INTELLIGENT STORAGE

However you expect your collection to be stored will be strictly and intelligently implemented by system. Temperature, humidity level and air volume will be exactly as you desired.

Afidano

HPR SYSTEM

Developed by Afidano for cigar storage, HPR system strives to meet the 2 most important needs: Accuracy and Reliability. The 6 components intelligently interacts to provide a stable storage environment with constant temperature and humidity.

NTC ambient temperature sensor

Inverter refrigeration core

Ceramic heating module

High-precision flow control water pump

Air diffusion spraying module

3D vortex flow motor fan

TEMPERATURE: CONSTANTLY CONSTANT

When it comes to temperature control, the basic standard is to make sure it's constant at all times despite however the season changes. Ideally the temperature over time is a straight line, which is what you may expect from an Afidano humidor.

16-22°C

HUMIDITY: INVISIBLY NURTURING

Why Cuban cigars are so reputable may have something to do with the humid sea breeze that its 6,000km coastline brings. Inside Afidano humidor water becomes water molecules, consistently nurturing your collection. Water molecules cannot be seen, but you'll be well aware your collection is being taken care of.
