

A one-stop shop for Junk Removal

How 1-800-GOT-JUNK? helped this retail client handle bulk item removal without disrupting their business.

The client

Local retailer with multiple stores

25+ years
in operation

Well-known for store
cleanliness and presentation

The challenge

- This retail customer needed a solution to remove bulky items from store closures and holiday displays.
- The customer needed someone who could handle all the labor and could also keep delivery docks open for shipments.
- It was important that the removal was executed by a professional team that would not disrupt the everyday operations of the store.

The approach

- Unlike a dumpster rental that would block loading bays and require the retailer to load their items, 1-800-GOT-JUNK? did all the heavy lifting and removed items directly from the retailer's locations in an impressive timeframe.
- All the retailer had to do was point to the items that needed to be removed and 1-800-GOT-JUNK? made them disappear!
