Ryan Harms
Founder

NO PRETENSE, ALL TASTE.

Ryan Harms started Union Wine Company in 2005 to make great Oregon wine more accessible, without cutting corners on quality. Underwood is where that idea lives: approachable, everyday wine drawn from vineyards across the state, at a price that makes sense any night of the week. We pioneered canned wine in Oregon, and in a can or a bottle, it's the same wine.

A red made to be served cold. First Crush is 81% Pinot Noir, with 18% Riesling and a touch of Chardonnay, from the Willamette (71%) and Umpqua (29%) Valleys. At 12% alcohol, it's light and juicy straight from the cooler, with pomegranate, red currant and a pinch of black pepper. Berry-bright and all snap when cold, it's built for playlists, good company and nights without a plan. Made to chill, not to flex.
