Paint! Paint! Paint!

We have had to make some SCHEDULING CHANGES (beyond our control) for the 2025 National Show (workshop dates are not affected). It will be moved from April to March, so that means deadlines for entry will be coming sooner than expected. We also have a lot of fun things at our monthly meetings coming up. STAY TUNED FOR MORE DETAILS!

September Critique

with Jenny Hyde

Sept. 21 General Meeting
Spokane Art Supply

Jenny Hyde is a multi-disciplinary artist from Washington State. Her work explores cultural geography through study of landscape and the body. Jenny currently teaches digital art at Eastern Washington University in Cheney, WA. She holds an MFA in Integrated Electronic Art from Alfred University (2006) and BFA with a focus in painting from Cornish College of the Arts (1998).

Jenny will critique paintings at our general meeting so bring your challenge painting and one other painting if you would like her feedback and constructive observations. She will critique one painting from each member first, and more if time permits. Particulars will be forthcoming.

Thank you Doug and Carrie for an amazing day painting at your beautiful home, where abundant nature provided a never-ending supply of inspiration.

Dugovic Plein Air Event
 COLBERT, WA

June Plein Air Snapshots

Thank you Megan!

Riverside State Park

Megan Perkins demonstrated her techniques for Plein Air Painting, and offered suggestions while members happily painted in the kitchen shelter, thanks to Kathi's excellent organization. It was a wonderful day, despite (and because of) the vast array of springtime weather conditions.

Transportation was the theme of this month's Challenge. Lori Patrick won the gift certificate!
