ABOUT V7PADEL

V7PADEL is an international padel club located in Antalya (Turkey), with a strong and rapidly growing international community.

We create more than just a place to play – we build a complete padel ecosystem that includes training programs, tournaments, camps, events, and a vibrant community of players of all levels.

Our club regularly hosts groups, individual players, and coaches, and is open to long-term partnerships with padel camp organizers.

The core idea of V7PADEL is to combine professional infrastructure, a flexible approach, and the atmosphere of true club life.

WHY ANTALYA

Antalya is one of the most convenient and logical destinations for hosting international padel camps.

Location advantages:

- simple logistics and direct flights from many countries
- easy visa access
- comfortable climate
- a unique combination of sport, leisure, and resort infrastructure
- more cost-effective compared to Western Europe

Antalya allows you to combine a high-quality training process with a полноценный отдых and a true holiday experience for camp participants.

CLUB LOCATION

Konyaaltı District

The V7PADEL club is located in the Konyaaltı district – one of the most comfortable and vibrant areas of Antalya.

What matters for camps:

- close proximity to the beach and seaside promenade
- a wide selection of hotels and apartments in different categories
- restaurants, cafés, and full urban infrastructure
- convenient access and parking
- a sports cluster in immediate proximity

This is an area where camp participants feel comfortable both on the court and beyond it.

COACHES & EXPERTISE

Upon request, V7PADEL provides the opportunity to work with invited coaches of an international level.

We collaborate with coaches who have experience in:

- professional padel competition
- working with groups of different skill levels
- delivering camps and intensive training programs

Languages spoken by coaches:

- Spanish / English / Ukrainian / Russian (others upon request).

Collaboration formats:

- coach assigned to a specific camp
- coach selection based on the group's level and objectives

V7PADEL supports the organizer in selecting the right coach and structuring the training process according to the camp format.

INTERACTION MODEL

V7PADEL takes responsibility for:

- providing courts and the club's full high-quality infrastructure
- adapting the training schedule and club timetable to the camp format
- organizational support of the group on behalf of the club
- providing international-level coaches upon request
- adapting game formats and club activities to the camp group

The camp organizer is responsible for:

- forming and accompanying the group
- travel arrangements and accommodation for participants
- communication and sales of camp participation to players

If needed, we are ready to share our experience, provide recommendations, and assist in finding optimal solutions.

The V7PADEL team has practical experience in organizing international camps and working with international groups.
