Why did we implement this document?

After several years of contract violations, missed invoices, cancellations with no notice, and worse, we decided it was necessary to set standards in place for our firm.

Billing, Cancellations, and Time

01.

Billing & Rate

All services provided by axom are billed at our standard hourly rate of $150 per hour unless otherwise specified in writing. This rate reflects not only time spent but also the advanced expertise, technologies, and specialized infrastructure utilized to deliver high-quality results. Any travel requested by the client, or additional expenses incurred in the fulfillment of the agreement, will be billed immediately.

02.

Cancellation

If you commit to hiring axom for services, including verbally or in writing, but subsequently cancel or fail to proceed, a $250 cancellation fee will apply.

03.

Timing

Clients must provide feedback or responses to deliverables and communications within 24-48 hours, including weekends. Failure to comply will result in all outstanding payments becoming immediately due.

Content, Nature, and Ethics

4

Content

Content Notice: Clients are required to provide at least 48 hours' notice for any new content requests or changes, except in cases of emergencies. Emergencies will be reviewed and vetted by our internal Ethics Team for approval.

A

Authorship & Copyright

All websites, web applications, source code, design systems, visual assets, layouts, written content, structural architecture, and derivative components (collectively, the “Work”) created, designed, developed, or maintained by axom LLC (“axom”) are original works authored by axom and are protected under applicable United States and international copyright laws.

Unless expressly stated otherwise in writing and executed by axom, no Work shall be deemed a “work made for hire.” Axom shall at all times retain full and exclusive authorship and copyright ownership of the Work, subject only to the limited license granted herein.

Websites hosted, maintained, or otherwise controlled by axom shall remain under the sole design, structural, and technical discretion of axom. No third party—including but not limited to external agencies, freelancers, contractors, consultants, or designers—may access, modify, edit, replicate, or interfere with the Work unless such individual is either:

1. The legal owner of the contracting business entity; or
2. A bona fide W-2 employee of the contracting business entity.

Any unauthorized access, modification, or attempted modification of the Work shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

B

License Grant; Use and Non-Modification

Upon full payment for services rendered, axom grants the client a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Work for the client’s own lawful commercial purposes.

This license permits the client to operate, display, and commercially benefit from the website but does not transfer authorship, copyright ownership, or intellectual property rights in the Work.

Unless and until Section C of this Agreement is satisfied in full, axom shall:

- Host and control all websites and related features;
- Retain full authority over design integrity, technical structure, and functional components;
- Maintain exclusive rights to alter, enhance, restrict, or discontinue features at its discretion.

The client may not duplicate, reverse engineer, resell, sublicense, distribute, or permit third-party modification of any portion of the Work without the prior written consent of axom.

C

Separation and Copyright License Transfer

At the client’s election, full separation from axom’s hosting, control, and licensing framework may be obtained upon payment of a one-time copyright license transfer fee of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000 USD) (“Separation Fee”).

Upon receipt of the Separation Fee in full, axom shall grant the client a perpetual, transferable, and exclusive copyright license to the Work, including the right to:

- Transfer hosting services away from axom;
- Modify, maintain, or redesign the website at the client’s discretion;
- Engage third parties to manage or alter the Work.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, axom shall retain all good-faith artistic authorship rights, including but not limited to:

- The irrevocable right to display, reproduce, and reference the Work (in whole or in part) for portfolio, marketing, promotional, and demonstrative purposes;
- The right to reuse non-client-confidential design elements, frameworks, and architectural concepts in future projects.

If the Separation Fee is not paid, or if required hosting or maintenance fees become delinquent, axom shall retain full copyright ownership and all associated rights and controls described herein.

D

The provisions of this Section shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason. Any breach of this Section shall entitle axom to immediate injunctive relief, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity.
