CALIFORNIA DREAM WINE.

There is no other place on earth that you'll find the dizzying landscape of Yosemite National Park. Trust us, we've looked. We love this land in all its glory, from the towering granite monoliths and rugged skyline to the ancient sequoias and winding waterways. It's why we chose this land for our vineyard - located 3,000 feet above sea level at the base of the park in the Sierra foothills in the town of Groveland, CA.

After picking, the fruit is allowed to remain on its skins for sufficient time to allow some color and texture extraction before being pressed. The juice is allowed to settle overnight and then fermented at cold temperatures to retain the pungency of its aromatics. This wine is wonderfully floral and is complemented by a generous mix of tropical fruit and citrus.

Low yields, the warm growing season, and a hint of new oak all contribute to a concentrated wine showing fruit and spice in equal parts with an underlying suppleness of texture that is as alluring as the Park for which Yosemite Cellars is named.
