

Letter of Medical Necessity

Sample Document

Some items and services are required by the CRA to be accompanied by a more descriptive document from a medical practitioner. This is not a regular prescription, but a letter stating medical necessity. Here is an example of what the letter might look like.

Note: It must state that the product/service is medically necessary and what it is treating.

[date]

To Whom it May Concern,

Please note that [Patient Name] suffers from [condition or diagnosis] and it is medically necessary that they purchase/pursue [item or service] to treat this condition.

Sincerely,

[Practitioners name and credentials]
