Introduction

Options & Opportunities

King David recognises it is our responsibility to educate the whole child. Alongside our academic offerings, we have a comprehensive co-curricular program that broadens students' learning experience.

Our before and after school sports programs, lunch time activities, participation in inter-school sporting competitions and extensive performing arts programs offer students an avenue for self-expression, confidence building, social skills, team work, time management and growth.

These rich holistic learning opportunities available at The King David School provide a broad educational model that extends students, ensuring they develop interests that will see them enjoying a well-rounded life and the skills to work collaboratively, think creatively and critically so they are able to thrive in the future.

WHO:

Years 6-12

DESCRIPTION:

The King David School provides opportunities for students to compete in Snow Sports. Each year the school participates in the ABL Jewish Inter-school Snow Sports competition at Mt Buller.

Co-Curricular - Leadership Opportunities

Encouraging students to be 'upstanders' who now and in the future will assume leadership roles within the School, the Jewish community, and beyond is of central importance in the School. Student leadership and voice are promoted through a number of avenues.

At the Magid campus, students from each year level serve on the Kol Echad (One Voice - Student Action Committee), which provides a forum for raising concerns, sharing ideas and organising social justice and fund-raising projects. All Year 10 students participate in Derech, a program in which leadership capacity is developed through explicit training and opportunities to facilitate sessions with younger students. Year 11 students have the opportunity to mentor Year 7 students in Amit, our peer leadership program.

As Year 11 students approach their final year in the school, they may stand for a position on the Hanhagah, the school's peak student leadership body consisting of elected representatives (Manhigim) serving on four va'adot (committees), including Yahadut (Jewish life), Ruach (school spirit), Tikkun Olam (social justice) and Tarbut (art).

The Hanhagah meets weekly with the Jewish Experiential Education team and school leaders to discuss initiatives and plan events. It plays a central role in driving student engagement in Jewish life activities and building school spirit and culture. Members are offered leadership training and mentoring.

Other Clubs & Activities

Many of our clubs are student-run, often by members of the Hanhagah (Year 12 leaders). Accordingly, they change based on students' interests. Current examples of clubs include Art Club, Challah Back Club, Chess Club, Advanced Dungeons and Dragons, and Friday T'filah.

Staff run groups and activities include Study Club, Debating, Q&A (SAGA), Model UN, Parashat HaShavua, Maths Help and English Help. Parents can view the most up to date schedule by clicking on the Co-curricular tile on myKDS.
