October at TYC: A Month Powered by Pink, Pretzels, and Pure Chaos

October didn't stroll into TYC — it burst through the door wearing a pink feather boa and carrying a crockpot. From the first weekend to the last, the club was buzzing with events, laughter, racing, voting, and more costume glitter than should legally be allowed near a body of water.

The season was scheduled to begin with our Pink Ribbon Poker Run and Regatta, but relentless rain forced the cancellation of the regatta and challenged even the most determined participants. Still, a respectable turnout braved the wet weather for the Poker Run, demonstrating the same heart, humor, and generosity that make TYC special. While the lake may not have been filled with pink sails this year, the commitment to supporting a great cause shined through, proving that a little rain is no match for the spirit of our members.

The final WedNite Race wrapped up the season with competitive spirit and a few "creative interpretations" of the rules. The sunsets were gorgeous, the wind was cooperative (mostly), and the racers proved once again that Wednesday nights are the heartbeat of our sailing community.

Mid month brought the General Membership Meeting and the 2027 Board Election, where members stepped up, voices were heard, and the future of the club took shape. TYC thrives because people care — and October showed that in full force.

Then came Oktoberfest, complete with steins, sausages, lederhosen sightings, and enough polka adjacent enthusiasm to make Bavaria proud.

We closed the month with the Halloween Party and Chili Cookoff, where costumes ranged from clever to chaotic, and the chili ranged from mild to "call the fire department." DJ Soundwaves kept the party alive, and the clubhouse looked spectacular.

October was vibrant, packed, and unforgettable — exactly what TYC does best.

That same evening, we rolled straight into the Calypso Pink Party, where the dance floor stayed full and the rum supply stayed... challenged. If you didn't leave with at least one pink accessory you didn't arrive with, you weren't really there.

Members: Please close out your bar tab before leaving the club each evening. Unsettled tabs create extra work for our staff and can lead to billing discrepancies. Thank you for your assistance.

Crossing the Bar

REMEMBERING PAST COMMODORE HERB SALE

By the Commodore Nick Colletti · November 2026

In maritime tradition, “Crossing the Bar” is a phrase used to honor a sailor’s passing. The “bar” represents the boundary between the harbor and the open sea, symbolizing a sailor’s final voyage. For those of us who have spent our lives on or around the water, it is one of the most respectful ways to say that a shipmate has departed this life and sailed on to calmer seas.

This month, Tammany Yacht Club lost one of its own when Past Commodore Herb Sale crossed the bar on October 2.

As a former Coast Guardsman, I immediately felt a bond with Herb. I met him later in life, after some health issues had slowed him down a bit, so we weren’t men of long conversations. However, we shared plenty of drinks, more than our fair share of ice cream, and some spirited Ring Toss competitions on the patio. Looking back, those simple moments became some of my favorite memories.

Beyond our shared maritime roots, Herb and I also shared an appreciation for fine timepieces. It was one of the many small connections that made spending time with him so enjoyable.

The Herb I knew embodied the camaraderie, friendship, and sense of belonging that make Tammany Yacht Club such a special place. He was the kind of person whose presence made every gathering a little better simply by being there.

While I am grateful for the time we shared, Herb is someone I wish I had known years earlier. The stories, wisdom, and friendships he built over a lifetime left a lasting mark on our club and on the many members fortunate enough to call him a friend. In many ways, that may be the greatest measure of a person: the impact they leave on those around them and the memories that remain long after they are gone.

As we remember Herb, let us celebrate a life well lived, a sailor well respected, and a Past Commodore whose legacy will remain part of Tammany Yacht Club for years to come.

Fair winds and following seas, Herb.
Rest easy, shipmate. We have the watch.
You will be missed.

FROM THE VICE COMMODORE

With Halloween behind us, it is officially holiday season!

Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day are all just around the corner. I would tell everyone to buckle up, but given my tendency to gain a few pounds this time of year, that may not be the most comfortable advice. Instead, just get ready and enjoy the ride!

It's hard to believe another year is already winding down. Where does the time go? At least we can take comfort in knowing that hurricane season appears to have treated most of us kindly this year, and that's certainly something to be grateful for.

Looking ahead, November promises to be a busy and exciting month at TYC. Our Christmas Boat Parade planning meeting will be held on November 6. This is the first year that Tammany Yacht Club will officially be coordinating the parade, so let's work together to make it a memorable event for our members and the community.

We'll also be gathering for a special Thanksgiving-themed Tasty Thirsty Thursday on November 19. Since there will not be a Steak Night this month, we're hoping for a great turnout as we celebrate the season with friends, good food, and plenty of holiday spirit.

"Just get ready and enjoy the ride!"

And for our sailors, there's more to look forward to. If Mother Nature cooperates, we'll finally get to enjoy the rescheduled Pink Ribbon Regatta, along with our annual Singlehanded Race. Whether you're racing, volunteering, or cheering from shore, there will be plenty happening around the club.

It certainly won't be a boring month. I hope to see everyone at the club as we head into this wonderful holiday season.

EIGHT BELLS FOR TWO TYC LEGENDS

"Eight bells" primarily refers to a maritime tradition marking the end of a four-hour watch with eight bell rings, signaling "all is well" and rest time, but also honors deceased sailors, signifying their final watch on Earth

Sail on Capt. Herb Sale and Red Schwab! We lost two great men recently. Both larger than life and full of good cheer.

A couple stories with these guys – Herb took Karl Boehm and I fishing down in Buras. He said "there's a redfish right off that little point" and he caught one right away. We used the same rig, same bait, same spot and could not catch one. He chuckled at us and even gave us his pole to use. He out-caught us at least 5 to 1 that day. Fun fact: Suzy and Herb's daughter and son-in-law Dave met on my old sailboat, GreenJacket.

I was blessed to have spent several recent occasions with Red and Kathleen at TYC lately since he had been battling his health challenges. He was "low on gas" but hanging in there. A lovely young lady popped in the day of the Pink Ribbon Poker Run. Who was the first on his feet to greet her? Red Schwab! We would talk about his issues and we both laughed about the quote "Everybody wants to go to heaven but nobody wants to go now". Well, heaven got some big-time upgrades when these two gentlemen arrived.

October at TYC

A Month of Full Houses and Full Hearts

Marilyn Naquin
House Manager

October was one of the busiest months we've had at TYC, and I couldn't be prouder of how beautifully the clubhouse came together for each event. From pink ribbons to pumpkins, every corner of the club reflected the creativity and dedication of our members.

The Pink Ribbon Poker Run and Regatta brought an incredible turnout, and the Calypso Pink Party transformed the clubhouse into a sea of pink. Thank you to everyone who helped decorate, prep, clean, and reset — your efforts made the day seamless.

Our WedNite racers wrapped up their season with strong attendance and great sportsmanship. The bar and galley stayed lively every Wednesday, and it was wonderful seeing members gather to cheer on the fleet.

The General Membership Meeting and Election ran smoothly, with excellent participation and engagement. Thank you to everyone who contributed to setup, seating, and hospitality — these details matter.

Oktoberfest was a standout event, with festive décor, great food, and a warm, welcoming atmosphere. And the Halloween Party and Chili Cookoff brought creativity, laughter, and a full clubhouse once again.

October showed how strong our community is when we come together. Thank you to all who volunteered, attended, and supported — you make TYC shine.

CAPTAIN HERBERT C. SALE JR.

Fair winds and following seas, Commodore.

Your legacy remains firmly anchored in our hearts.

Captain Herbert C. Sale Jr. ("Herb"), a cherished cornerstone of the Slidell, Louisiana, and EdenIsles communities, passed away on October 2, 2026, at the age of 88.

Born on August 18, 1938, Herb lived a full and vibrant life defined by his sharp entrepreneurial mind, his absolute devotion to family, and a lifelong calling to the open waters of Lake Pontchartrain and many other great fishing destinations across the country.

Herb started his career enlisting and serving in the US Coast Guard, stationed in Cape May New Jersey. He also spent time at Tulane University while he began the process of building a lifelong career in Sales.

Herb was a dynamic force in the regional business community. In 1977, he founded and began operating Copy Products, Inc. He spent decades building a reputation for exceptional service, developing deep professional relationships, and becoming a highly trusted local business leader. After selling his business to IKON Office Solutions in 1994, Herb combined his business experience with his passion for the water by "launching" Suicy Charters. Through this venture, he shared his love of fishing and the coastal lifestyle with clients and friends alike, creating lasting memories for all who stepped aboard.

A dedicated modern mariner, Herb's personal life was beautifully woven into the fabric of the Northshore boating community. After establishing his career in the omen along the canals of EdenIsles and ClipperIsles, his leadership and love for life on the water culminated in his election as Commodore of the Tammany Yacht Club. He served his fellow boaters with the same dedication, expertise, and integrity that defined his life. He was also a proud and active member of Ducks Unlimited and loved to hunt over his beloved retrievers.

Herb followed a proud family tradition of maritime dedication. His father, the late Herbert C. Sale Sr., was a prominent electrical supervisor who notably oversaw the historic construction of World War II PT boats at Higgins Boat Works. Herb carried that same standard of craftsmanship, determination, and dedication into everything he did.

Herb and Suzy also spent 12 happy years in Mount Juliet, Tennessee where they made many new friends who remain close to family in this difficult time. They spent their final years together back in Slidell as members of St Genevieve Catholic Church and most recently were residents at Sage Lake Assisted living in Covington where they were loved daily and enjoyed Herb's final time together on earth.

Above all, Herb's greatest pride was his family. He is survived by his beloved wife of 63 years, Suzy; his brother Jimmy; his sons, Chris Sale and wife Cherie, Andry Sale and wife Amy; his daughter, Marcy Landry, affectionately known as his "Tutu" and her husband Dave; his Grandchildren – Suzanne Russo and Isabelle Landry (Marcy and Dave), Andre and Simone Sale (Chris and Cherise), and Andrew and Max Sale (Andry and Amy) along with a host of extended family members, colleagues, and lifelong friends. He spent many joyous days fishing with his Grandchildren and lovingly teaching them "how to fish" and "when to reel" (or "don't reel"). They will forever remember his steady, guiding hand, mastery of the water, and loving spirit. Those closest to him also remember his entrepreneurial spirit, his love of sales, and his passion for the water.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Herbert C. Sale Sr. and Louise Nelson Sale. The family has asked for any consideration of donations to go to Enhabit Hospice (https://enhabitcares.org) who loved Herb with incredible compassion to the very end.

A funeral Mass was held October 8, 2026 at St. Genevieve Catholic Church, 58025 St. Genevieve Lane, Slidell, LA 70460.
