

Le VIII takes its inspiration from the eight distinct plots of the Clos de la Commaraine vineyard, from which it takes its name.

Christophe Raoux and Jérôme Rioux craft a cuisine in perpetual motion. Each creation is conceived as an exploration of a singular ingredient, unveiling its full expression through contrasting textures, precise temperatures and layers of subtle flavour.

Nature

An ode to nature in eight sequences, conceived as a return to what truly matters.

A tribute to the land, the seasons, and the artisans who cultivate them.
Through a cuisine of precision and restraint, each ingredient reveals the depth, purity, and elegance of its origin.
