Jesus Is Risen Indeed!

All through the month of March, our focus in Bible class was on the greatest story ever told; how Jesus died for our sins and rose again. Day by day, we walked through His sacrifice and the beautiful truth that He is alive.

In our last Bible class before Holy Week, we had a special time of celebration. The children watched the full Easter story through Superbook in Spanish, and it was such a meaningful moment. My heart's desire was for them to understand that this is not a sad story, but a joyful one. Jesus is alive!

I'll be honest, toward the end of March, I found myself feeling a little discouraged. Teaching 3-6 year-olds means short attention spans and lots of energy, and I wondered how much they were truly understanding. I just wanted them to grasp how deeply God loves them and what He has done for us.

But God, in His kindness, gave me the sweetest encouragement. Right before break, a parent shared that their child, one of our more active little ones, gave a full two-minute summary of what Jesus did for us. My heart absolutely exploded with joy. If he is understanding, I know the seeds are being planted in so many others as well.

During the break, Caleb and I also had the opportunity to co-host an Easter party with friends from Arms of Love Ministries. We gathered with 30+ children and 8+ moms and walked through the Easter story together. The focus was simple, but powerful: Jesus knows you, loves you, and is always with you. We followed this with a craft, games, and a shared meal. It was such a sweet time of fellowship and joy.

Caleb has also been incredibly busy in his garage, and it has become such a blessing to the missionary community. Time and time again, we hear, "Oh, my car..." or "I know a friend who needs help..." His work is helping keep missionaries on the road and able to continue sharing the gospel where God has placed them. Seeing the relief and gratitude on their faces is truly rewarding.

As always, thank you for your continued support. Each of you is such a blessing to our family, and we love you dearly. Please know we are always praying for you. If you ever have a specific prayer request, we would be honored to lift it up.
