KNAPPABODA APPART HOTEL: REAL PRIVACY, HIGH QUALITY AND TIME FOR FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Combining the best of a family-run hotel and private apartments, Knappaboda is perfect for those who don't want to miss out on any comfort or service, but want to spend their skiing holiday in Lech in a relaxed atmosphere.

In 2021, a simple B&B was passed down to the next generation and given a new lease on life as an aparthotel by Maximilian Walch and his wife, Conny.

The result is eight spacious apartments, each with a cosy living room and a fireplace, a fully equipped kitchen-dining area and two well-designed bathrooms as well as two or three bedrooms. Fresh bread and pastries are dropped at your door every morning as well as breakfast on request. You can stock your fridge with delicious things from the 'Knapparei' — the hotel's own grocer's shop, where you will find homemade dishes and a good choice of wine.

In addition to the numerous opportunities that Lech Zürs offers in terms of sports, guests at the Knappaboda itself will find relaxation in abundance. This could be during a private family evening in the stylishly furnished apartments — where high-quality design classics meet the best craftsmanship — while unwinding in front of a fine view in the beautifully designed wellness area, or during a fireside chat in the cosy hotel lounge.

Escape everyday life and let yourself be enchanted by the magic of winter at the Appart Hotel Knappaboda!
