Chiapas Project Bulletin # 92 September 2026

Sunday September 13

Good evening dear brothers and sisters in Chicago, I hope you are doing well. I am writing this message to send you the photos of the first of this month's food delivery. Yesterday and today, the food packages were distributed. In total, 43 packages were delivered, with only 2 people remaining. Here I am also sending you a photo of our Eucharistic celebration. I send you greetings and blessings, with love and affection, your servant Rubi.

Service at San Benito September 13

The Food Pantry project began after the Hurricane Etna ravaged the barrio of the Church of San Benito de Nursia in San Cristobal, Chiapas five years ago. During an early budgetary assessment we asked the congregation when they might predict the need would be filled. Their reply was Biblical: when the hunger of God's children for our love has been fulfilled. In November we will celebrate the sixth year of the Food Pantry project.

Food Pantry recipients September 12th & 13th

The Food Pantry provides beans, rice, oil, sugar and pasta, twice monthly to 45 families in the church barrio facing food insecurity. About half the recipients are members of the church and about half of the recipients cycle off each year and others cycle on. The project is managed by San Benito and funded by three Chicago churches (St. Chrysostome's, Holy Comforter, and Atonement).

(Photographs of recipient families with their food are sent to us bi-weekly to assure us that all funds have been spent as allotted.)

Sunday, September 27: Good afternoon dear brothers in Chicago, I hope you are doing well. I am writing you this message to send you the photos of this month's second food delivery. Today, Saturday, September 26, a total of 26 food baskets were delivered, and the rest will be delivered tomorrow. Sending greetings and blessings to all of you. With love and affection, your servant Rubi.

Sunday, September 27: Good evening, dear brothers from Chicago, I hope you are all doing very well. Here I'm sending you the photos of the remaining people. Today, Sunday, September 27, a total of 15 food packages were delivered, only 4 more people didn't attend due to personal reasons.

Here I'm also sending a photo of the progress in the crochet workshop and a photo of the Eucharistic celebration.

Sending you greetings and blessings, we really appreciate your love and care for continuing with this project. With love, your servant Rubi.

LIBRARY UPDATE

So far, two donations of $25.00 each have been sent in to help Christian Beriva increase the holdings of the library at the San Benito church. Many thanks for that help. (Your can see the shelves in the background to the photos on this page.)
