Serenity Stria

This elegant door design exudes sophistication with its minimalist aesthetics. The vertical grooves carved symmetrically on both panels create a subtle rhythm, drawing the eye upwards and adding a sense of height to the room. The central gold accent strip provides a striking contrast to the soft, neutral tones of the door, adding a touch of luxury and modernity. The sleek handle and lock, crafted in matching gold, seamlessly integrate with the design, enhancing its refined appearance.

Serenity Stria

Reflexion

This design features a modern and elegant aesthetic, combining wood panels with a centrally placed horizontal mirror that has a subtle coloration. The design is versatile, available in both a rich dark wood finish for a warm and luxurious look and a smooth white finish for a clean and minimalist appearance. The colored mirror adds depth and sophistication, while the overall layout emphasizes simplicity and functionality, making it a perfect choice for contemporary interiors

Linear Elegance

This door design features a minimalistic and modern aesthetic, characterized by its clean lines and understated elegance. The door is crafted with a smooth surface, accentuated by subtle rectangular paneling that adds depth and structure. The neutral tone complements contemporary interiors, creating a calming and cohesive atmosphere.

Linear Elegance

Pure

This door design exemplifies pure minimalism with its clean lines and understated elegance. The panel is seamlessly integrated, with a subtle horizontal division that adds just enough visual interest without overpowering the simplicity. The lack of intricate detailing allows the door to blend effortlessly into its surroundings, creating a harmonious and contemporary look. The muted tone enhances its modern appeal, making it ideal for minimalist and sleek interiors.

Twin Parallel

The Twin Parallel door design is a masterpiece of modern minimalism, featuring two sleek, vertical lines that subtly enhance the natural beauty of the wood. This design symbolizes balance and symmetry, creating a serene yet sophisticated ambiance. The elongated metallic handles add a touch of contemporary elegance, making this door an ideal addition to spaces that value simplicity and style.

Maze Haven

This design features a modern and minimalist aesthetic, characterized by clean, vertical, and horizontal lines. The lines are evenly spaced, creating a subtle geometric pattern on the door panels. The design is balanced and emphasizes symmetry, with matching handles and a neutral color palette, giving the door an elegant and contemporary look. The metallic accents within the lines add a sophisticated touch, contrasting gently with the matte surface of the door.

Timeless Fusio

This door design showcases a timeless and classic aesthetic with a modern twist. The rectangular patterns create a structured, elegant framework that exudes sophistication. The layered detailing of the rectangles, with their subtle depth and clean lines, gives the design a refined look. This door seamlessly blends traditional and modern styles, making it versatile and visually appealing.

Geometric Harmony

This door design features a modern geometric aesthetic that combines wood and black metal detailing. The wood panel at the center displays a natural grain texture, intersected with black angular lines forming a dynamic, asymmetrical pattern. The black metal frame surrounding the door enhances its bold and sophisticated appearance. A uniquely shaped triangular handle adds an artistic and functional focal point, complementing the geometric theme. This design is ideal for contemporary interiors, exuding a sense of creativity and elegance.
