The Month I Fought Canva and Lost Several Brain Cells

If you've already flipped through this issue, you've probably noticed something different. Something... suspiciously modern. Something that whispers, "Wendy has been through some things."

Yes, friends — the SpyGlass has an entirely new design and feel. And no, it's not because I suddenly became a graphic design prodigy overnight. It's because the program I've used for years — one I knew, trusted, and could operate half-sleep with a cup of coffee — is being retired by Microsoft. Retired. As in: gone, vanished, yeeted into the void.

So here I am, starting from scratch in a completely unfamiliar program, trying to rebuild an entire newsletter template while muttering things like, "Why is that button there?" and "What do you mean this isn't a text box?" and "If Canva crashes one more time, I'm moving to a deserted island."

I won't lie — there were moments. Moments where I questioned my life choices. Moments where I considered faking a power outage. Moments where I stared at the screen and whispered, "I didn't sign up for this."

But after several cups of coffee, a few mild emotional episodes, and one dramatic declaration that I was quitting the newsletter forever (don't worry, it only lasted 23 minutes), I finally wrangled this new template into existence.

So please... be patient and understanding as I navigate this brave new world of drag-and-drop chaos. I'm learning, I'm adapting. I'm occasionally crying. But I'm doing it for you — the loyal readers of SpyGlass who deserve a newsletter that doesn't look like it was printed on a potato.

And because I am a generous soul, I am officially accepting resumes for my replacement. Qualifications include:

- Ability to remain calm while software updates happen mid-project
- Fluency in Canva-ese
- Willingness to listen to me complain about fonts
- Ability to drink wine and nod sympathetically

Until then, you're stuck with me — your frazzled, caffeinated, slightly dramatic Editor — bravely charting a new course through the digital seas.

Enjoy the new look. Enjoy the new theme. And enjoy knowing that this issue was brought to you by sheer determination and possibly a small amount of witchcraft.

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMODORE

A note from the Commodore on our Club, our members, and the season ahead.

September was a vibrant month at TYC — full of energy, great attendance, and a clubhouse that felt alive every single week. Thank you to everyone who came out, volunteered, raced, cooked, cheered, and helped keep the momentum going. The club truly shined.

October will be just as full, and I'm excited for everything ahead. We kick off the month with a meaningful and action-packed day on October 3rd, featuring the Pink Ribbon Regatta, Pink Ribbon Poker Run, and our annual Calypso — Pink Party with DJ Soundwaves Production. These events bring our community together for fun, purpose, and support, and I encourage all members to participate however they can.

We're also approaching the 2027 Board of Directors election on October 16th, an important moment for the future of our club. Please plan to attend the GMM and consider how you'd like to be involved — your voice matters.

And of course, we'll wrap up the month with our Halloween Party, complete with a chili cookoff, costume contest, and music by DJ Soundwaves Production. It's always a fun night and a great way to close out October with some TYC flair.

Thank you for continuing to make TYC a place of connection, tradition, and camaraderie. Let's keep the momentum going into a great October.

OKTOBERFEST ON OCTOBER 17TH

A night of good food, good company, and plenty of fall spirit. It's one of my favorite events of the season, and I hope to see the clubhouse full.

Vice Commodore

Sandy Stone

A message from the Vice Commodore

*Hi, everybody!
Are we ready for Fall weather yet?*

Vice Commodore's Message

October is shaping up to be a lively and action-packed month at TYC, starting with a triple-header this Saturday. The club will be hosting the Pink Ribbon Poker Run and Pink Ribbon Regatta during the day, then rolling straight into the Calypso Party that evening. The clubhouse is already buzzing with preparations — plenty of pink, plenty of planning, and plenty of excitement.

Monday evening, the club will be open for the Saints game against Atlanta, with dinner being served. Hopefully our boys can get out in front and stay there.

Sailors will be looking forward to the annual Singlehanded Against the Lake Race the following Saturday. The Friday after that brings the Fall General Membership Meeting, when next year's Board of Directors will be selected, and then Saturday is Oktoberfest at TYC. Dig out your Dirndls and Lederhosen and hoist a brew.

All of this is in addition to our regular Thirsty Thursday potluck dinners and LSU and Saints games. With a month this full, TYC members have absolutely no excuse to be bored. Thanks to all our volunteers and committee members who help make these events possible — your efforts keep our club thriving.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE MONTH

- October is here, and the club is finally cooling off — both the weather and the members who spent all summer pretending the heat didn't bother them. It's been great seeing everyone drift back in, reconnecting, racing, and enjoying those perfect fall evenings on the balcony.
- Our special events were well attended and it's nice seeing so much member participation.

A SEASON OF GROWTH & GOOD ENERGY

September wrapped up with the kind of steady momentum every membership chair dreams of. New faces at the bar, and a noticeable uptick in members showing up for Wednesday nights, socials, and special events.

Thank you to all our members — old, new, and those who mysteriously appear only when there's food — for keeping TYC lively and welcoming. Your friendliness is the reason people fall in love with this place.

WHAT'S COMING IN OCTOBER

OCTOBER

Membership Drive

This month also brings our biggest membership booster of the year: the October Membership Drive. With the initiation fee waived, it's the ideal time for anyone who's been circling the club like a curious pelican to finally land and join. If you've got friends who "keep meaning to come by," now's your chance to reel them in.

A NOTE FROM THE REAR COMMODORE

"TYC feels alive right now — and that's because of you. Every hello, every shared drink, every 'come sit with us' moment builds the kind of club people want to join. Keep that energy going. We're heading into fall with full sails and a growing fleet."

RACE NEWS

Fall racing is in full swing. Five done and two more to go, wrapping up on 10/14. We're having fun with theme nights – ParrotHead, Pirates, White Linen, Gilligan's Island and 9/30 is "USA" night. Two more to go, so feel free to gussy up and join in.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Pink Ribbon Regatta – Saturday, 10/3 at 10AM. Will use PHRF ratings for this FUN race. Poker Run to follow starting at 11AM. Rainy forecast so be prepared with foul weather gear if it isn't a washout.

TYC Pontchartrain Foundation merch coming soon!

COMMITTEE NOTES

Single Handed Regatta – Saturday, 10/10 on the East course again. NOR to follow soon.

LPRC – 10/22-25 – TYC needs to represent! How about the fleet pick one or two boats and combine crew from all the other and show up for Tammany? Starts at PontYC (pool open on Friday, 10/23 – heated if it is chilly) and ends on the southshore. Cruise, race, party...repeat!

Capdevielle – TYC Team Viper continues to compete in most events and still is working through the learning curve and developing crew. These events are excellent opportunities to visit other clubs and support Team TYC! Team TYC Viper "Premonition" received the prestigious Sportsmanship Trophy at the Lipton's.

It is a perpetual trophy and will be on display at TYC for the next year. We will schedule a formal recognition celebration for the Team/club once the trophy plaque for TYC in 2026 is in hand.

Junior Sailing

Bobby Tassin, Juniors/Summer Camp Chair

THURSDAY PRACTICES

Thursday practices continue weekly. All Juniors are encouraged to come out – whether you plan to race or not.

BACK TO SCHOOL REGATTA

Back to School Regatta was September 12-13 at PontYC. Henry, Ben and Dom competed in the Green Fleet. Dom and Ben could race only Saturday and Dom was in 2nd place at day's end. Henry raced both days and ended up 4th overall and showed promise to be more competitive.

GALLOWAY REGATTA

Galloway Regatta was August 22-23 at GYC. It was the first regatta for our TYC Jrs Henry Case, Dominic Feruzza and Ben Martin in the Optimist Green Fleet. They had a great time and great showing and learned a lot. Opti Green Fleet is where the newbie Opti racers compete until they are ready to move up into the more competitive RWB Opti fleets.

VIPER SAILING

Adam White and crew are ready to resume some Junior practices with a goal of competing in Junior Liptons for 2027!

Gulf Coast Bank & Trust Auction

The Gulf Coast Bank & Trust Auctions in August was very successful for TYCPF and netted us $1,335. Thanks to all who contributed and bid on the items.

Waterway Clean Up

In conjunction with Keep Louisiana Beautiful, we had a Waterway Clean Up on September 12th. Thank you to Rene', Mark, Keith and Nick for pitching in with me and removing a lot of debris from the marina basin and nearby canals. Special thanks to Eric Delaughter at the Outdoor Home Store for donating the trash container and hauling it all away!

Community in action.

Pink Ribbon Poker Run

The inaugural Pink Ribbon Poker Run is this Saturday 10/3. You can get a crew together and hit 9 different stops, then end up at TYC in the afternoon to enjoy some jambalaya and gumbo. Thank you to all our sponsors, stop locations, the PRPR committee and participants for raising money for prevention and early detection of Breast and Cervical cancer. All proceeds go to the LBCHP program in Louisiana. Gulf Coast Bank & Trust has donated four tickets to the Saints-Panther game on November 15th. Raffle tickets will start selling 9/30 and the winner will be selected at the PRPR event on 10/3.

Freedom 250

This is an initiative to raise funds for the TYCPF. The ask/challenge will go to all TYC members to consider donating $250 to the foundation. Details to follow about giving over time, giving more, and planned giving. Stay tuned.

Keeping Members Connected

Marilyn Naquin
House Manager

From the House Manager

I want to give a big, heartfelt thank-you to everyone who stepped up for Donna during this time of sorrow. The food donations, the financial help, and the emotional support you offered showed exactly what makes this club special. When one of ours faces loss, the rest of us rally with full hearts and open hands. Donna felt that love, and so did we — and it's a reminder that TYC isn't just a club, it's family.

Heads up, steak lovers — We will not have Steak Nights for the last three months of the year.

Hold Onto Your Dock Lines!

If you thought September was lively, honey, October's about to blow the doors off the clubhouse! Between football, rentals, and special events, we've barely had time to catch our breath — and now the calendar's filling faster than a shrimp net in Grand Isle.

The holidays are coming in hot, and the clubhouse is booking up quickly — so reserve your date soon.

Member Reminders — Holiday Hustle Is Here

Every member gets one free rental after a full year of membership — and trust me, it's the best deal in town. Skip the chaos of cleaning your house, chasing down folding chairs, and wondering where you put the corkscrew. Let the club do the heavy lifting while you sip something cold and enjoy that gorgeous view. You earned it! There are only 12 weekends left till Christmas!

What's Ahead: Oct 3 — All Hands on Deck

Mark your calendars, because October 3rd is shaping up to be a full-throttle day of fun. We're counting on everyone to jump in, lend a hand, and soak up the good times. It's going to be one of those days that reminds us why we love this crazy, wonderful club.

TAMMANY YACHT CLUB

First Mates

NEWS, ACTIVITIES, AND COMMUNITY FOR OUR FIRST MATES

EVERY BIT OF PARTICIPATION

TOGETHER, WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

First Mates was reorganized with one important purpose: to help and support Tammany Yacht Club. But for First Mates to truly make a difference, we need more than members who simply renew their registration. We need members who participate, volunteer, and share in what we are working to accomplish together.

First Mates is an opportunity to meet people, make new friends, have fun, and support our Yacht Club. Whether it's helping at an event, volunteering for a fundraiser, setting up or cleaning up, offering an idea, or simply showing up and lending a hand—every bit of participation matters.

Over the past year, First Mates has contributed to Tammany Yacht Club in meaningful ways. We have purchased new bar glasses, an air curtain, a large fan, and contributed toward the freezer behind the bar. We are also developing new activities and fundraising that will continue to benefit the Club.

— But we can do even more with ★ greater member involvement. —

You don't have to be a woman to participate. Spouses and significant others are welcome, and any member of Tammany Yacht Club can be part of First Mates.

So when you renew your membership this year, I hope you will consider doing more than paying your registration fee. Come join us. Come participate. Share your ideas. Help us make First Mates something we can all be proud of.

We are not asking anyone to volunteer for everything. We are simply asking each of us to participate when we can.

★ First Mates is only as strong as the members who are willing to be involved.

Let's work together, have fun, support our Yacht Club, and make a difference. We hope to see you at our next meeting or event.

Respectfully,
Mary
