

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC PURPOSES

CRICOS 058166K

The English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course is designed to prepare you for success in university or college study in an English-speaking environment. You will develop essential academic skills, including essay writing, research, referencing, and delivering confident presentations. Through practical tasks and expert guidance, you will build the language, critical thinking, and study skills required for academic success. In a supportive learning environment, this course helps you gain the confidence to succeed in your academic journey.

Who is this course for?

This course is designed for upper-intermediate English learners seeking to transition into university or college study in an English-speaking academic environment. It is ideal for students aiming to refine their academic English skills, including research, writing, and presentations. With a strong focus on academic readiness, the course provides a pathway to further study in Australia, supporting you to meet language requirements and succeed in higher education.

INTAKE DATES

5 Jan, 9 Feb, 16 Mar, 20 Apr, 22
May, 29 Jun, 3 Aug, 7 Sep, 12 Oct,
16 Nov, 2026

COURSE DURATION

1-52 weeks

CAMPUS LOCATIONS

Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane,
Adelaide

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS:

There are no formal entry requirements for this course. You will complete a placement test before starting to ensure you are placed in a class that matches your current English level.

For more information or to apply visit ECA College

Key Learning Outcomes

- Develop advanced academic English skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing for university study
- Strengthen essay writing, research, and referencing skills using academic sources effectively
- Deliver confident academic presentations and participate in discussions with clarity and accuracy
- Apply critical reading and listening skills to analyse lectures, texts, and academic materials
- Prepare for university study through real-world academic tasks and structured learning support

Course Overview

The English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course is designed to develop advanced academic English skills for success in university or college study. You will strengthen your proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, while building essential academic capabilities such as essay writing, research, and presentations. Through engaging and practical learning, you can expect:

- Contemporary academic topics and discussions
- Interactive debates and collaborative tasks
- Bespoke learning materials and real-world academic assessments
- Ongoing support to build confidence and academic success

Study Pathway

This course provides clear pathways to a range of universities and colleges, supporting your transition into higher education. Upon successful completion, you may progress directly into further study, depending on entry requirements. For more information on available pathways and partner institutions, please visit our pathway page at ecacollege.edu.au for more details.

For more information or to apply visit ECA College

