EXPERTISE Litigation

Michael Annerino is an associate in the firm's Litigation practice group. Michael represents businesses, organizations, and individuals in complex civil litigation, including commercial matters, partnership disputes, and fraud claims. He guides clients through every stage of litigation, from pre-litigation counseling through trial and appeal. Recognizing that every client and case is different, Michael works with clients to develop and execute practical strategies tailored to their goals and the nuances of each dispute.

Michael is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as both an Articles Editor and Symposium Editor for the Wisconsin Law Review and received the Gwynette Smalley Law Review Award for service to the Wisconsin Law Review.

Outside of work, Michael enjoys reading, playing in local baseball and hockey leagues, and watching the Chicago White Sox.
