Why Tax Advisory Aleksandra Marković?

Clear answers in English, so you know exactly where you stand in Serbia and at home.

Senior attention on every task

Every question is handled personally, from the first call to the final report. Nothing is delegated.

Cross-border specialisation

Daily work with expats, remote workers and international employees, and with the treaties between Serbia and their home countries.

Practical approach

Advice reflects both the regulation and the way the Tax Administration applies it in practice.

Proactive by design

Deadlines and risks are flagged early, before they turn into penalties.

Clear and predictable terms

Fixed fees agreed in advance, transparent scope and direct communication in English.

Track record

950+
tax returns filed

100+
international employees supported

100%
success rate in tax authority audits

10+
years of experience in Serbian tax

Six years in EY's tax practice in Belgrade before founding an independent boutique practice.

How we can work together

Simple engagements with fees agreed in advance.

01

A written answer

A clear answer for your situation.

- Written report in English, on your own numbers
- Fixed fee agreed in advance
- A call to go through it, follow-up questions included

02

Tax filings

Your returns, prepared and filed.

- Annual return and self-assessment filings
- Calculation explained before filing
- Prepared within the deadline

03

Ongoing support

As your situation changes.

- Questions answered as they arise: a new job, a move, a sale
- One advisor who already knows your history
- Hourly or fixed fee, agreed upfront

Running a business? I do not provide bookkeeping. I work alongside your accountant and, where needed, introduce trusted accountants and lawyers from my network.
