

SLOW BURN DAD

A Five-Point Framework for Building Successful Kids

THE PROBLEM YOUNG DADS FACE

- Dads just aren't sure exactly what to do in raising successful kids
- Many fathers have a fear of failing as a father, but don't know how to overcome it
- Dads don't have a step-by-step roadmap for how to "do fathering"

"I have a plan for everything else ...
Can I please have a plan for fathering?"

WHAT'S HOLDING DADS BACK

- Lack of training — Most dads have not received enough “dad training” from their own fathers
- No accountability, so dad’s feel isolated — Books and podcasts can't keep you on track
- Crisis-driven parenting — Reacting to problems instead of proactive parenting for the future

THE SLOW BURN DAD SOLUTION

We have developed a Five-Point Framework for Building Successful Kids: it is a proven, step-by-step system that helps dads build strong, healthy, successful children.

THE DELIVERY METHOD:

MASTERMINDS

Small groups of fathers meeting regularly for accountability, peer learning, and practical application.

WHY THIS MATTERS

My story began with my own father's challenges—growing up homeless and trying to learn how to be a father for me and my siblings.

Due to a mix of miracles and my father's new faith in Jesus, he not only gave me a great life and was a good father, but he also put in me a heart to help other men who are struggling to be successful at fathering.

I've seen what's possible when a dad gets the help he needs. Now I want to help other fathers build strong, healthy, successful children who will go out and change the world.

WE NEED YOUR HELP TO LAUNCH
