

The Madykazoo Origin Story -

A Whisper from the Ancient Compass:

I have a story to share.
A tale of courage.
A tale of kindness.
A tale of finding where you belong.

Long before continents drifted apart,
The world was one.
One land.
One family.
One beating heart.

But slowly the continents wandered.
They drifted and danced upon the sea.
And cousins who once lived side-by-side
Found themselves as far apart as could be.

And, yet something magical remained.
A thread.
A truth.
A tiny spark.
A whisper carried on the breeze.
A pond hidden among the trees.

I was there when each Misfit was born,
and gently pointed the way.
Toward that sparkling pond in a misty forest hidden beyond yesterday.

A forest of dragonflies. Fern-fringed streams.
Mossy meadows. And moonlit dreams.

There they met. One by one.
An ostrich.
A penguin.
A turtle.
A kangaroo.
A panda.
A lizard.

Then, an owl in distress.

Each felt different. Each felt small.
Yet, of course...I cherished them all.

With a whirl and a whoosh,
A shimmer and a spin,
The Madykazoo adventures would suddenly begin.

Across great continents. Across space and time.
Past deserts and glaciers. Through jungle and pine.

Meeting cousins. Making discoveries.
Learning with every leap.
Gathering wisdom they promised to keep.

But these adventures hold a gift for YOU.
A way of seeing.
A way of learning.
A way of dreaming, too.

And, dear explorer,
These adventures BELONG to you!
As you gaze upon each page,
Your whole brain joins the journey.

What do YOU observe?
What do YOU hear?
What do YOU smell?
What do YOU feel?
What do YOU taste?

Pictures and feelings, ideas and dreams,
Working together in wonderful ways.
When learning comes alive, stories stay.

As you join the Misfits,
Remember, their mission is yours, too.
To love what's different.
To learn with curiosity.
To live with wonder.
To care for each other and our Earth.

Your Friend,
