

Jeff Joaquin is an enthusiastic speaker with a no holds barred approach to proclaiming God's Infinite Mercy in our lives. He has given talks on abortion healing, pro-life, substance abuse, business success/failure and charity to high school and college students, men's and women's conferences, retreats, and gala's all-over North America. His abortion healing talk has received international attention and has been the subject of a Documentary entitled "Saving a Miracle" which has been aired on EWTN and countless other media outlets around the world.

He recently released a new Documentary entitled "How to Save a Life" chronicling the story of two University of Tampa students who were one step away from an abortion when they showed up to the Chapel that night and heard of God's miraculous story of post-abortive healing in his life. The Documentary has been watched by tens of thousands of people all over the world and has allowed God the opportunity to help another young woman choose life over death for her unborn child...

Jeff has been blessed to work with three other couples over the recent years who have chosen life over death for their unborn children and thus has focused on creating awareness of the role that men need to play in supporting their partners to overcome the culture of death. He speaks of the often-overlooked men's perspective of abortion and lays bare the impact and lifelong burden of guilt that men carry after abortion to provide men/women a path to healing and help them to make positive decisions about unexpected pregnancies. Jeff was recently invited to be a Regional Coordinator for the Silent No More Campaign to address these very painful issues for men and woman who have experienced Lost Fatherhood/Motherhood....

He is the Owner of JMJ Site Development Inc. which is a philanthropic construction company supporting worthy ministries all over the world from the Philippines, India, Kenya, the Central Africa Republic, Guatemala, Jerusalem and across the entire United States.

He was recently invited to join the Catholic Speakers Organization in September of 2023

He is a member of the Board of Directors of Paradisus Dei which is the ministry that provides the That Man Is You! (TMIY) Program to over 1,000 Parishes across the United States and several countries overseas. Jeff has provided content for three different sessions which are part of Years 1, 5 and 8 programming for TMIY.

Jeff is one of the founding members of the Tampa Bay Catholic Men's Conference which had its 16th Annual Conference in February of 2026. The Conference has consistently provided national speakers and ministry opportunities to the 1,000 men in attendance for over the last decade.
