ABOUT

I am a recent graduate of Purdue University with a degree in Web Programming and Design and a minor in Business Management. My passion lies in all aspects of design, ranging from user interfaces and applications to logos, graphics, and videos. I specialize in crafting web applications that emphasize user interface (UI) and user experience (UX) design, ensuring optimal responsiveness across all devices. My goal is to create interactive and enjoyable experiences for users through innovative and intuitive design.
