

A Proven Path to Interim Leadership Excellence

Leadership transitions are pivotal moments that can either destabilize an organization or strengthen it for the future.

The Interim Management Institute (IMI) is a cohort-based training and certification program designed to equip seasoned professionals to stabilize organizations during periods of uncertainty and prepare the next leader for long-term success.

THE EXPERIENCE

An Integrated Approach to Interim Leadership

IMI prepares experienced leaders to master organizational change. The program blends Armstrong McGuire faculty instruction with expert insights, peer networking and access to active interim leaders. Through this shared experience, participants will learn to manage a strategic pause and turn a period of vulnerability into a turning point for renewal.

- 18 Total Engagement Hours: A balance of LIVE instruction, small-group networking and practical reflections.
- Learning Experience Includes:
 - Live virtual sessions
 - Expert readings & tools
 - Peer cohort conversations
 - Alumni network access

PROGRAM BENEFITS

Strategic Tools & Leadership Frameworks

- Interim Leadership Frameworks: Proven models for entering, assessing, stabilizing and exiting organizations.
- 90-Day & Transition Planning Tools: Clear structures for alignment, expectation-setting and communication.
- Board & Stakeholder Navigation: Strategies to partner effectively with boards and key stakeholders in high-stakes environments.
- Real-Time Scenario Application: Apply learning directly to real-world leadership scenarios alongside experienced faculty and peers.
- Professional Certification: Earn the Armstrong McGuire Certified Interim Executive credential upon completion.
- Ongoing National Community: Access to a growing national network of 130+ trained interim leaders serving organizations across 15+ states.

IDEAL PARTICIPANT

Designed for experienced nonprofit leaders with 10+ years of senior leadership experience, including Executive Directors, CEOs, COOs, CFOs, CHROs, CDOs and other senior executives.

If you can look at these statements and say, "That's who I AM," you are ready for this cohort:

- I AM an experienced executive ready to channel my years of leadership into a purposeful interim practice.
- I AM a consultant or coach dedicated to helping organizations navigate critical management transitions.
- I AM committed to guiding nonprofits away from survival mode and toward strategic sustainability.

Why Interim Leadership Matters

A leadership change is a profound opportunity to strengthen an organization's foundation. Interim leaders do more than maintain operations. They help organizations stabilize, strengthen systems, support teams and prepare the next permanent leader for success.

Interim leadership is a specialized discipline requiring clarity, adaptability and strong organizational leadership. Join a cohort of experienced executives committed to guiding organizations through moments that matter most.

PROGRAM DETAILS

What to Expect & How to Register

- Format: Virtual cohort, six sessions
- When: Friday, 10 AM - Noon EST and 2:00 – 4:00 PM EST
- Upcoming Cohort: September 25 - December 4, 2026
- Application: Online form.
- Registration Process: Application + interview

INVESTMENT DETAILS | $1,250

Tuition Includes

- Six live virtual faculty-led sessions
- Transition templates and operational tools
- Sample frameworks
- Peer cohort and alumni network access
- Armstrong McGuire Certified Interim Executive credential

READY TO LEAD IN THE MOMENTS THAT MATTER MOST?

Interim leadership is a specialized discipline.

Join a cohort of seasoned executives dedicated to mastering the art of the strategic pause and equip yourself with the tools to guide organizations through change with confidence, clarity and care.

Scan the QR code or visit www.armstrongmcguire.com to submit your application

INTERIM MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

Armstrong McGuire

