

Global Crisis Support

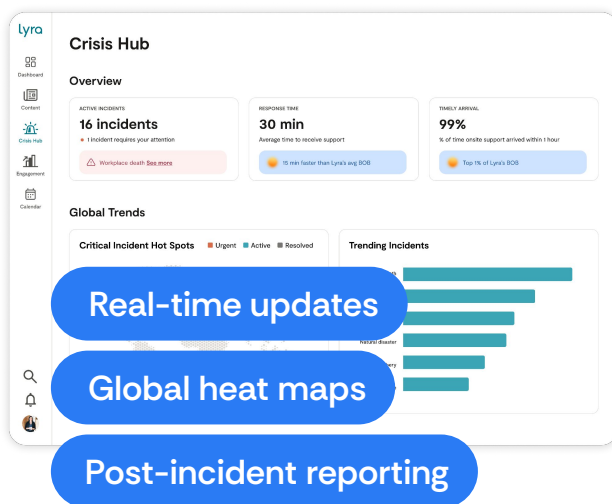

High-quality care and unlimited support to navigate the unexpected

We live in unprecedented times. Critical incidents and high-risk situations put immense stress on employees, managers, and benefit teams.

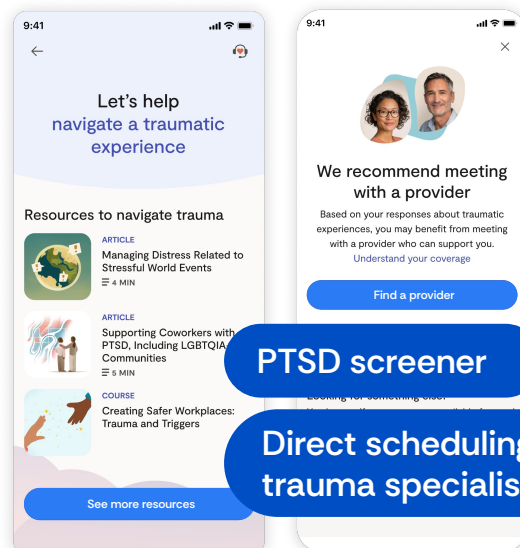

24/7 expert crisis care

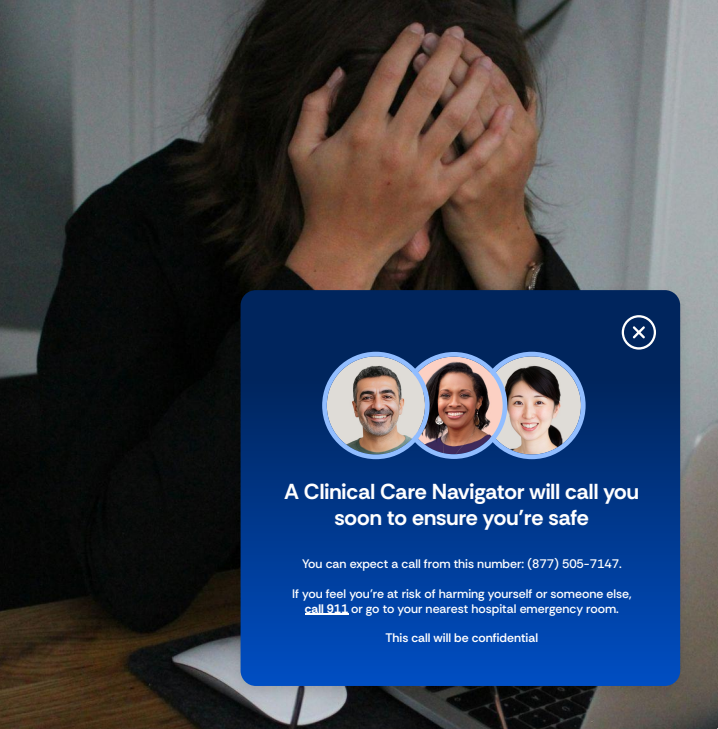

Lyra has your back with unlimited crisis prevention and response. We help organizations act faster, reducing response delays and ensuring employees receive the care they need—virtually, by phone or onsite. Day or night, our unmatched network of in-house trauma experts is ready to respond with local, high-quality care.

► Proactive crisis management
One centralized hub for requesting and monitoring critical incidents

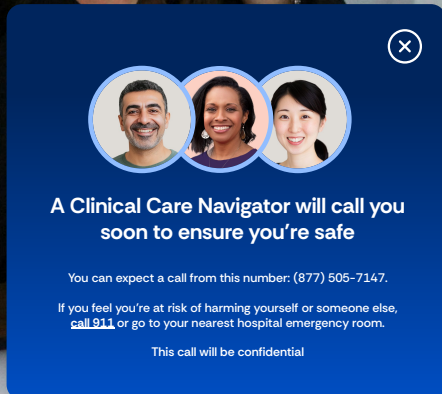

Fast access to care ►
Crisis tools help employees and managers request immediate support

High-risk support for suicide prevention

Lyra's proprietary protocols proactively identify high-risk members and initiate life-saving interventions.

100%
in-house care

200+ countries & territories

Global network of local responders

Our network of in-house trauma experts is always ready to respond with local, high-quality care.

3k+
trauma specialists

Support before, during, and after a crisis

Reactive care isn't enough. Our organizational well-being experts help managers and leaders prepare for crises through trainings, tools, and workshops.

 Support crisis training and preparedness

 Restore workplace stability

 Promote safety and recovery

 Mitigate risks and long-term impact

 Provide specialized trauma counseling

 Increase resiliency and trust

Get unlimited support to navigate the unexpected lyrahealth.com

