Ownership of website content

This includes, without limitation, the website's text, layout, design elements, graphics, logos, icons, visual assets, audio-visual material, downloadable content, and overall presentation, as well as the selection and arrangement of such content. All intellectual property rights in such material are reserved, except where a third party is identified as the owner or where specific rights are otherwise stated

Permitted use

Visitors may access, view, and print limited portions of the website content for personal, informational, and non-commercial use only, provided that the content is not modified, removed from context, or presented in a misleading way. Any copyright, trademark, or proprietary notices appearing on the content should be preserved in any permitted copy

Restricted use

Except as expressly permitted in writing, no part of the website may be copied, reproduced, republished, uploaded, posted, transmitted, distributed, adapted, translated, displayed, licensed, sold, or otherwise exploited for commercial or public purposes. This restriction applies to website copy, branding, graphical elements, page design, source-visible assets, and other original material made available through the website.

Trademarks and brand elements

The name Transition VC, its logos, visual identifiers, and related brand assets used on the website are protected by applicable intellectual property and unfair competition laws. No licence or right to use any trademark, service mark, trade name, or brand asset displayed on the website is granted unless expressly authorised in writing by the relevant rights holder.

Third-party content

The website includes links to third-party websites, including portfolio company websites and external social platforms such as LinkedIn, YouTube, and Instagram. All trademarks, logos, content, and materials appearing on or linked from third-party websites remain the property of their respective owners, and their use is subject to those parties' own terms and rights policies.linkedin+1
