

Zenith Real Estate Partners Appoints Tom Lomax as New Director of Asset Management

London, 27 May, 2025 — Zenith Real Estate Partners, a value add investment manager specialising in the office and the industrial/logistics sectors, is pleased to announce the appointment of Tom Lomax as Director of Asset Management.

With substantial experience in real estate asset management, Tom brings a wealth of industry knowledge and a proven track record of enhancing portfolio performance and value creation. Prior to joining Zenith, Tom worked at Grosvenor Estates, one of the largest property owners and asset managers in the UK, where he was focusing on asset management of Grosvenor's Mayfair London Portfolio of £1.2 billion as well as investment and fundraising activities.

In this new role, Tom will be responsible for overseeing the strategic and operational performance of Zenith's value add portfolio as well as sourcing and evaluating new acquisitions and investments for the firm.

"Tom brings remarkable knowledge and capabilities to Zenith. His proven expertise in enhancing property value is well aligned with our strategic goals to maximise return for our investors" said Gal Nadir, a Partner at Zenith. "We are thrilled to welcome him to the team as we continue to expand our portfolio across key markets and are actively looking for new acquisitions in the industrial/logistics and office spaces.", added Assaf Topaz, a Partner at the firm.

Commenting on the appointment, Tom said, "I am excited to join Zenith at such a pivotal time in its growth. I look forward to working with the team to drive performance, innovation, and long-term value for our investors."
