CLERKENWELL

ABOUT

THE GREEN CLERKENWELL

A pub in the heart of Clerkenwell that honours the unique, historic and design-led character of the area. The Green prides itself on the thoughtfully curated selection of local independent beers, seasonal cocktails and considered, natural-focused wine list.

A neighbourhood pub favoured by locals as well as welcome visitors from further-a-field, The Green is a proud example of London's great tradition of drinking pubs. It has a vibrant ground floor and bar, generous outdoor seating and a private first floor events space for hire.

We are part of The Culpeper Family Hospitality Group, with three pub siblings across East and North London. (The Culpeper in Spitalfields, The Buxton in Brick Lane and The Duke Organic in Islington).

A photograph of a living room at night. A large, dark green Christmas tree is the central focus, densely decorated with warm white lights and various ornaments including gold, silver, and dark blue baubles. In the foreground, the silhouettes of people are visible: a man on the left looking towards the tree, and a woman and another person on the right. The room is lit by the tree's lights and a lamp on the right. Large windows in the background show a dark exterior. A snake plant is on the left, and a potted plant is on the right.
