- 4.3 Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as appointing the intermediary as an agent, officer or employee of Camissa, or any of its representatives, and the intermediary shall not hold itself out as such or be entitled to enter into any Agreement or undertaking on behalf of Camissa or any of its representatives.
- 4.4 The intermediary undertakes to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, FSCA conduct standards, directives and industry requirements applicable to its business and to the selected products, including but not limited to the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002, Collective Investment Schemes Control Act, 2002, Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001, Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013, Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017, Financial Markets Act, 2012, and any amendments thereto.

In such case, the intermediary shall be taken to have indemnified Camissa against all claims caused directly, indirectly or consequentially of whatsoever nature that may be brought against Camissa because of the aforementioned cancellation.

- 8.6 Camissa reserves the right, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, to market and promote the selected products otherwise than through the intermediary, and no right to fees shall accrue to the intermediary in respect of any business not introduced by the intermediary in terms of the provisions of this Agreement.

- 8.10 In the event of any overpayment of fees to the intermediary by Camissa, the intermediary consents to Camissa setting off the overpayment against any fees that are due or may become due to the intermediary. If there are no fees due to the intermediary, then upon a written request to reimburse Camissa, the intermediary shall discharge such obligation within 5 (five) business days. Should payment not be received within 5 (five) business days, Camissa shall be entitled to charge interest calculated from the date of expiry of the 5 (five) business days' notice until the date of payment of such amount, at the prime overdraft rate of ABSA Bank Limited from time to time.

- 8.11 Upon receipt by Camissa of a written instruction from the investor to the effect that the investor wishes to cancel the intermediary fees or that the intermediary no longer represents the investor, the intermediary shall be paid any fees owing, due and payable in respect of such investor at the time of termination. Any such fees shall be prorated accordingly at the date of termination. Thereafter, the intermediary shall not be entitled to any further fees in respect of such investor.

- 8.18 An initial advice fee may only be charged on new money invested into a selected product, including lump sum investments, additional investments and recurring debit order contributions, including increases in recurring debit order contributions were agreed to by the investor. An initial advice fee will not apply to the value of an investor's existing investment, existing units, switches between funds, transfers, or any amount that does not constitute a new investment contribution.
- 8.19 Camissa may suspend or withhold payment of any fees pending investigation of actual or suspected regulatory, legal or contractual non-compliance.
