BALLESTAS ISLANDS AND NAZCA LINES

3 days / 2 nights

Arriving in PARACAS means discovering a destination where the desert and the sea come together in spectacular landscapes, making it an excellent ecological destination for nature and marine biodiversity lovers. It is located near the cities of ICA, the birthplace of pisco, the quintessential Peruvian drink, and where a true oasis is found in the middle of the desert, and NAZCA, an area full of mystery, mysticism, and archaeology.

Paracas can be used as a base for excursions to both cities. The main attraction of the region, without a doubt, is the enigmatic lines drawn on its plains, featuring zoomorphic, anthropomorphic, and geometric figures that can measure up to 300 meters in length. Puerto Maldonado

Day 1: Lima - Puerto Maldonado

Arrive in the city of Puerto Maldonado, known as the Biodiversity Capital. Begin your Amazonian adventure with a 25-minute boat journey, navigating the lower Madre de Dios River until you reach Inkaterra Hacienda Concepción lodge. Settle into your elegant raised wooden cabin or comfortable room, then head to Casa Grande's dining room. A buffet lunch awaits you before exploring the depths of the jungle on foot, starting at the Eco Center. Embark on a walk along Concepción's trails for an introduction to the ecosystems of the Amazon basin. Sheltered by the Tambopata National Reserve and built on a former cocoa and rubber plantation, Inkaterra Hacienda Concepción harbors primary and secondary forests inhabited by exotic fauna and tropical plants. At sunset, during the Night River boat ride, witness, alongside your Explorer Guide, the captivating transformation of the jungle as diurnal animals and birds give way to species adapted to the darkness of the night. You may observe caimans hidden on the banks and the constellations of the southern hemisphere. In the evening, enjoy an à la carte dinner inspired by native Amazonian ingredients. Return to your room or cabin to listen to the sounds and whistles of the forest at night.
