

1. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing the Wildfire International ("WI," "we," "us," or "our") website and participating in our training programs, summits, international exchanges, retreats, or digital platforms, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree, please do not use our services.

2. Intellectual Property Rights

All content provided by WI—including training manuals, curricula, logos, videos, research, and "lived experience" storytelling—is the property of Wildfire International or its licensors. You are granted a limited, non-exclusive license to use these materials for personal or internal agency professional development. You may not redistribute, sell, or modify our materials without express written consent.

3. Training, Retreats, & Exchanges Disclaimer

- Educational Purpose Only: WI provides training, education, and resilience-building programs. Our certifications verify completion of a specific curriculum and do not guarantee individual performance in live wildfire operations.
- Fieldwork & Travel Risk: Participation in in-person exchanges, field-based training, or retreats involves travel to remote areas and exposure to unpredictable environmental risks. By participating, you acknowledge these risks and agree that WI is not liable for injury, loss, or property damage incurred during transit or field activities.
- Health & Insurance: Participants in international programs are responsible for maintaining valid travel documents, necessary vaccinations, and comprehensive medical/travel insurance for the duration of the program.

4. User Conduct & Participation

Whether participating in online forums, in-person summits, or shared residential retreats, you agree to:

- Comply with all local, state, and international laws.
- Respect our "Truly International" core value by engaging in professional, inclusive, and non-discriminatory communication.
- Avoid any actions that compromise the security of our digital platforms or the safety of other participants.

5. Payments, Refunds, and Cancellations

- Donations: All donations are final unless otherwise required by law.
- Program Fees: Fees for summits or certifications must be paid in full prior to the event. Cancellation and refund policies specific to individual retreats or exchanges will be provided at the time of registration.
- Currency: All transactions are processed in USD unless otherwise specified.

6. Third-Party Links & Partnerships

Our website may contain links to international partners. WI is not responsible for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any third-party websites.

7. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, WI shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising out of your use of our website or participation in our programs. Our total liability for any claim shall not exceed the amount paid by you, if any, for the specific service in question.

8. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Wildfire International, its directors, and employees from any claims, damages, or expenses arising from your breach of these terms or your misuse of WI training materials and field protocols.

9. International Use & Governing Law

WI makes no representation that the materials on this website are appropriate for use in every country. These terms are governed by the laws of California, USA. Any legal action must be filed in the courts located in El Dorado County, CA.

10. Modifications

We reserve the right to update these terms at any time. We will notify users of significant changes by posting a notice on our website. Continued use of the platform or participation in programs constitutes acceptance of the updated terms.
