Current Revision Date: 04/26/2026

Section I – Overview

Scissortail Fandoms manages and maintains multiple chats for their convention 'AnthroExpo' and extracurricular events within the state of Oklahoma. These chats operate within the laws of the United States and the State of Oklahoma.

All individuals, regardless of location, are welcome in our chat spaces, but be aware that events are held in the state of Oklahoma.

It is imperative for users to review the following guidelines in order to participate within the chat space. Failure to do so may result in removal from chat spaces.

Scissortail Fandoms, Inc reserves the right to bar/remove any persons from their online spaces, at any time, for any reason.

If something isn't explicitly against a written rule, admins have the final say.

- Maintain kindness, courtesy, and a welcoming attitude. Respect diverse ideas while freely expressing your own within the furry community.
 - Respect is required from everyone. Talking down to others, excessive insults, or disrespectful behavior will result in a ban.
- Avoid spamming messages, stickers, or images. Large groups of images should be sent as an album.
- Avoid posting drama or attention-seeking comments in the chat. Refrain from inciting or perpetuating disruptive behavior
 - Admins have final say on what counts as drama.
- Discussions among a limited number of members may be asked to move to DMs to prevent chat overruns.
 - Reserve roleplaying for designated channels or direct messages; keep chat discussions topic based.

- Respect other users' privacy; refrain from discussing their lives without direct permission, with extenuating circumstances reported to staff.
- Discussion on cautionary topics, such as politics and religion, etc., are to remain civil. At times the admin team may tell chat members to move on from the topic.
- AI content will not be allowed in the chats.
- Any threats or implied threats of violence, self-harm or otherwise will not be tolerated in any capacity.
 - While understanding that life may present challenges, the AnthroExpo chats is not a platform for repeated depressive discussions or therapy. Members are encouraged to seek professional help for mental health concerns. Excessive, repetitive expressions of distress may be subject to moderation, and individuals are urged to prioritize their well-being by reaching appropriate resources for support.
 - The Self Crisis Rule allows inquiries for advice in the public forum but prohibits blatant requests for money. Continuous solicitation may result in deletion and warnings

Section IV – Outline of Adult Chat Spaces

- You must have your ID verified by a member of the Moderator Team before you are allowed access to any of these areas. You will be required to furnish a picture of yourself holding your ID with a clear enough resolution that your date of birth, ID expiration date, name, and picture are clear. Your ID must be issued by a governing body at a state or federal level (ex. driver's license, DOD ID, passport, etc.)
 - You may black out other information such as your address and driver's license/ID number.
 - If we are unable to verify your identity using this method, then you may meet a moderator in person to be verified.
 - If you do not have an ID, if it's expired, or if it looks altered in any way you will not be permitted access to the 18+ Telegram chat or NSFW tag in Discord.
- Posting extreme kinks/fetishes is forbidden.
 - These may include but are not limited to: rape, cub/ABDL, baby fur, excessive/extreme gore, vore, snuff
- Illegal media of any type depicting child pornography, zoophilia, bestiality, self-harm, suicide, or scenes of non-consensual rape is strictly prohibited.
 - There will be no warnings; you will be instantly banned and blacklisted from attending AnthroExpo conventions. If the picture constitutes a broken law, the moderators are obligated to file a police report with local authorities.

- Real-life photography and pornography are allowed, however, never post pictures of another person that you do not have explicit permission to post.
- Solicitation for sex or “cruising” for hookups is strictly prohibited. This is a group chat, not a dating app

Section V – Enforcement

All chats operate on a ‘three strike rule’ basis starting with a verbal warning, then a form of lockout and ending with a removal from the chat space. Admins have reserved rights to respond to infractions at their own discretion.

Users may also lose abilities to post stickers, links, etc. at admin discretion.

A user is able to contest their infraction, should they wish to, either to the responding admin, to a separate admin of their choosing, or via an email to safety@anthroexpo.com

- Refrain from 'backseat' moderating. Contact administrators if issues arise.

Section VI – Rules Governing Advertisements and Links

Advertisements in general chats are permitted - Follow the guidelines below:

- We define advertisements as any post made to generate interest in a product or service that generates revenue for any company or individual.
- To be approved for posting advertisements; your post should include:
 - A link to a website or social media that can show completed works
 - A Terms of Service (TOS) that can be easily identified; so that individuals are informed on the product/service provided.
 - A Brief description of the product or service
- You must provide a copy of your advertisement to a moderator which will include the exact wording and links that will be checked for authenticity.
- Advertising is limited to once per week.
- Approval from an admin is required for any links leading to other chats.
- You must receive clearance from a moderator each time you would like to post an ad or link. Failure to do so will result in loss of advertising/linking privileges.
