5) Wild Animals

Safaris in Africa entail a certain degree of risk. We advise our guests to consult their guide before undertaking any activity that may bring them into an area populated by wild animals.

Attacks by wild animals are rare, but no safari into the African wilderness can guarantee that this will not occur.

Neither the company, nor its employees, owners or agents can be held responsible for any incident or injury on safari that may or may not result in loss of possessions or death. Guests will not be allowed to participate in game drives or any other activities/excursions unless they have signed the EWS indemnity form.

6) Rates

Rates may be subject to change due to sudden currency fluctuations, tax increases, governmental regime change etc. Elephant Watch Safaris Ltd will strive to adhere to published rates but reserves the right to adjust them as necessary.

7) Requirements on final bookings

Guests are required to sign the Elephant Watch Safaris indemnity forms at check-in on/before arrival at Elephant Watch Camp. For guests departing in the afternoon, a surcharge may apply for meals and activities until their afternoon departure.

Late departures MUST be pre-booked and are subject to the availability of a vehicle and space at the location to cater for extra guests.

9) Insurance

It is a condition of using the rates and services offered by the Company that all clients (including individuals, companies, and other legal entities) take out appropriate comprehensive medical insurance (including cover for pandemic related occurrences), emergency medical evacuation, travel and other insurances prior to departure of the clients from their country of origin.

This insurance should include, but be not limited to, the following eventualities: any expenses associated with cancellation or curtailment of a reservation held, emergency evacuation and medical expenses, personal injury or death, repatriation expenses, damage/theft/loss of personal property, baggage, money, or goods.

Insurance should be arranged from the time a deposit is made to cover cancellation from that time onward.

The Agent hereby agrees to indemnify the property from loss, liability, damage, or any cost that may be incurred arising from the failure of the Agent to inform the guests of the need to obtain travel and medical insurance.

A visit to Africa and particularly a safari entails an element of risk and neither the Company nor its officers and employees shall be liable in any way for any loss or damages expense or cost arising from any incident involving clients (individuals, companies, and other legal entities) that may occur whilst using any of the services provided by the Company or third parties contracted by this company. Attendance of safety briefings are mandatory.
