivalent oral polio vaccine. Based on these measures and continuous efforts to improve the business performance, the management has prepared the financial statements on going concern basis.
49. (a) In view of the Company's decision to make the structure of overseas subsidiaries more efficient and aligned to business objectives and to save management and administrative expenses thereof, the Company has decided to wind up Panacea Biotec (International) SA ("PBS") in due course. Accordingly, the Company has created provision for impairment on its investment in PBS. Owing to accumulated losses in PBS and its wholly owned subsidiary, Panacea Biotec Germany GmbH ("PBGG"), the Company has continued to maintain the provision for bad and doubtful advances in respect of the loans receivable and accrued interest from PBS and PBGG amounting to ₹156.92 million and ₹518.07 million, respectively, as on March 31, 2026 (March 31, 2025: ₹139.00 million and ₹458.90 million, respectively).
- (b) The Company has applied with the authorized dealer bank to seek permission from Reserve Bank of India for writing off an amount of ₹585.16 million which was receivable from the Company's wholly owned subsidiary Rees Investments Ltd. ("Rees"), which was compulsorily liquidated and dissolved by the authorities of Guernsey on May 23, 2019. Pending such approval, the Company is continuing to maintain the provision for bad and doubtful advances of ₹585.16 million (March 31, 2025: ₹585.16 million) in respect of the loan and accrued interest receivable from Rees.
50. Under the collaboration with the Human Vaccine Limited Liability Company, Russia ("HV"), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Joint Stock Company "Management Company of Russian Direct Investment Fund" for manufacture of Covid-19 vaccine using the technology to be provided by HV, the Company had received from HV an advance amount of US$ 7.00 million in November 2020, out of which ~US$ 6.58 million was used to meet the revenue expenses relating to Sputnik-V and Sputnik Light vaccine project. The Company believes that due to the failure on the part of HV to demonstrate & transfer the technology and certain other reasons beyond the Company's control, the complex process of technology transfer and manufacture of Sputnik-V vaccine could not be completed successfully and the Technology Transfer Agreement dated October 22, 2020 entered into between HV and the Company ("TTA") for manufacturing of Covid-19 vaccine stood frustrated and accordingly both the parties stood automatically discharged from their obligations by operation of law. The Company is thus entitled to adjust the same against the advance received from HV. The Company has already conveyed its position to HV and has offered to refund the balance amount of US$ 0.42 million and provided relevant details / documents pertaining to the said expenses. On July 1, 2024, the Company received a copy of Request for Arbitration filed by HV with London Court of International Arbitration ("LCIA") for initiating arbitration alleging that the Company has been in alleged breach of its obligations under the TTA and is thus liable to refund the advance payment of US$7.00 million plus interest thereon as may be awarded over the course of arbitration. Both parties have appointed the sole arbitrator in this matter. The Company is taking requisite steps to safeguard its interest and has filed its response along with witness statements and counter claims against HV. Further arbitration proceedings, including cross examinations etc. shall be completed in due course. Based on the Company's assessment, duly supported by legal advice, the Company believes that it will not be liable to pay back the amount adjusted towards wasted expenses and costs under dispute with HV and the outcome of this arbitration proceeding is not reasonably expected to have any material financial impact on the Company.
51. In August 2021, the Company had entered into a Licensing and Manufacture Agreement with HV, Generium JSC and Dr. Reddy's Laboratories Limited ("DRL"). As per the terms of the agreement, the Company was to undertake fill-and-finish activities of Sputnik-V vaccine using the ready-to-fill drug substance supplied by Generium and supply the Sputnik-V vaccine so produced to DRL. Pursuant to the said agreement, the Company received drug substance from Generium and produced ~1.96 million doses of Sputnik-V vaccine out of which DRL purchased ~0.86 million doses only and refused to purchase and pay for the remaining ~1.10 million doses. Because of breach of their respective obligations by DRL and Generium, the pending payment of ~US$ 7.41 million for the drug substance received from Generium could not be made. After several rounds of discussion among the parties to settle the dispute amicably, Generium has filed notice of arbitration with Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) for arbitration of dispute with respect to the said pending payment and interest thereon totalling ~US$ 8.90 million. The Company has also initiated a parallel arbitration proceeding regarding its claims against DRL, Generium and Human Vaccine and filed notice of arbitration with SIAC during the financial year 2023-24. At the Company's request, SIAC has clubbed both the arbitration proceedings together. The parties have appointed sole arbitrator. All the parties involved in the Arbitration have filed claims and counter claims against each other. The witness statements, cross examination and closing submissions have been completed and the arbitration award is now awaited. The Company has obtained legal opinion from its legal counsel who, have opined that (a) the Company has a reasonable defence against the claims brought by Generium, DRL and HV; and (b) the possibility of any such claim falling to the Company may be classified as low at this stage.

55. In October 2023, the Company received notice from the International Court of Arbitration, Paris ("ICC") intimating commencement of an Arbitration proceeding pursuant to the request filed by Apotex Inc., claiming an amount of US$ 118.14 million towards outsized alleged losses plus interest thereon under the Collaboration Agreement dated May 09, 2014 entered into between Apotex Inc. and the Company. The said agreement was subsequently assigned and novated in favour of Panacea Biotec Pharma Limited ("PBPL") wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Panacea Biotech Limited ("hereinafter referred to as the Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group"), as listed in Annexure A, which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2026, the consolidated statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flow statement for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the Consolidated Financial Statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements and on the other financial information of subsidiaries, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013, ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') specified under Section 133 of the Act, read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, and other accounting principles generally accepted in India of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group, as at March 31, 2026, and their consolidated loss (including other comprehensive income), consolidated cash flows and the consolidated changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act (SAs). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the 'Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements' section of our report. We are independent of Group in accordance with the 'Code of Ethics' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained together with the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in paragraph of the Other Matter section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements of the subsidiaries, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
A. Revenue recognition Refer note 1.4(j) and note 27 of notes to the Consolidated financial statements and other explanatory information of the Group for the year ended March 31, 2026. The Group recognises revenue from the sales of products when control over goods is transferred to a customer. The actual point in time when revenue is recognised varies depending on the specific terms and conditions of the sales contracts entered with customers. The Group has a large number of customers operating in various geographies and the sales contracts / arrangements with various customers have distinct commercial terms, including Incoterms that determine the timing of transfer of control and it requires significant judgment in determining timing of revenue recognition as per Ind AS 115 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers. We have identified the recognition of revenue from sale of products as a key audit matter because revenue is a key performance indicator for the Group and there is risk of revenue being overstated due to the pressure to achieve targets or earning expectations.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: a) Obtained an understanding of the Group process of revenue recognition and read customer contracts on sample basis; b) Evaluated the design, tested the operating effectiveness of the Group internal controls over recognition and measurement of revenue in accordance with underlying customer contracts and accounting policies; c) Performed substantive testing (including year-end cut off testing) by selecting samples of revenue transactions recorded during and after the year and verified the underlying documents, which included sales invoices / contracts and dispatch / shipping documents; d) Obtained direct balance confirmations from customers on a sample basis as at the year-end or performed alternate audit procedures where such confirmations could not be obtained; and e) Assessed the appropriateness and adequacy of the related disclosures in the Consolidated financial statements of the Group in accordance with Ind AS 115.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
B. Assessment of impairment of Property, plant and equipment The Group considers its property, plant and equipment (PPE) as a single cash generating unit (CGU). As at March 31, 2026, the carrying value of Group PPE aggregates to ₹5,687.67 million. These balances have been subject to a test of impairment by the management in accordance with Ind AS 36 "Impairment of Assets" (Ind AS 36) in the current year as the management have identified impairment indicators as explained in note 2.1(ii) to the accompanying Consolidated financial statements. Refer note 1.4(f) and 2.1(ii) to the accompanying Consolidated financial statements. The Group has engaged independent third-party valuer to arrive at the value in use of the CGU as per discounted cash flow method and to arrive at the fair value based on market approach method. Based on the report issued by such valuer, the recoverable value of the CGU being higher than its carrying value, the Group has concluded that no impairment provision needs to be recorded in the Consolidated financial statements as at March 31, 2026. In addition to significance of the amounts, management's assessment process is complex as it involves significant judgement in determining the assumptions to be used to estimate the recoverable amounts involved in forecasting cash flows for the CGU, principally relating to budgeted revenue, operating margins, short-term and long term growth rates and the discount rates used. Considering the materiality of the amounts involved, significant judgment and high estimation uncertainty in determining the recoverable value of such PPE and such estimates and judgements being inherently subjective, this matter is determined as a key audit matter for the current year audit.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: - Obtained an understanding of the management's process for identification of impairment indicators for Property, plant and equipment and process for identification of CGU and impairment testing of such assets; - Evaluated the Group accounting policy in respect of impairment assessment, and the methods and models used to determine the recoverable amounts of property, plant and equipment in accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 36, - Tested the design and operating effectiveness of internal controls over such identification and impairment measurement of identified assets; - Evaluated management's identification of CGU and obtained the impairment assessment workings prepared by the management and its experts for such CGU; - Involved auditor's experts to assess the appropriateness of the valuation methodologies used by the management and its expert to determine the recoverable values; - Evaluated the objectivity, competence and independence of the experts engaged by the Group, wherever applicable, and examined the valuation reports issued by such experts; - Reconciled the cash flows to the business plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Group which constitute identified CGU; - Evaluated and challenged the reasonableness of key inputs and assumptions such as implied budgeted revenue, operating margins, growth rates and discount rates for their appropriateness based on our understanding of the business of the respective CGU, past results and external factors such as industry trends and forecasts. - Obtained and evaluated sensitivity analysis performed by the management on the key assumptions and performed independent sensitivity analysis of the key assumptions to assess the effect of reasonably possible variations on the estimated recoverable amounts for the CGU to evaluate sufficiency of headroom between recoverable values and carrying amounts. - Compared the carrying value of the net assets with the estimated recoverable value to calculate the impairment loss to be recognised, if any; and - Evaluated the adequacy of disclosures given in the Consolidated financial statements with respect to Property, plant, and equipment, including disclosure of significant assumptions, judgements and sensitivity analysis performed, in accordance with applicable accounting standards.
C. Contingencies, including litigations Refer note 1.4(s) and note 40 to the Consolidated financial statements. The Group is involved in disputes, lawsuits, claims, Governmental and / or regulatory inspections, inquiries, investigations and proceedings, including patent and commercial matters that arise from time to time in the ordinary course of business. The Group assesses the need to make provision or to disclose contingent liability on a case-to-case basis considering the underlying facts of each litigation. The eventual outcome of the litigations is uncertain and estimation at balance sheet date involves extensive judgement of management including input from legal counsel due to complexity of each litigation. Adverse outcomes could significantly impact on the Group reported results and balance sheet position. Considering the significant judgement involved in determining the need to make a provision or disclose as contingent liability, the matter is considered as key audit matter.	Our audit procedures to address this key audit matter included, but were not limited to the following: - We evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of controls in respect of the identification and evaluation of litigations, the recording / reassessment of the related liabilities, provisions and disclosures. - Obtained a list of litigations from the Group in-house legal counsel; identified material litigations from the aforementioned list and performed inquiries with the said counsel; obtained and read the underlying documents to assess the assumptions used by management in arriving at the conclusions. - We also evaluated the Group analysis of its assessment of the probability of outcome for each material contingency through inspection of responses to inquiry letters sent to external legal counsel, discussions with internal counsel, as well as external legal counsel, as deemed necessary, to confirm our understanding of the allegations and potential outcomes and obtaining written representations from executives of the Group. - Verified the disclosures related to provisions and contingent liabilities in the Consolidated financial statements to assess consistency with underlying documents.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Information other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report thereon

The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon, which is expected to be made available to us after the date of this audit report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether such other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements, or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of the other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard as other information as stated above is expected to be made available to us after the date of this Auditor's Report.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been approved by the Holding Company's Board of Directors. The Holding Company's Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows of the Group in accordance with the Ind AS specified under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. The Holding Company's Board of Directors are also responsible for ensuring accuracy of records including financial information considered necessary for the preparation of consolidated Ind AS financial statements. Further, in terms of the provisions of the Act the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group, covered under the Act are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. These financial statements have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Board of Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless Board of Directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those respective Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the companies included in the Group.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management and Board of Director use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group of which we are the independent auditors, to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure C

(Referred to in paragraph 1 (f) under "Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements" section of our report of even date)

Independent Auditor's Report on the internal financial controls with reference to the consolidated financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub - section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of Panacea Biotec Limited ('the Holding Company') and its subsidiaries (the Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as 'the Group'), as at and for the year ended March 31, 2026, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Holding Company, which are companies covered under the Act, as at that date.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies which are companies covered under the Act, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of the Company's business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, as aforesaid, based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, and the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ('the Guidance Note') issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Independent Auditor's Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls systems with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements includes obtaining an understanding of such internal financial controls, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matter paragraph below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies as aforesaid.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements include those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with Reference to Financial Statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and based on the consideration of the reports of the other auditors on internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of the subsidiary companies, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies covered under the Act, have in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such controls were operating effectively as at March 31, 2026, based on the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

Other Matter

We did not audit the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements insofar as it relates to 3 subsidiary companies, which are companies covered under the Act, whose financial statements for the year ended on that date, as considered in the consolidated financial statements. The internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in so far as it relates to such subsidiary companies have been audited by other auditors whose reports has been furnished to us by the management and our report on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements for the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, as aforesaid, under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act in so far as it relates to such subsidiary companies is based solely on the reports of the auditors of such companies. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter with respect to our reliance on the work done by and on the reports of the other auditors.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of the above matter.

Summary of Material Accounting Policies

1. Corporate information

Panacea Biotec Limited (Corporate identification number: L33117PB1984PLC022350) ("the Holding Company") is a public company incorporated and domiciled in India. The Holding Company has its registered office at Ambala-Chandigarh Highway Lalru-140501, Punjab, India. The Holding Company's shares are listed with BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited.

Holding Company Overview

The Holding Company is one of India's leading research based biotechnology companies engaged in the business of research, development, manufacture and marketing of branded vaccines, pharmaceutical formulations, nutraceuticals and food & nutrition products in India and international markets through itself and through its subsidiaries.

The Holding Company, its subsidiaries and its joint venture (jointly referred to as "the Group" herein under) were considered in these consolidated financial statements.

1.1 Basis of preparation

a. Statement of compliance

The consolidated financial statements ('Consolidated Financial Statements') of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as notified by Ministry of Corporate Affairs pursuant to section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other relevant provisions of the Act, as amended from time to time.

These Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared for the Group as a going concern on the basis of relevant Ind AS that are effective at the Group's annual reporting date, March 31, 2026. The Consolidated Financial Statements of the Group were approved by the Board of Directors on May 30, 2026.

b. Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following assets and liabilities which have been measured at fair value:

- Certain financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value (refer accounting policy regarding financial instruments); and
- Defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value.

1.2 Basis of consolidation

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases. Profit/ (loss) and Other Comprehensive Income ('OCI') of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the period are recognised from the effective date of acquisition, or up to the effective date of disposal, as applicable. All the consolidated subsidiaries have a consistent reporting date of March 31, 2026.

The Group combines the financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries line by line adding together like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income and expenses. Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group. Non-controlling interests, presented as part of equity, represent the portion of a subsidiary's statement of profit and loss and net assets that is not held by the Group. Profit/ (loss) and each component of OCI are attributed to the equity holders of the parent company and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. The Group attributes total comprehensive income or loss of the subsidiaries between the owners of the parent and the non-controlling interests based on their respective ownership interests.

1.3 Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with Ind AS requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions. These estimates, judgments and assumptions affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Application of accounting policies that require critical accounting estimates involving complex and subjective judgments and the use of assumptions in these consolidated financial statements have been disclosed in note 1.4.

1.4 Material accounting policies

The material accounting policies that are used in the preparation of these financial statements are summarised below. These accounting policies are consistently used throughout the periods presented in the consolidated financial statements.

a) Current versus non-current classification

The Group has considered an operating cycle of 12 months for determining current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities in the balance sheet. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities respectively.

b) Inventories

Inventories are valued as follows:

Raw material, components, stores and spares: Raw materials (including packing materials), stores and spares are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Cost of raw materials, components and stores and spares is determined on a weighted average basis. Stores and spares having useful life of more than twelve months are capitalised as "Property, plant and equipment" and are depreciated prospectively over their remaining useful lives in accordance with Ind AS 16.

Work in progress and finished goods: Work in progress and finished goods are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost includes raw material cost and a proportion of direct and indirect overheads up to estimated stage of completion. Cost is determined on a weighted average basis.

Traded goods: Traded goods are valued at lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost includes cost of purchase and other cost incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Provision for expired / slow-moving / non-moving inventories: The provision for inventories are created as follows:

Category	Description	Provision %
Expired Inventory	This includes all items of inventories where the shelf life thereof has expired as on the reporting date.	100%
Near Expiry Inventory	This includes all items of inventories which are nearing expiry within: 1 to 3 months from the reporting date 4 to 6 months from the reporting date	100% 50%
Inventory having no commercial value	This includes all items of inventories which have no commercial value, or which cannot be commercialized for any reason e.g. stability samples, control samples, development / exhibit batches, Reference listed drugs purchased for trials but remained unutilised etc.	100%
Slow moving / Non-moving inventory.	This includes all items of inventories where the movement is slow or there is no movement, however inventory items can be used in case of any need e.g. spares kept for machines, production or lab consumables with long shelf life etc. as under: - Inventories lying in stock for more than 1 year but less than 2 years from the reporting date - Inventories lying in stock for more than 2 years but less than 3 years from the reporting date - Inventories lying in stock for more than 3 years	25% 50% 100%
Good inventory	All other items of inventory which do not fall in any of the above categories will be considered as Good inventory	0%

Following are the exceptions:

- Provision in respect of any inventory item that is the subject matter of any legal dispute shall be created based on the legal opinion from the legal department.
- All exceptions will have to be approved by the Chief Financial Officer of the Holding Company.
- In case of inventory items on which provisions were made as per the policy however such items were subsequently consumed / utilised, then the provision made in respect of such an inventory shall be adjusted suitably.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

c) Property, plant and equipment

Recognition and initial measurement: All items of property, plant and equipment are initially measured at cost. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing cost if capitalisation criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Any trade discount and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price. Subsequent to initial recognition, property, plant and equipment other than freehold land are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits attributable to such subsequent cost associated with the item will flow to the Group. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss as incurred.

The cost of replacing part of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Group and its cost can be measured reliably. The costs of repairs and maintenance are recognised in the statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding at each reporting date is disclosed as capital advances under non-current assets.

Capital work-in-progress included in property, plant and equipment are not depreciated as these assets are not yet available for use.

Subsequent measurement (depreciation and useful lives): Depreciation on property, plant and equipment is provided on the straight-line method arrived on the basis of the useful life prescribed under Schedule II of the Act. The following useful life of assets has been determined by the Group:

Particulars	Useful life
Building – Factory	30 years
Building – Non-factory	60 years
Plant and Equipment	15 years and 20 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 years
Vehicles	8 years
Office equipment	5 years
Computer equipment	3 years and 6 years

- i) Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and therefore is not depreciated.
- ii) Leasehold land is amortised over the period of lease.
- iii) Leasehold improvements are amortised over the initial period of lease or useful life, whichever is shorter.

The residual values, useful lives and method of depreciation are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Where, during any financial year, any addition has been made to any asset, or where any asset has been sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed, or significant components replaced; depreciation on such assets is calculated on a pro rata basis as individual assets with specific useful life from the month of such addition or, as the case may be, up to the month on which such asset has been sold, discarded, demolished or destroyed or replaced.

De-recognition: An item of property, plant and equipment and any significant part initially recognised is de-recognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognized.

d) Intangible assets

Recognition and initial measurement

Research and development costs: Expenditure on the research phase of projects is recognised as an expense as incurred. Costs that are directly attributable to a project's development phase are recognised as intangible assets, provided the Group can demonstrate the following:

- the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use.
- the management's intention is to complete the intangible asset and use or sell it
- its ability to use or sell the intangible asset
- how the intangible asset will generate probable future economic benefits
- the availability of adequate technical, financial and other resources to complete the development and to use or sell the intangible asset.
- its ability to measure reliably the expenditure attributable to the intangible asset during its development.

Development costs not meeting these criteria for capitalisation are expensed as and when incurred.

Directly attributable costs include employee costs incurred on development of prototypes along with an appropriate portion of relevant overheads and borrowing costs.

Other intangibles: Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. Following initial recognition, intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding product development costs, are not capitalised and expenditure is reflected in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

Intangible assets under development are not amortized as these assets are not yet available for use. These assets are evaluated for potential impairment on an annual basis or when there are indications that the carrying value is not recoverable.

Subsequent measurement (Amortisation and useful lives): All finite-lived intangible assets, including internally developed intangible assets, are accounted for using the cost model whereby capitalised costs are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. Residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date and any change in the same is accounted for prospectively. The following useful lives are applied:

Intangible assets	Amortisation period
Patents, trademarks and designs	7 years
Product development	5 years
Technical know-how	5 years
Software	5 years
Websites	2 years

The amortization expense on intangible assets with finite life is recognised in the statement of profit and loss under the head depreciation and amortization expense.

De-recognition : Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

e) Investment properties

Recognition and initial measurement: Investment properties are properties held to earn long term rentals or for capital appreciation, or both. Investment properties are measured initially at their cost of acquisition, including transaction costs. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the Holding Company. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in statement of profit and loss as incurred.

Properties held under leases are classified as investment properties when it is held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or for both, rather than for sale in the ordinary course of business or for use in production or administrative functions.

Subsequent measurement (depreciation and useful lives): Investment properties are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Depreciation on investment properties is provided on the straight-line method over the lease period of the right-of-use assets.

Though, the Holding Company measures investment properties using cost-based measurement, the fair value of investment property is disclosed in the notes. Fair values are determined based on an annual evaluation performed by an accredited external independent valuer applying a valuation model acceptable internationally.

De-recognition: Investment properties are de-recognized either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds, if any, and the carrying amount of the asset is recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the period of de-recognition.

f) Impairment of non-financial assets / Assets classified as held for sale

The carrying amounts of the Group's non-financial assets, other than inventories and deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. Goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite lives or that are not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually; their recoverable amount is estimated annually each year at the reporting date.

For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the 'cash-generating unit'). The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use or its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. The goodwill acquired in a business combination is, for the purpose of impairment testing, allocated to cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination. Intangibles with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment individually.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its estimated recoverable amount. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the units and then to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit on a pro-rata basis. Impairment losses are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Impairment losses recognised in prior periods are assessed at each reporting date for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

During the current financial year, the Group has considered it appropriate to undertake the impairment assessment based on certain indicators. With reference to the latest business plan, the decline in operating profits is considered temporary. Based on management's impairment assessment, recoverable amount is higher than the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment and hence, no impairment is recognized.

g) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing cost consists of interest, ancillary costs and other costs in connection with the borrowing and also includes exchange differences to the extent regarded as an adjustment to the borrowing costs.

h) Foreign and presentation currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is also the Holding Company's functional and presentation currency.

Rounding of amount: All amounts disclosed in the financial statements and notes have been rounded-off to the nearest ₹ million or decimal thereof as per the requirement of Schedule III, unless otherwise stated. Amount less than ₹50,000/- is presented ₹0.00 million.

Foreign currencies transactions and balances

Initial recognition: Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition.

Subsequent measurement: Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date.

Exchange differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which they arise.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value is determined. The gain or loss arising on translation of non-monetary items measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on the change in fair value of the item (i.e. translation differences on items whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in Other Comprehensive Income ("OCI") or profit or loss are also recognised in OCI or profit or loss, respectively).

Exchange differences arising on other long-term foreign currency monetary items are accumulated in the "Foreign Currency Monetary Item Translation Difference Account" and amortised over the remaining life of the concerned monetary item.

All other exchange differences are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

i) Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group.

The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial results are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 — Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable

Level 3 — Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the financial statements on a recurring basis, Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period or each case.

j) Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer and excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties, if any. The Group recognises revenue when it transfers control over a product or service to a customer.

The Group has concluded that it is the principal in all of its revenue arrangements since it is the primary obligor in all the revenue arrangements as it has pricing latitude and is also exposed to inventory and credit risks.

The Group applies the revenue recognition criteria to each separately identifiable component of the Revenue transaction as set out below:

Sale of goods: Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when all the significant risks and rewards of ownership in the goods are transferred to the buyer as per the terms of the contract, there is neither continuing managerial involvement with the goods nor effective control over the goods sold, it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the Group, the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold is net of variable consideration on account of discounts. Revenue is disclosed exclusive of goods and services tax.

Revenue from these sales is recognised based on the price specified in the contract, net of the estimated volume discounts. Accumulated experience is used to estimate and provide for the discounts, using the expected value method, and revenue is only recognised to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal will not occur.

Revenue from services rendered is recognised in the statement of profit and loss over the period the underlying services are performed.

Dividend income: Dividend income is recognised at the time when right to receive the payment is established, which is generally when the shareholders approve the dividend.

Interest income: Interest income is recorded on accrual basis using the effective interest rate ("EIR") method.

Royalty income: Royalty is recognized on an accrual basis based on actual sale of product by the licensee and in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreement.

Research and license fees income: Research and license fees income is recognized on an accrual basis based on actual sale of product by the licensee and in accordance with the term of the relevant agreement.

Export incentives: Export entitlements from government authorities are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the right to receive credit as per the terms of the scheme is established in respect of the exports made by the Group, and where there is no significant uncertainty regarding the ultimate collection of the relevant export proceeds.

A provision for expected sales returns is determined based on the historical percentage of sales return for the same types of goods for which the provision is currently being determined. The same percentage to the sales is applied for the current accounting period to derive the provision for sales return to be accrued. It is very unlikely that actual sales return will exactly match the historical percentage. These estimates are reviewed annually for any material changes in assumptions and likelihood of occurrence.

k) Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss which are measured initially at fair value. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

Recognition and initial measurement: Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and are measured initially at fair value adjusted for transaction costs, except for those carried at fair value through profit or loss which are measured initially at fair value.

Subsequent measurement

Financial assets

i. Financial assets carried at amortised cost – A financial instrument is measured at amortised cost if both the following conditions are met:

- The asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold assets for collecting contractual cash flows, and
- Contractual terms of the asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI") on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

ii. Investments in equity instruments of subsidiaries and joint ventures - Investments in equity instruments of subsidiaries and joint ventures are accounted for at cost in accordance with Ind AS 27 Separate Financial Statements.

iii. Financial assets at fair value

- Investments in equity instruments other than above – Investments in equity instruments which are held for trading are generally classified as at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"). For all other equity instruments, the Group makes irrevocable choice upon initial recognition, on an instrument to instrument basis, to classify the same either as at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI") or fair value through profit or loss FVTPL.
- If the Group decides to classify an equity instrument as at FVOCI, then all fair value changes on the instrument, excluding dividends, are recognised in the OCI. There is no recycling of the amounts from OCI to profit or loss, even on sale of investment. However, the Group transfers the cumulative gain or loss within equity. Dividends on such investments are recognised in the statement of profit and loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment.
- Equity instruments included within the FVTPL category are measured at fair value with all changes recognised in the profit or loss.

De-recognition of financial assets: A financial asset is primarily de-recognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired or the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset.

Financial liabilities

Subsequent to initial recognition, all non-derivative financial liabilities, other than derivative liabilities, are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

De-recognition of financial liabilities: A financial liability is de-recognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments: Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Impairment of financial assets: The Group assesses on a forward looking basis the expected credit losses associated with its assets carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables only, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

l) Investment in subsidiaries and joint ventures

Investments in subsidiaries and joint ventures are carried at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Where an indication of impairment exists, the carrying amount of the investment is assessed and written down immediately to its recoverable amount. On disposal of these investments, the difference between net disposal proceeds and the carrying amounts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

m) Post-employment and other employee benefits

Provident fund: Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Group has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Group recognizes contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expense, when an employee renders the related service. The Group has no obligation other than the contribution payable to the Provident Fund. If the contribution already paid exceeds the contribution due for services received before the balance sheet date, then excess is recognised as an asset to the extent that the pre-payment will lead to, for example, a reduction in future payment or a cash refund.

Gratuity: A defined benefit plan is a post-employment benefit plan other than a defined contribution plan. The Group's net obligation in respect of the gratuity plan (administered through the Life Insurance Corporation of India), which is a defined benefit plan, is calculated by estimating the ultimate cost to the entity of the benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods. This requires an entity to determine how much benefit is attributable to the current and prior periods and to make estimates (actuarial assumptions) about demographic variables and financial variables that will affect the cost of the benefit. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plan is determined on the basis of actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method. Actuarial gains/losses resulting from re-measurements of the liability are included in other comprehensive income.

Compensated absences: Compensated absences, which are expected to be utilized within the next 12 months, is treated as short term employee benefit. The Group measures the expected cost of such absences as the additional amount that it expects to pay as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the reporting date.

The Group treats compensated absences expected to be carried forward beyond twelve months, as long-term employee benefit for measurement purposes. Such long-term compensated absences are provided for based on the actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method at the year-end. Actuarial gains / losses are immediately taken to the statement of profit and loss and are not deferred.

Other short-term benefits: Expense in respect of other short-term benefits is recognized on the basis of amount paid or payable for the period during which services are rendered by the employees.

n) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events including a bonus issue.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

o) Income taxes

Income tax expense recognized in statement of profit and loss comprises current tax and deferred tax except the ones recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is determined as the tax payable in respect of taxable income for the year and is computed in accordance with the applicable tax regulations. Current income tax relating to items recognized outside profit or loss is recognized outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). The Group offsets current tax assets and current tax liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and where it intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and liability simultaneously.

Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and corresponding amount used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax assets on unrealised tax loss are recognized to the extent that it is probable that the underlying tax loss will be utilised against future taxable income. This is assessed based on the Group's forecast of future operating results, adjusted for significant non-taxable income and expenses and specific limits on the use of any unused tax loss. Unrecognized deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred tax relating to items recognized outside statement of profit and loss is recognized outside statement of profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity).

p) Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the group will comply with all the conditions.

Government grants related to the income are deferred and recognised in statement of profit and loss over the period necessary to match them with the cost that are intended to compensate and presented within other income.

Government grants related to property plant and equipment are included in the non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the expected life of the related assets and presented within other income.

When the grant relates to an expense item, it is recognised as income on a systematic basis over the periods that the related costs, for which it is intended to compensate, are expensed. When the grant relates to an asset, it is initially recognised as deferred income at fair value and subsequently are recognised in consolidated statement of profit and loss as other income on a systematic basis over the expected useful life of the related asset.

q) Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker.

Identification of segments: In accordance with Ind AS 108 – Operating Segment, the operating segments used to present segment information are identified on the basis of information reviewed by the Group's management to allocate resources to the segments and assess their performance. An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it earns revenues and incurs expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the other components. Results of the operating segments are reviewed regularly by the Board of Director (Managing Director and Chief Financial officer) which has been identified as the chief operating decision maker (CODM), to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance and for which discrete financial information is available.

Allocation of common costs: Common allocable costs are allocated to each segment accordingly to the relative contribution of each segment to the total common costs.

Unallocated items: Unallocated items include general corporate income and expense items which are not allocated to any business segment.

Segment accounting policies: The Group prepares its segment information in conformity with the accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the financial statements of the Group as a whole. In accordance with Ind AS 108, Operating Segments, the management has disclosed the segment information in the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

r) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

s) Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised when present obligations as a result of past events will probably lead to an outflow of economic resources from the Group and they can be estimated reliably. Timing or amount of the outflow may still be uncertain. A present obligation arises from the presence of a legal or constructive obligation that has resulted from past events.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the reporting date, based on the most reliable evidence, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the present obligation.

In those cases where the possible outflow of economic resource as a result of present obligations is considered improbable or remote, or the amount to be provided for cannot be measured reliably, no liability is recognised in the balance sheet.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. The Group does recognise a contingent liability but discloses its existence in the financial statements.

Any amount that the Group can be virtually certain to collect from a third party with respect to the obligation is recognised as a separate asset up to the amount of the related provisions. All provisions are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements.

t) Exceptional items

An item of income or expense which by its size, type or incidence requires disclosure in order to improve an understanding of the performance of the Group is treated as an exceptional item and the same is disclosed in consolidated statement of profit and loss and in the notes forming part of the consolidated financial statements.

1.5 Critical management judgments in applying accounting policies and estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities and the related disclosures.

Judgments

Research and developments costs: Management monitors progress of internal research and development projects by using a project management system. Significant judgment is required in distinguishing research from the development phase. Development costs are recognised as an asset when all the criteria are met, whereas research costs are expensed as incurred. Management also monitors whether the recognition requirements for development costs continue to be met. This is necessary due to inherent uncertainty in the economic success of any product development.

Recognition of deferred tax assets: The extent to which deferred tax assets can be recognized is based on an assessment of the probability of the future taxable income against which the deferred tax assets can be utilised.

Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets – The Group is the subject of legal proceedings and tax issues covering a range of matters, which are pending in various jurisdictions. In view of the uncertainty inherent in such matters, it is difficult to predict the final outcome of such matters. The cases and claims against the Group often raise difficult and complex factual and legal issues, which are subject to many uncertainties, including but not limited to the facts and circumstances of each particular case and claim, the jurisdiction and the differences in applicable law. In the normal course of business, management consults with legal counsel and certain other experts on matters related to litigation and taxes. The Group accrues a liability when it is determined that an adverse outcome is probable and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated.

Impairment of financial assets – At each balance sheet date, based on historical default rates observed over expected life, the management assesses the expected credit loss on outstanding financial assets.

Evaluation of indicators for impairment of assets – The evaluation of applicability of indicators of impairment of assets requires assessment of several external and internal factors which could result in deterioration of recoverable amount of the assets.

Estimates

Useful lives of depreciable / amortisable assets: Management reviews its estimate of the useful lives of depreciable/amortisable assets at each reporting date, based on the expected utility of the assets. Uncertainties in these estimates relate to technical and economic obsolescence that may change the utility of certain software, IT equipment and other plant and equipment.

Defined benefit obligation: Management's estimate of the Defined Benefit Obligations (DBO) is based on a number of critical underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses.

Fair value measurements

Management applies valuation techniques to determine the fair value of financial instruments (where active market quotes are not available). This involves developing estimates and assumptions consistent with how market participants would price the instrument.

1.6 New and amended standards

The Group has applied the following amendments for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 April 2023:

Ind AS 8 – Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors : The amendments to Ind AS 8 clarify the distinction between changes in accounting estimates, changes in accounting policies and the correction of errors. They also clarify how entities use measurement techniques and inputs to develop accounting estimates. The amendments had no impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

The amendments had no impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

Ind AS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements: The amendments to Ind AS 1 provide guidance on applying materiality judgements to accounting policy disclosures. The amendments aim to help entities provide accounting policy disclosures that are more useful by replacing the requirement for entities to disclose their 'significant' accounting policies with a requirement to disclose their 'material' accounting policies and adding guidance on how entities apply the concept of materiality in making decisions about accounting policy disclosures.

The amendments have had an impact on the Group's disclosures of accounting policies, but not on the measurement, recognition or presentation of any items in the Group's financial statements.

Ind AS 12 – Income Taxes: The amendments to Ind AS 12 Income Tax narrow the scope of the initial recognition exception, so that it no longer applies to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences such as leases. The above amendments did not have any material impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

1.7 Recent accounting pronouncements (Standard issued but not yet effective)

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. MCA has issued following amendments:

Amendment to Ind AS 1 'Presentation of Financial Statements'- Classification of Liabilities as current or non-current and non-current liabilities with covenants. The amendment includes specific provisions that will take effect for reporting periods beginning on or after April 01, 2026, retrospectively, as outlined below:

- (i) Breach of material covenant for long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of reporting period with the effect that liability becomes payable on demand as on reporting date, then it shall be classified as current liability, if lender agreed after reporting period and before approval of consolidated financial statements to not demand payment as a consequence of breach.
- (ii) Classify as non-current liability, if lender agreed by the end of reporting period to provide grace period ending at least 12 months after reporting period within which entity can rectify the breach provided lender does not demand immediate repayment.
- (iii) Disclose information about the timing of settlement to understand the impact of the liability on the consolidated financial statements.

The Group does not expect this amendment to have an impact on its operations or consolidated financial statements.

Notes:

(i) Refer note 39(B) for information on contractual commitments related to property, plant and equipment.

(ii) The Group evaluated impairment of its property, plant and equipment in terms of IND AS- 36, 'Impairment of Assets'. The carrying amount is tested annually at the year end for impairment by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs to sell) with its carrying amount and impairment, if any, is recognized in the consolidated financial statement of the Group.

The Group carried out an impairment assessment of the CGUs using a discounted cash flow model which is based on the net present value of the forecasted earnings of the cash-generating unit. This is calculated using certain assumptions viz. discount rate of 13.78% - 20.20%, terminal year growth rate of 4% and cash flow forecasts for 5 years. The Group has also involved independent, registered valuer to assess fair value of the property, plant and equipment and Group has calculated the value in use of the CGU's by cash flow approach. These forecasts contain management's best view of the expected performance of the CGU's based on the management's knowledge of the market environment, strategic initiatives and future business plans. As per the management assessment, there is no impairment required to be recognized in the statement of profit and loss account.

(iii) During the financial year 2024-25, the Group has classified its properties amounting to ₹35.00 million (Gross value ₹40.80 million and accumulated depreciation ₹5.80 million) as investment property from property plant and equipment, due to change in plan and objective towards utilisation of said properties.

(iv) The Group has not revalued its property, plant and equipment during the financial year 2025-26 and 2024-25.

(v) The Group has adopted cost model for its property, plant and equipment.

Notes:

- i) Includes income tax demand of ₹99.52 million in respect to Assessment Year 2005-06. The Income Tax Department had issued alleged demand based on certain grounds related to purchases made by the Holding Company from an overseas vendor. The matter was decided in favour of the Holding Company, and the demand was cancelled by Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) ("CIT (Appeals)"). However, the Income Tax Department filed an appeal before Income Tax Appellate Tribunal ('ITAT') against the order of CIT (Appeals) during the financial year 2025-26 and the same has been allowed in favour of the Holding Company. Keeping in view that the stipulated period for filing of appeal by the Income Tax department against the said order of the Hon'ble ITAT is not yet over, the Holding Company has decided to continue to show the amount as a contingent liability.
- ii) A search operation was conducted by the Income Tax Department in the premises of the Holding Company in January 2012 and hence the Holding Company re-filed the income tax returns for the Assessment Year 2006-07 to 2012-13. However, CIT (Appeals) made certain disallowances with respect to Assessment Year 2010-11 and 2011-12 against which the Holding Company filed appeals before the (ITAT). The Income Tax Department also filed appeal before ITAT against the orders of CIT (Appeals). During the financial year 2025-26, the Hon'ble ITAT has, vide its consolidated Order dated February 27, 2026 (a) dismissed all seven appeals filed by the Income Tax Department against the orders of the CIT (Appeals) for Assessment Years 2006-07 to 2012-13; (b) allowed both appeals filed by the Holding Company against the CIT (Appeals) orders dated July 27, 2015, for Assessment Years 2010-11 and 2011-12; and quashed the underlying assessment orders passed by the Assessing Officer / DCIT for Assessment Years 2006- 07 to 2012-13, thereby providing complete relief to the Holding Company. Keeping in view that the stipulated period for filing of appeal by the Income Tax Department against the said order of the Hon'ble ITAT is not yet over, the Holding Company has decided to continue to show this amount as a contingent liability.
- iii) The Income Tax Department had raised a demand of ₹33.69 million in respect of Assessment Year 2016-17 based on transfer pricing order passed by Dispute Resolution Panel. The alleged demand was raised on purchase of certain goods by the Holding Company from its associated enterprise wherein, according to Income Tax Department, arms' length price adjustment was warranted. The Holding Company filed appeal before ITAT against the order passed by the Income Tax Department. During financial year 2023-24, the said appeal has been decided in favour of the Holding Company. Further, the department has filed an appeal before the Hon'ble Delhi High court, against the order of the Hon'ble ITAT. Based on legal advice, the Holding Company believes that it has merits in this case, hence no provision is required.
- iv) The Income Tax Department has levied a penalty of ₹93.88 million in respect of Assessment Years 2017-18, 2020-21 & 2021-22 on account of alleged under reporting of income in assessment orders passed for the said years. The Holding Company filed an appeal before CIT (Appeals) against the order passed by the Income Tax Department but the same was dismissed by the CIT (Appeals). The Holding Company has filed an appeal before Hon'ble ITAT against the order passed by CIT (Appeals). Based on legal advice, the Holding Company believes that it has merits in these cases, hence no provision is required.
- v) The Income Tax Department raised a demand of ₹2,620.80 million in respect of Assessment Year 2020-21. The alleged demand was raised due to wrong addition of contingent liability not provided for, set-off of business losses not allowed and increase in other income due to set-off of business losses not allowed. The Holding Company filed an appeal before CIT (Appeals) and rectification application before assessing officer against the order passed by the Income Tax Department. During the financial year 2023-24, while the said appeal was under consideration, the assessing officer has passed rectification order in favour of the Holding Company and reduced the said tax demand to ₹91.63 million. Currently, the same is reflected on income tax portal due to error in the said order. Further, the Holding Company has filed the application for rectification thereof. The Holding Company believes that it has merits in this case, hence no provision is required.

In the meantime, the stock of such vaccines amounting to ₹74.10 million expired. Further, the Holding Company also received an advance market commitment ("AMC") amounting to ₹100.00 million towards against these vaccines. The refund of the advance so received (after adjusting the amount receivable against the vaccines already supplied) was demanded back by MOHFW along with interest on account of non-supply of balance quantities of vaccines. In view of above disputes, the Holding Company obtained a stay order from the Hon'ble Delhi High Court against recovery of said amount, till the disputes are finally resolved through arbitration. The arbitration award was pronounced in favour of the Holding Company on March 14, 2019, vide which MOHFW was directed to pay the applicable amount for vaccine supplied / offered for supply along with interest. Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the balance sheet date, which is the same method as applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation as recognised in the balance sheet. There was no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis from prior years.

B. Fair values hierarchy

Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value in the balance sheet are categorised into three levels of fair value hierarchy. The three levels are defined based on the observability of significant inputs to the measurement. The different levels of fair value have been defined below:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in an active market for financial instruments.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the assets or liability, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

B.1 Financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value - recurring fair value measurements (₹ in million)

Investments:	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
As at March 31, 2026	100.33	0.70	-
As at March 31, 2025	31.53	0.70	-

B.2 Financial assets and liabilities are measured at amortised cost. All the financial assets and liabilities valued at amortised cost form part of Level 3 of hierarchy table. Further, the carrying amounts of trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, consignment debtors, interest accrued, other receivables, other bank balances, trade payables, employee payables and other current payables are considered to be the same as fair values, due to their short term nature. The fair value of all financial assets and financial liability, approximates the amortised cost due to their short term nature. They are classified as level 3 fair value in the fair value hierarchy due to the inclusion of unobservable inputs, including own credit risk. The fair value of loans to employees and security deposits approximates the carrying amount.

46. Financial risk management

Risk management framework

The Group's activities expose it to market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk. The management has the overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework. This note explains the sources of risk which the entity is exposed to and how the entity manages the risk and the related impact in the consolidated financial statements.

A. Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counter party fails to discharge its obligation to the Group. The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and financial assets measured at amortised cost. The Group continuously monitors defaults of customers and other counter parties and incorporates this information into its credit risk controls.

A.1 Credit risk management

The Group assesses and manages credit risk based on internal credit rating system. Internal credit rating is performed for each class of financial instruments with different characteristics. The Group assigns the following credit ratings to each class of financial assets based on the assumptions, inputs and factors specific to the class of financial assets:

A: Low credit risk on financial reporting date

B: Moderate credit risk

C: High credit risk

The Group provides for expected credit loss based on the following:

Asset Company	Basis of categorisation	Provision for expected credit loss
Low credit risk	Cash and cash equivalents, Bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents, loans and other financial assets	12 month expected credit loss
Moderate credit risk	Trade receivables	Life time expected credit loss or 12 month expected credit loss*
High credit risk	Trade receivables and loans	Life time expected credit loss or fully provided for

* In respect of trade receivables, the Group recognises a provision for lifetime expected credit losses.

Based on business environment in which the Group operates, a default on a financial asset is considered when the counter party fails to make payments within the agreed time period as per contract. Loss rates reflecting defaults are based on actual credit loss experience and considering differences between current and historical economic conditions.

Assets are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor declaring bankruptcy or a litigation decided against the Group. The Group continues to engage with parties whose balances are written off and attempts to enforce repayment. Recoveries made are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Particulars	Credit rating	(₹ in million)
		As at March 31, 2026	As at March 31, 2025
Cash and cash equivalents	A: Low credit risk	573.07	821.25
Bank balances other than cash and cash equivalents	A: Low credit risk	385.60	887.19
Loans	A: Low credit risk	19.40	25.67
Other financial assets	A: Low credit risk	407.21	112.06
Trade receivables	B: Medium credit risk	735.23	725.57
Trade receivables	C: High credit risk	68.00	50.56
Other financial assets	C: High credit risk	6.63	6.79

Cash and cash equivalents and bank deposits: Credit risk related to cash and cash equivalents and bank deposits is managed by only accepting highly rated banks and diversifying bank deposits and accounts in different banks across the country.

Trade receivables: Credit risk related to trade receivables are mitigated by taking bank guarantees/letter of credit, from customers where credit risk is high. The Group closely monitors the credit-worthiness of the debtors through internal systems that are configured to define credit limits of customers, thereby limiting the credit risk to pre-calculated amounts. The Group assesses increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis for amounts receivable that become past due and default is considered to have occurred when amounts receivable become two year past due.

Other financial assets measured at amortised cost: Other financial assets measured at amortized cost includes security deposits and others. Credit risk related to these other financial assets is managed by monitoring the recoverability of such amounts continuously.

A.2 Expected credit losses for financial assets other than trade receivables

The Group provides for expected credit losses on loans and advances other than trade receivables by assessing individual financial instruments for expectation of any credit losses. Since the Group deals with only high-rated banks and financial institutions, credit risk in respect of cash and cash equivalents, other bank balances and bank deposits is evaluated as very low. In respect of loans, comprising of security deposits, credit risk is considered low because the Group is in possession of the underlying asset. However, in respect of loans comprising loans to related parties, credit risk is evaluated on the basis of credit worthiness of those parties and loss allowance is measured as lifetime expected credit losses. In respect of other financial assets, credit risk is evaluated based on Group's knowledge of the credit worthiness of those parties and loss allowance is measured as lifetime expected credit losses. In respect of other financial assets, credit risk is evaluated based on Group's knowledge of the credit worthiness of those parties and loss allowance is measured as lifetime expected credit losses. The Group does not have any expected loss based impairment recognised (except in case of loans to related parties) on such assets considering their low credit risk nature, though incurred loss provisions are disclosed under each sub-category of such financial assets.

C. Market risk

(i) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's non-current and current debt obligations financed with fixed interest rates. The Group always try to ensure minimum cash outflows. The assumed movement in basis points for the interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the currently observable market environment, showing a significantly higher volatility (the loans are repaid in the current year). Accordingly, the Group is not exposed to fluctuation in interest rate risk on borrowings.

(ii) Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from foreign currency transactions, primarily with respect to the United States Dollar (USD), EURO, Swiss Franc (CHF), Pound Sterling (GBP), Russian Rouble (RUB), Singapore Dollar (SGD) and Swedish Krona (SEK). Foreign exchange risk arises from recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the functional currency of the Group. The Group does not use any derivative instruments to manage its exposure. Also, the Group does not use forward contracts and swaps for speculative purposes.

56. Under the collaboration with the Human Vaccine Limited Liability Company, Russia ("HV"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Joint Stock Company "Management Company of Russian Direct Investment Fund" for manufacture of Covid-19 vaccine using the technology to be provided by HV, the Holding Company had received from HV an advance amount of US$ 7.00 million in November 2020, out of which ~US$ 6.58 million was used to meet the revenue expenses relating to Sputnik-V and Sputnik Light vaccine project. The Holding Company believes that due to the failure on the part of HV to demonstrate & transfer the technology and certain other reasons beyond the Holding Company's control, the complex process of technology transfer and manufacture of Sputnik-V vaccine could not be completed successfully and the Technology Transfer Agreement dated October 22, 2020 entered into between HV and the Holding Company ("TTA") for manufacturing of Covid-19 vaccine stood frustrated and accordingly both the parties stood automatically discharged from their obligations by operation of law. The Holding Company is thus entitled to adjust the same against the advance received from HV. The Holding Company has already conveyed its position to HV and has offered to refund the balance amount of US$ 0.42 million and provided relevant details / documents pertaining to the said expenses. On July 1, 2024, the Holding Company received a copy of Request for Arbitration filed by HV with London Court of International Arbitration ("LCIA") for initiating arbitration alleging that the Holding Company has been in alleged breach of its obligations under the TTA and is thus liable to refund the advance payment of US$7.00 million plus interest thereon as may be awarded over the course of arbitration. Both parties have appointed the sole arbitrator in this matter. The Holding Company is taking requisite steps to safeguard its interest and has filed its response along with witness statements and counter claims against HV. Further arbitration proceedings, including cross examinations etc. shall be completed in due course. Based on the Holding Company's assessment, duly supported by legal advice, the Holding Company believes that it will not be liable to pay back the amount adjusted towards wasted expenses and costs under dispute with HV and the outcome of this arbitration proceeding is not reasonably expected to have any material financial impact on the Holding Company.

57. In August 2021, the Holding Company entered into a Licensing and Manufacture Agreement with HV, Generium JSC and Dr. Reddy's Laboratories Limited ("DRL"). As per the terms of the agreement, the Holding Company was to undertake fill-and-finish activities of Sputnik-V vaccine using the ready-to-fill drug substance supplied by Generium and supply the Sputnik-V vaccine so produced to DRL. Pursuant to the said agreement, the Holding Company received drug substance from Generium and produced ~1.96 million doses of Sputnik-V vaccine out of which DRL purchased ~0.86 million doses only and refused to purchase and pay for the remaining ~1.10 million doses. Because of breach of their respective obligations by DRL and Generium, the pending payment of ~US$ 7.41 million for the drug substance received from Generium could not be made. After several rounds of discussion among the parties to settle the dispute amicably, Generium has filed notice of arbitration with Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) for arbitration of dispute with respect to the said pending payment and interest thereon totaling ~US$ 8.90 million. The Holding Company has also initiated a parallel arbitration proceeding regarding its claims against DRL, Generium and Human Vaccine and filed notice of arbitration with SIAC during the financial year 2023-24. At the Holding Company's request, SIAC has clubbed both the arbitration proceedings together. The parties have appointed sole arbitrator. All the parties involved in the Arbitration have filed claims and counter claims against each other. The witness statements, cross examination and closing submissions have been completed, and the arbitration award is now awaited. The Holding Company has obtained legal opinion from its legal counsel who, have opined that (a) the Holding Company has a reasonable defence against the claims brought by Generium, DRL and HV; and (b) the possibility of any such claim falling to the Holding Company may be classified as low at this stage.

59. In October 2023, the Holding Company received notice from the International Court of Arbitration, Paris ("ICC") intimating commencement of an Arbitration proceeding pursuant to the request filed by Apotex Inc., claiming an amount of US$ 118.14 million towards outsized alleged losses plus interest thereon under the Collaboration Agreement dated May 09, 2014 entered into between Apotex Inc. and the Holding Company. The said agreement was subsequently assigned and novated in favour of Panacea Biotec Pharma Limited ("PBPL") wholly owned subsidiary of the Holding Company. The Holding Company submitted its response to the notice of arbitration rebutting the claims raised by Apotex citing novation of the said agreement in favour of PBPL. Apotex subsequently filed request for joinder of PBPL in the said arbitration proceedings, raising the claim against the Holding Company and PBPL aggregating to US$163.24 million, which was objected by the Holding Company and PBPL. The management believed that the Holding Company and / or PBPL is not in breach of its obligations and the claims filed by Apotex are frivolous, unsubstantiated, premised on fundamental factual misstatements and incorrect legal assumptions regarding the Collaboration Agreement and contrary to the overwhelming facts and evidence. Both sides appointed their respective arbitrators, and these arbitrators nominated the third arbitrator as the chairman of the arbitration tribunal. PBPL also filed a request for arbitration before ICC with respect to dispute with Apotex raising a claim of US$ 9.90 million towards PBPL's share of profit from sale of authorized generic products sold by Apotex during financial year 2022-23 in USA under the terms of the said Collaboration Agreement and the settlement agreement signed among the Parties including the innovator company. ICC combined the two arbitrations proceedings and thereafter the initial arbitration proceedings were started. During financial year 2025-26, both the parties have executed a Settlement Agreement dated July 3, 2025 recording full and final settlement of the disputes forming part of the arbitration. Pursuant to the settlement Apotex has inter-alia, agreed to pay US$ 5.0 million in 2 tranches (US$ 2.5 million within 30 days and US$ 2.5 million upon receipt of final USFDA approval of the ANDA). The Arbitration Tribunal has made the Consent Award on September 12, 2025 in this regard.
