Our Commitment

We believe the web should be accessible and inclusive for all visitors, regardless of technology or ability. Our goal is to provide a website that can be used comfortably and effectively by as many people as possible.

Accessibility Standards

We strive to follow the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA standards wherever possible. These guidelines explain how to make web content more accessible for people with a wide range of disabilities, including visual, auditory, cognitive, and motor impairments.

Accessibility Features

To support accessibility on this website, we have implemented efforts that may include:

- Clear and consistent navigation
- Semantic heading structure
- Keyboard navigability
- Alternative text for meaningful images
- Responsive and readable typography
- Sufficient color contrast where possible
- Compatibility with common assistive technologies and screen readers
- Ongoing review and improvement of accessibility issues

Third-Party Content

Some areas of the website may include third-party tools, embedded media, or external platforms that are not fully controlled by Sarel Media. While we aim to work with accessible providers, we cannot guarantee the accessibility of third-party content.

Ongoing Improvements

Accessibility is an ongoing process. We regularly review our website and continue working to improve accessibility, usability, and compatibility with assistive technologies.

Feedback and Contact Information

If you experience any difficulty accessing content on this website, notice an accessibility issue, or require assistance, we encourage you to contact us.

Please include:

- The page or feature you experienced difficulty with
- The type of issue encountered
- The device and browser you were using (if possible)

We will make reasonable efforts to address accessibility issues and respond in a timely manner.
