Winemaking by Francis Hutt

*A ride in a cab, a motion of the hand.
A daily ritual and a secret language.
A letter of love, that isn't just words.
A touch you know, a smell you can taste.
Let's make a memory tonight, and I'll write to you tomorrow, and every day after.
Pull and push. Feels like I'm slipping.
This happy hurt.
Late night collusion, dreaming.
It's Real.*
