SALENTINO

At the foot of the majestic Aragonese Castle of Otranto, among the white stone illuminated by the sunset and the scent of the sea drifting through the alleys of the historic center, the tasting experience by Emporio Salentino comes to life.

Emporio Salentino is not simply a place, but an authentic story of Puglia: a selection of wines, flavors, traditions, and stories preserved by small producers, artisan wineries, and families who have handed down gastronomic culture for generations.

Each tasting is designed as a sensory journey through the aromas of the Mediterranean scrubland, the intense character of Salento wines, and the excellence of local products.

The intimate and charming location offers an elegant atmosphere, perfect for convivial moments filled with glasses of wine, storytelling, and authentic flavors, overlooking the timeless beauty of Otranto.
