LET'S GO!

THE GUILD OF
OUR LADY OF RANSOM

Dear Friends,

I am deeply grateful to St Mary's College and the many bishops, priests, religious, volunteers, musicians, speakers and countless supporters whose dedication and generosity have made WeBelieve possible. Their commitment is a beautiful witness to the vitality of our Church and to the many gifts God continues to bestow upon His people.

As we gather, let us entrust this festival to the loving care of Our Lady of Ransom, Patroness of our Guild. May she accompany us throughout these days, drawing us ever closer to her Son and inspiring us to become joyful witnesses to His love in the world. May your time at WeBelieve be one of grace, renewal and friendship. I pray that you leave strengthened in faith, encouraged in hope and filled with the joy that comes from knowing Jesus Christ.

Mgr John Armitage

Master of the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom

SITE RULES

By attending the Festival, you agree to comply with these Site Rules, the Festival Terms and Conditions, and any reasonable instruction given by Festival staff, stewards, security personnel or emergency services.

Respect Others | Please treat everyone with courtesy, dignity and respect, helping us to maintain a safe, welcoming and family-friendly environment.

Safeguarding | The safety and wellbeing of all attendees is our highest priority. Parents, guardians and responsible adults remain responsible for the supervision and welfare of children in their care, except during designated supervised Festival sessions in The Atrium and Carlo's Teen Tent. If you have any safeguarding or welfare concern, please speak to a member of the Festival Safeguarding Team on 07510 525655.

Photography and Filming | Please respect the privacy of others. Official Festival photography and filming will take place throughout the Festival. Our photographers and camera crews will be clearly identifiable by their Festival lanyards.

Prohibited Items | The following are not permitted anywhere on the Festival site: alcohol; illegal drugs; weapons or offensive items; pets (except registered assistance animals); open fires, fireworks, flares or pyrotechnics; unauthorised drones; and any item which, in the reasonable opinion of the Festival, presents a safety or security risk.

Camping | Please respect fellow campers by observing quiet hours and keeping your camping area safe, tidy and free from unnecessary hazards.

Vehicles | Vehicles must follow all directional signage and the instructions of Festival stewards. The maximum speed anywhere on site is 5 mph.

Need Help? | Our Festival Team are trained volunteers who are here to help. If you need assistance, please speak to any steward. If you or someone else requires medical attention, alert a steward immediately or go directly to the Medical Room.

Emergency | In an emergency, call 999 first where appropriate, then notify Festival Control on 07597 371584 so that we can direct emergency services to the correct location and coordinate our on-site response.
