Information for Public Comment in the California Water Plan 2028 Advisory Committee Meetings

The first Advisory Committee meeting will be held in-person at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Sacramento, CA (2001 Point W Way, Sacramento, CA 95815). The meeting will take place over two half-days on May 13 and 14, 2026, with public comment occurring at the end of Day 2, at approximately 11:50 a.m.

In-Person Public Comment Process

Comment cards will be available at the meeting to establish a comment queue. Comment time limits will default to the standard three minutes. If there are more than 10 public comments, comment time will default to two minutes.

Comment Process for California Native American Tribal Leadership

In-person elected Tribal leaders and formally designated representatives who want to comment on any agenda items will have the opportunity at the end of Day 2. Tribal leaders and designated representatives will be invited to provide their comments before the AC takes public comment. Elected Tribal leaders will be invited to speak first, then the invitation will be extended to formally designated Tribal representatives. Unless otherwise requested, Tribal comment time limits will default to the standard three minutes. Once Tribal comment is complete, the facilitator will call for public comment. Tribal citizens are welcome to join the public comment queue.

Written Public Comments

If you would like to provide written comments to be included in the AC meeting record, please email your comments to cwpc@water.ca.gov by Thursday May 14, 2026 at 5:00 p.m. Please note that comments received via email will be reviewed by DWR staff and included in the AC meeting summary for consideration by the AC at the next quarterly meeting.

YouTube Livestream

A YouTube Livestream option has been made available for viewing purposes only. Individuals who use this option will not be able to provide public comment during the meeting.
